THE MEMORIAL SERVICE THE SERVICE OF HOLY COMMUNION

Sunday, May 29, 1994 - 7:30 p.m.
Rev. Janice L. Frederick-Watts
Scripture: Isaiah 6:1-8 (NIV)

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a throne, high and exalted, and the train of his robe filled the temple. Above him were seraphs, each with six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they were flying. And they were calling to one another: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory." At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook and the temple was filled with smoke. "Woe to me!" I cried. "I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King, the Lord Almighty." Then one of the seraphs flew to me with a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar.

Forever in my mind and in my heart is the last time I saw Papa, my grandfather Hiram. He was sick and in the hospital and my parents had taken me and my sister there so we could see each other. My sister and I couldn't go in the hospital because we were children. But we went as close to his room from the outside as we could. I'll forever remember seeing Papa turn around on his bed to the window and wave to us. I would have given anything to be close to Papa again. How I longed to be close to him. How I hated the distance created by walls and rules. In the year my grandfather Hiram died, I remember little else other than my loss and the knowledge, even though I was a child, that my life would be changed forever.

Forever in my memory is the last time I saw my grandfather Matthew. He was at home, sick and in his bed. The adults in my life were in and out of the bedroom he shared with my grandmother. Whenever the door was opened, I quickly moved to the opening just for a glimpse of him. And when I saw him, he was lying so still, and to my knowledge unaware of what was going on around him. All I wanted to do was to go in and be close to him, but instead there was just the constant opening and closing of a door. In the year my grandfather Matthew died, I remember my loss and my life changed forever.

These are by no means the only losses of my life, but some of the earliest ones that I can remember. And with each experience of loss in my life, I have grieved and been changed, sometimes I am not sure how but I know that I have been. Sometimes when I think of it I am reminded that so many losses fill a lifetime. Each of those experiences like all the others are woven into the fabric of my life forever.

As the years have passed, experiences of loss have shaped me along with the haunting questions they bring. I don't remember the questions I had as a child, even though I am sure that there were some, only the ache of loss. With the passing of time and the budding of faith, the ache is still there. Only now it is the questions that surface are clearer and more persistent. "What am I for? What am I doing with my life?" The questions are always deep and always searching.

It is interesting to me that Isaiah, at least in his writing, equates an experience of loss with his experience of God. For it was an experience of discovery or perhaps more precisely it was an experience of disclosure, his most vivid experience of God. At a time of remembrance, he looked back to a time and a place that had become a source of joy and purpose and strength. It is like the song writer who wrote, "Take me back. Take me back, dear Lord, to the place where I first received you. Take me back. Take me back, dear Lord, where I first believed." When we move away from what we know to be our center, that which we are all about, it seems that there are times when we need to be reminded of our purpose and our motives for ministry and being reminded of them can revitalize us and help us get our footing again.

The prophet writes: "In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord." In the year that King Uzziah died, in a time of despair, we are told that Isaiah came to the temple. In the agony of his loss, "there burst before his eyes, the vision bright." In those moments when he sought healing for his grieving heart, he found healing for his soul. On one occasion in my life, I remember that I was hurting and I said to a friend, "I'm not going to go to church today, I'm hurting to badly about something." And she said to me, "Oh no, don't do that. You must go. You must go to church. You must go to worship." I am so thankful that she encouraged me to go because she said to me, "This is the very time you need to be there. Don't stay away." So I went and as I heard the songs of praise and the words of hope from the scriptures, my burdens didn't feel as heavy anymore. Of the importance of vision, Howard Thurman speaks, "Only he (and I add she) who has come to a point of Holy Focus, may be blessed with the vision of God. And without the vision of God, there can at last be no significance in living."

In the year that King Uzziah died, there arose within Isaiah an experience of love and adoration and penitence and self-offering. In the year that King Uzziah died, to the prophet Isaiah was revealed "the life of consecration for the noble privilege it is."

In these moments as we remember the loss of those who have faithfully served, may we too be open to moments of revelation or at least with some intentionally reclaim a fresh sense of the One who sends us and the beauty of being sent. For some the beauty of being sent has lost its glow, not because being sent is any less beautiful, but only because we who are sent let so much else cloud our vision. Like a silver pitcher covered with tarnish, we sometimes forget the beauty that lies beneath. Sometimes the crud of our lives becomes so thick, we forget the beauty beneath.

Isaiah lived in a time described as a time of flagrant injustice and exploitation. When I reflected on the King's death, I realized that it represented to Isaiah much more than just the death of a person. It was also the loss of a time of promise, the painful loss of community and the loss of holy purpose from which his people suffered. The nation had in fact lost its meaning and its health. Some of us had some similar feelings about the times in which we live. In a special on television dealing with children and violence, one child was asked to draw a picture of her experience as it relates to violence. She drew a picture of herself and then she drew the little diagram that represents words that she would say. In that diagram were three words, "Help!, Help! Help!" For many of our children this is indeed a time of loss, especially the loss of innocence.

In times of loss, like Isaiah, we too may be so grounded to our loss that we forget that there is something else there before our eyes, in the background as it were. For Isaiah found that even in the midst of overwhelming circumstances he became aware of the knowledge of the reality of God and the reality of the sovereignty of God. It became a time for Isaiah "to cling to the rock that is higher than I." In times of loss, it became a time for him to hold on to God's unchanging hand. So if you will allow me, for a few moments let us look a little bit further at Isaiah's experience, for within it lies the beauty that God has given our lives and the beauty of being sent.

Above all, the beauty of being sent starts with and is embraced by being in touch with the glory of God. In moments that I do not choose, in times and in places and in circumstances I do not choose, I am filled with a deep sense that "Surely the presence of the Lord is in this place. I can feel his mighty power and his grace. I can hear the brush of angel's wings, I see glory on each face. Surely the presence of the Lord is in this place."

From a place deep within me comes the knowledge "The whole earth is full of thy glory." Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. On the top of the mountains, in the depth of the valleys, where still waters flow and raging rivers run, in the city or in the hamlet and the villages, "The whole earth is full of thy glory."

Life, my friends, is filled with the glory of God. We are bathed with, filled with and sustained by the glory of God. Then the beauty of being sent puts us in touch with ourselves. Perhaps sometimes we wish it weren't that way. But the prophet said, "Woe is me, for my lips are unclean and I dwell among a people of unclean lips." There comes a moment, and alas many moments, for each of us when the inward look reveals habits that eat away at our hearts and that cloud our judgments and attitudes that disclose unloving and unkind and unforgiving spirits.

But how good to remember that God provides a way for us to see ourselves as we are in His presence. Somehow being able to see ourselves in God's presence makes it alright, for I know that when I see myself in the presence of God, I see myself in the presence of One who loves me with an everlasting love. Before the altar we come to be cleansed by the love of God and to be released from the downward pull. Before the altar we come so God can touch us and stir us to life again.

And then cleansed and released and forgiven and set free, we realize that the beauty of being sent is being awakened to the opportunity and the meaning of life. "What am I for?" and "What am I doing with my life?" Surely all of life is to praise God.

The gospel writer John encourages us on an ever deepening search for meaning. Such was the case in his encounter with Nicodemus. For he came to Jesus searching for meaning and purpose in his life. In the whole matter of being lost and lack of fulfillment, the answer is to get closer to God. Jesus' words were, "You must be born again." That is what Nicodemus needed. It is what we all need if we are to satisfy the deepest hungers of our hearts.

We find our meaning in the Lord of life in which everything in heaven and on earth has its meaning. When we get in touch with that meaning everything changes. As we respond to God's love we find ourselves no longer enemies of God, but friends with God and wonder of wonders, friends with each other. As one writer put it, "From that point on, I cannot live any longer just for myself. I have got to somehow live for him who died for me. As though in some sense he lives through me, I must also live through him. If what he would have done with his life is going to be done, then I have got to do it. My debt to him is so great that the only way I can even begin to approach paying it is by living a life as brave and as beautiful as his death."

And then offered the opportunity who will go for us, like Isaiah, some of us will respond, "I'll go." Sometimes without any real consideration, sometimes fearfully. Even now we will have to confess, we want to be sent where we want to go. We become so interested in our own interests, we no longer seek God's direction or God's interest.

The beauty of being sent is found in loving, some of whom have not known what it is to be loved, forgiving, some of whom have not known the joy of being forgiven. The beauty of being sent is in being partners with God in healing those hearts that have been broken in unhealthy relationships, in war and strife, in disease and violence. As we become instruments of healing, in so doing, we find our own hearts healed. The beauty of being sent is being partners with God in setting the prisoner free. Freeing those trapped in prisons of hate and bigotry, and limited vision, and in so doing we find ourselves being freed.

The beauty of being sent is being sent by the Lord of life. We are sent by One whose love is shown to us through pouring out his life for us which makes it possible for us to receive the gift of life eternal. The beauty of being sent is that because we have faith, when this life is over, one day we shall meet our Savior face to face. And so the life of consecration we live to an end which is not our own, remembering the words of him who sent us, "I came to do the will of him who sent me."

Let me end with this. Ten days ago, several of us from this conference were involved in an outreach training event. One day of our training was spent visiting local ministries in the Miami, Florida area. Some of us traveled to north Miami, some mid-Miami, and others of us went south. I was one of those who went south. We traveled to Homestead, Florida, which was devastated by Hurricane Andrew. We visited the warehouse of the United Methodist Church's District Disaster Relief Office, where building materials are stored for use for helping residents of the area to rebuild their homes and ultimately their lives. On our last stop, we visited camps where migrant farm workers and their families lived. I must tell you that seeing the conditions under which the workers lived, physically and psychologically wrenched our hearts.

As we left the area, our host, Santiago Garcia said to us, "Without you to sustain us, to give us faith, we would not have made it. Without you we would have lost our minds. You can be proud as United Methodists of what you helped us to do here." Later one of our companions in sharing her feelings about the day said, "I'm so glad that God sent us so we could see what happened here. I'm so glad God sent us so we could bring help to those who are hurting."

As we come and share in this meal together, we are reminded that we are bound together in the love of God in Christ Jesus. As we remember that Jesus died for us, we know that when we share the bread and the cup, it is a sharing in the life of Christ. My sisters and brothers, it is not enough to remember the words. We must remember and live the meaning. We must be preachers of the Word, teachers of the truth, seekers of peace, and doers of justice.

In this year of our lives, in this very hour, we are again reminded that the beauty of being sent is rooted in the beauty of holiness. "Holy, holy, holy, Lord God almighty. All thy works shall praise thy name." In this year, when we have suffered the loss of those dear to us, may a new vision burst on our sight.

Dr. Carolyn Briscoe made editorial corrections, page 4, Bill Burroughs noted that Evangelism, recommended amount should be $2,000; Missions recommended should be $161,894, to reflect the shift in responsibility for an Advance Special from Evangelism to Missions. Mr. John C. Smiley, Jr. presented a motion to the conference: "I move that by the 1995 annual conference the Council on Finance and Administration present to the annual conference a budget process that will result in a budget for 1997 that is no higher than the real average income for the previous five years, or the real income from the previous conference year, which ever is greater, plus a maximum inflation/growth rate of 3 percent, if economic conditions warrant such an increase." This was approved by the conference and referred to CF&A. The CF&A report was completed for Monday.

The Monday morning preaching service began with the singing of the hymn In Christ There Is No East or West. The Conference preacher, the Rev. Dr. William W. Willimon, used Acts 10:9-15 as his text.

MID-DAY PREACHING MONDAY, MAY 30 DR. WILLIAM W. WILLIMON What Can Happen At Noon Acts 10:9-15

The Scripture today is from the tenth chapter of the book of Acts. About noon the day as they were on their journey and approaching the city, Peter went up on the roof to pray. He became hungry, wanted something to eat; while it was being prepared, he fell into a trance. Peter saw the heaven opened and something like a large sheet coming down, being lowered to the ground by four corners. In it were all kinds of four-footed creatures and reptiles and birds of the air. Then Peter heard a voice say, "Get up Peter, kill, eat." But Peter said, "By no means, Lord, for I have never eaten any thing that is profane or anything unclean." The voice said to him again a second time, "What God has made clean, you must not call profane." This happened three times and the thing was suddenly taken up into heaven. Now, while Peter was greatly puzzled over what to make of this vision that he had seen, suddenly men sent by Cornelius appeared, asking for Simon's house."

I was of course thrilled to be asked by the bishop to be your preacher. This is after all, for me, home and you are, for me, family. Because this is home, it does mean that unlike some other annual conferences, I know you. This is home. The bishop said to me, "You'll preach twice, at noon." I said, "Bishop, I know that crowd. At noon, after they have sat all day and everything, they are going to be headed to the cafeteria. They are not going to be thinking about preaching. Do you have any other time than noon? Noon is a tough time to preach." Bishop Bethea said, "Who is the bishop, me or you? You will preach when I tell you to preach." I said, "Noon is a good time." You know if you look in the scriptures it is amazing, though noon is a tough time to listen, it can be a good time for God to speak. God has chosen noon to speak to us, to give us a vision on numerous occasions.

It was noon when Elijah confronted the prophets of Baal and mocked our false gods. It was at noon that the owner of the vineyard, even though he had been downtown three times that morning to get laborers for the vineyard, went down another time, so eager was the owner of the vineyard to have everyone working in the vineyard. It was at noon that Jesus confronted the Samaritan woman at the well. She was surprised, though she was a woman, though she was a Samaritan, Jesus spoke to her. Jesus reached out to her, she went to her friends and said, "Come, meet a man who has told me everything I have ever done. He can't be the Messiah, can he?" It was at noon that Jesus stood before Pilot and asked, "Are you king?" And it was at noon that a cross was raised over Golgotha and there was darkness until three and we saw to what length God would go to have us.

It was at noon. Noon can be a time when God chooses to make large moves among us.

If you start in the book of Acts, right in the beginning, you know what is coming. We ask the risen Christ, Lord, will you restore the kingdom to Israel? Jesus makes a promise, "You are going to be my witnesses." You are going to be my witnesses in Jerusalem, that is among the home folks, among family in Judea, and family that moved on out back into Samaria. Even you will be my witnesses into the very ends of the earth. You don't have to wait long Acts 2. We read it a couple of weeks ago in our churches on Pentecost. The Spirit descends. It is just us, family gathered together. Just you. The Spirit descends, and people begin to talk in funny ways. They begin to witness to the mighty works of God already. Jerusalem.

After the martyrdom of Stephen, we all hightail it out to Samaria. Everybody kept trying to keep ones head down, just trying to stay alive out there in Samaria. Nobody would come looking for us out there among the Samaritans. Philip starts to tell people about Jesus. These Samaritans say, "We want to get to be a part of this Jesus thing too." Philip said, "Well, I would love to baptize you if it were up to me but you remember our Lord said he had only come for the lost sheep of the house of Israel and you are Samaritans." The Holy Spirit descended and Jesus said, "My goodness in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit." They are going to kill me when I get back to charge conference, that church group. Sure enough, he got back to charge conference and they said, "What is this we hear about you baptizing Samaritans?" He said, "You can blame it on the Spirit." They let it pass. It was noon, and Philip taking a nap, and there was this vision. He heard a voice. It said, "Philip, arise. Go out into the middle of the desert at noon." The desert at noon? He obeys the voice, he goes out to the desert and there he meets an Ethiopian. A minister from the court of the Queen of Ethiopia. He is out there, this Ethiopian, this man from this shadowy ends of the earth. He is out there, reading an Isaiah scroll, this Ethiopian eunuch. He can't understand what he is reading though. The prophet talks about being cut off from the land of the living. He was without witnesses. The Ethiopian asked Philip, "Who is he talking about here, himself or somebody else?" Philip says, "Well, he is the prophet. He is talking about Jesus." Jesus was cut off from the land of the living. He had no family. Yet, he is now creating a great family by water and the Spirit. This Ethiopian, this man from the end of the earth, this black man, said to Philip, "I want to be part of that family too." Philip said, "Well, gosh, you know if it were up to me I would love to baptize you, but we don't have any water out here. It is noon in the desert. There's no water." The Ethiopian looks over there and says, "Look there's water, what's to hinder me from being baptized?" And Philip says, "Oh, my Lord, they are going to kill me when I get back to Jurisdictional conference."

It was noon. Peter had had a big lunch. In the heat of the day, Peter went up on the roof, where it was cool. He fell asleep. You notice in the book of Acts most of the really important stuff happens while the Church is asleep. While he was asleep, there was a vision. A sheet was let down from heaven. The sheet had animals of all kinds, and there was a voice, "Rise, take, eat." And Peter said, "Wait a minute, I am a Bible believing person. I have never eaten anything unclean, anything unprofane." The voice appeared again, the vision occurred three times. You have to repeat these things to people at noon. He woke up and he didn't know what the vision meant. There was a man standing there at Peter's house. He had come from General Cornelius. He said, "General Cornelius, the head of the Roman occupation forces in Jerusalem, wants you to come over to his house." Peter said, "I have never gone to the house of a man like that, I have never been with anybody unclean." Then a light dawned, and Peter realized that the vision wasn't about unclean food. It was about untouchable, unclean people. Peter went over there to Cornelius' house, General Cornelius. What was General Cornelius doing in Jerusalem, this Gentile, this Roman? You have seen the movie Schindler's List. You know what he was doing in Jerusalem. He was head of the SS forces there and here is this Jew, Peter, going over to this Gentile's house. You knew this was coming in the book of Acts. They warned us Jerusalem homefolks, insiders, Judea, relatives living out back, Samaritan first cousins – even to the ends of the earth. You knew it was coming. Here we have Cornelius, the first Gentile that is the forerunner of everybody who is gathered here today, we had no part of the promises of Israel. We got brought in and adopted. You wish that maybe the first Gentile convert could have been a nice woman who wasn't Jewish, but she wanted to be Jewish. She acted like she was Jewish. The first one of us, the first Gentile convert, the great, great, great granddaddy in the faith for everybody here was this woman army officer. Peter stood before Gentile Cornelius and called him brother. In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, Peter, muttering under his breath said, "They are going to kill me at the next General Conference when they hear about this." I am saying that you must be careful of God at noon. The church, just when we are napping, and we are sitting row upon row, and we are following the Committee on Standing Rules, and we are going through the agenda, and we are debating statistics, be careful because just when we are resting, there has often been a vision. As we become witnesses to the mighty works of God, we realize church is called to be more. We realize that maybe God intends to make some large move with us. It has happened at noon.

I had seen him in the chapel before. I had seen him on a couple of Sundays visiting there, a student. He asked me, "Would you have lunch with me tomorrow at noon?" I, unthinking, said, "Yes." So he sat down in the cafeteria at noon and he told me that he was a United Methodist. He had grown up in the church. He told me, "My dad is a United Methodist pastor." I said, "You're kidding." He said, "Yes, but I have sort of gotten separated the last year. I came here to college and things have happened and I don't feel very close to my family anymore." I said, "I'm sorry, but I am glad you still come to church." He said, "Well, I don't know about that anymore either. You see my family doesn't approve of my lifestyle." "Your lifestyle?", I said. He said, "Yes, when I get up on Sunday morning and my friends say to me, 'What in the world is a person like you going over there with those Christians? Don't you know what those Christians want to do us? Don't you know how they talk about us, those Christians? It is crazy, somebody like you going over there is like a black person going to a Ku Klux Klan rally. Are you crazy?' " It hurt me to hear him say it. And I said, thoughtlessly, "Is there anything I can do?" He said, "Yes, I wondered if you would be willing to have a Bible study prayer group for people like me. Would you be willing, just for people trying to find God's will for their lives, would you be willing to get together, read the scriptures and pray. Would you be willing to have a gay-lesbian Bible study group?" I felt a breeze in the cafeteria. I remembered Philip and those Samaritans. I remembered Peter and I said, "In the name of the Father, the Son and especially the Holy Spirit, they are going to kill me when I get back to the South Carolina Annual Conference."

Amen.

SECOND DAY - MONDAY AFTERNOON

May 30, 1994

The afternoon session reconvened with the singing of There Is a Balm in Gilead led by Ms. Pat Foil, conference song leader. The invocation was given by the Rev. Elnetha P. Martin, pastor of Tatum Charge in the Marion District.

Bishop Charles Hancock and Mrs. Hancock were introduced to the Conference. Bishop Hancock is assisting Bishop Bethea this year. Greetings were brought to the Conference from Lt. Governor Nick Theodore.

The Summer Investment Program (SIP) workers for 1994 and the Salkehatchie Summer Service workers were introduced to the conference. Bishop Bethea led the Litany of Sending Forth for the SIP and Salkehatchie Workers.

The Report of the Cabinet was presented by Rev. William W. McNeill.

THE REPORT OF THE CABINET

The Rev. William W. McNeill

Erasmus was an itinerate preacher of his day. If you read some of his parables, you will understand why. He had a love/hate relationship with Pope Julius. In one of his parables he has Julius at the gate of heaven trying to enter. Julius is rattling the key in the door, but it will not open. A voice inside asks, "Is that you Julius?" And he answers, "Yes." "You must have the wrong key Julius." "Oh, no," answers Julius. "What is the name of your key?" "Power," says Julius, "It opened the doors on earth and I know it will open the gates of heaven." "Ah, Julius, you have the wrong key. The key that opens the gates of heaven is named love."

We live in a world that is dying because of an absence of love. Dying in its effort to gain power. Individuals and groups destroying self and one another in this effort. The church is not immune to this destructive nature.

The United Methodist Church in South Carolina had a net loss in 1993 of 1,463 members, yet the state had the highest population of any time in history. Is our effort to be so politically correct toward all who make up this great conference causing us to major on our differences in a more subtle way that was done before merger? Is this projecting a rejection of one another rather than a greater inclusiveness?

Someone said to me recently that we are losing our members to other denominations. It is true that we do transfer some persons each year to other denominations, but a study of the Journals from 1981 through 1993 show that we received over five members from other denominations for every three we transferred out during that time. We were comfortable for many years in growing our membership from our Methodist families who averaged six children a half century ago. Now the average number of children in Methodist families is 1.25. It doesn't take a degree in math to understand that we must reach beyond our own families for new growth or we will not continue many more generations as a United Methodist church because 1.25 children will not replace 2 parents.

The great commission does not say: "Be ready when the world comes knocking at your door." Rather it says: "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all people (or nations) baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you."

One of our weaknesses is the fact that we ride the excitement of newness - new minister, new congregation, new sermons, new praises. We ride the crest of excitement. When this is over and it is discovered that the new minister is not Jeremiah and the new congregation is not yet new Jerusalem, the old song begins anew - a new minister or a new congregation will solve our problems. Only the Christ and committed persons and churches working in his spirit can bring the new day.

I said earlier that we live in an age that is dying because of a lack of love. Do you remember the theme song to the TV sitcom "Cheers?" - "I Want to Go Where Everybody Knows My Name." A friend shared an experience with me some years ago. He told me how alcohol had controlled his life and carried him away from the church for a number of years. He joined Alcoholics Anonymous and became a recovering alcoholic and returned to his church. One night eight years later he was returning home later than usual from work and needed to call home. The only place open was the tavern where he used to spend Friday and Saturday nights. He stopped and entered to make the call. Several of his old drinking buddies rushed over to him, putting their arms around him, offering him drinks, telling him how much they had missed him. He greeted them, and after calling home, he left. He said it was a short way from the tavern that he realized something was missing in his church. He had a good preacher, the music was inspiring, but he remembered when he returned to church not one soul mentioned that they had missed him. People go where they know they are wanted. They do not go where the power brokers are jockeying for place and position whether it be in the clergy or the laity. They go where the servants of grace live and reach out. The local church is where it is going to happen in VISION 2000 or it is not going to happen.

During World War I a young soldier was killed near a Catholic church in France. His comrades carried his body to the nearby cemetery for burial. A kindly old priest asked if the dead soldier was baptized and confirmed in the Catholic faith and they did not know. They were informed that they must bury his body outside the cemetery fence. Sometime later they returned to the cemetery before coming home to America and they could not find the grave. The old priest recognized them and asked if they were seeking the grave of their fallen comrade. Then he explained he was unable to sleep after they buried their friend outside the fence and he had later moved the fence to include the grave. That's just like God isn't it? His grace is power. The power to remove the fences we build. Will this annual conference permit the grace of God to remove the fences between African-Americans and Caucasians; men and women; Hispanics and Native Americans? Why do we proclaim the power of grace and yet not live in it? "I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Jesus Christ for it is the power of God unto salvation." God's grace is Koinonia Christou - fellowship with Christ. But is also Koinonia Pneumatos - fellowship with one another. For the very being of God is agape, that love which the Son brings to mankind from the Father.

As Bill Mallard would say now, "That reminds me of a song." Lynne .... The song Amazing Grace was sung by Lynne McNeill.

Rev. Milton McGuirt reviewed the Sexual Harassment document. An amendment substitute (as follows) for Sexual Abuse I and 11 (p. 47) was made by Rev. Timothy Rogers. This was approved.

SEXUAL ABUSE

- I. Abuse of Children and Adults. Procedures for the Abused.
  - A. Contact your pastor, district superintendent or supervisor.
  - B. DO NOT confront or discuss with the alleged abuser without first reporting the incident and getting professional guidance.
  - C. Contact a support person.
  - D. Keep all evidence and written documentation.
- II. Abuse of Children and Adults. Procedures for Witnesses of Abuse.
  - A. Contact your pastor, district superintendent or supervisor.
  - B. Actual witnesses of abuse of vulnerable adults are REQUIRED to report the incident to the Intake Worker for Adult Protective Services at the Department of Social Services. Any person, whether lay or clergy, who is working as a mental health professional, school teacher, counselor, caregiver, or staff or volunteer of an adult day care center or facility, who has reason to believe that a vulnerable adult has been or is likely to be sexually abused IS REQUIRED to report the incident to the Intake Worker for Adult Protective Services at the Department of Social Services. Any person, whether lay or clergy, who is working as a mental health professional, school teacher or counselor, or child care worker in any day care center or child caring institution, who has reason to believe that a child has been or is likely to be adversely affected by sexual abuse IS REQUIRED to report the incident to the Intake Worker for Child Protective Services at the Department of Social Services. The listings of professions which must report instances of abuse are those which are most likely in a church setting, but do not exhaust the statutory lists of mandated reporters.

- C. Any other persons who has reason to believe that a child or vulnerable adult has been or is likely to be sexually abused may report it to the Department of Social Services.
- D. Sexual abuse is extremely serious, and must be dealt with. However, nothing in these procedures shall require clergy to violate a confidence arising from a pastoral relationship.

Ms. Hazel Bennett submitted an amendment (p. 46) for the paragraph beginning "Clergy sexual misconduct" to begin "Clergy/ministerial sexual misconduct." This was also approved. The Rev. DeArmond Canaday submitted the following amendments to add under Procedures (p. 48). 1) Clergy Sexual Misconduct Item II which states "If you are accused of clergy sexual misconduct, contact the District Superintendent immediately" add the following at the end of the sentence: "but be aware that the District Superintendent cannot serve as your counselor in light of his/her primary responsibility for ordering the life of the church. (see paragraphs 501 and 523.12 of The Book of Discipline. Whatever is said by the accused clergyperson may be used against him/her in a future judicial process." 2) Under Clergy Sexual Misconduct Item IV: Procedures for a District Superintendent add the following to "A" after the sentence: "Presume the innocence of the accused pastor until misconduct is established." "If or when contacted by an accused pastor tell him/her immediately that as a District Superintendent you cannot serve as his/her counselor in light of your primary responsibility for the ordering of the life of the church (see paragraph 501 of The Book of Discipline) and the District Superintendent's responsibility of seeing that the provisions of the Discipline are observed. (see paragraph 523.12) The pastor should be encouraged to seek the counsel of an elder who is not a District Superintendent. The District Superintendent shall caution the accused pastor that whatever is said to the District Superintendent may be used against him/her in a future judicial process. (3) Under PURPOSE (p. 46) add the word "Reported" immediately prior to the words "sexual misconduct" and change the word "and" to "or" so that the sentence reads: "To provide guidance to clergy and lay employees and volunteers of the South Carolina Annual Conference and its local churches in cases of reported sexual misconduct, sexual harassment, or sexual abuse." (4) In the following sentence under PURPOSE also add the word "Reported" immediately prior to the words "sexual misconduct" and change the word "and" to "or" so that the sentence reads: "To ensure that the Annual Conference meets its ethical and legal responsibility to protect the accuser and the accused in matter of reported sexual misconduct, sexual harassment or sexual abuse." These changes were approved with the consent of the committee. Richard Wilhite made motion to add the word "reported" before the word "cases" rather than before "sexual misconduct" in the amendment just approved. This was approved by the committee. The report as presented from pages 45-49 with the appropriate amendments was approved.

The report of the Board of the Laity was given by Mr. B.J. Pasley, who recognized Dr. Peter Mitchell to present the Shirley C. Bethea Volunteer Award to Mr. Lesley (Les) Spencer. The Board of the Laity report was moved to record.

Mr. William Burroughs presented the report of the United Methodist Men (pp. 150-152). An addition was made on page 150: Northern Region - Mr. Bud Teaster. The Camps and Retreats Capital Fund Campaign was also reported by Mr. William Burroughs.

The amount of the offering received for UMCOR at the Memorial Service on Sunday night was $2883.99, Bishop Bethea reported.

A recess was called at 3:35 p.m. After reconvening the report of the United Methodist Women was moved to record. Dr. Clelia Hendrix, General Council on Ministries, explained the GCOM Survey form.

Dr. Lemuel C. Carter recognized Mrs. Doris Chambers, who retired from the CCOM staff in December of 1993.

Rev. Albert Cox questioned a 1993 motion requiring that all resolutions be on floor before noon on the day prior to adjournment (p. 107 1993 Journal). Referred to the Committee on Standing Rules. The Order of the Day for Resolutions and Appeals was set in the afternoon because average number of children in Methodist families is 1.25. It doesn't take a degree in math to understand that we must reach beyond our own families for new growth or we will not continue many more generations as a United Methodist church because 1.25 children will not replace 2 parents.

NOW BE IT RESOLVED THAT the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church at its Annual Conference Meeting May 29-June 1, 1994 at Wofford College, condemn this heresy and express to the Women's Division its disapproval for their active participation in the "Re-imagining Conference," and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Annual Conference urge the Women's Division to make a public apology to the many local church United Methodist Women's groups for such a lack of accountability of the hard earned monies sent to the General Church.

There was a resolution Encouraging Support for Abortion Alternatives as follows:

WHEREAS, one year has lapsed since a resolution on abortion alternatives was referred to the Board of Church and Society by the 1993 Annual Conference and,

WHEREAS, the Conference welcomes the Boards affirmation that "... persons with crisis-pregnancies should be responsibly apprised of alternatives to abortion in addition to the availability of abortion services" and,

WHEREAS, the conference appreciates the necessity of the time consuming process required to establish new and effective ministries; and,

WHEREAS, the Conference also appreciates that there are many families for whom the availability of abortion alternatives is not an academic problem to be resolved with time but an urgent crisis to be addressed today and,

WHEREAS, we cannot, to date, identify any substantive United Methodist Church programs in this area of ministry and,

WHEREAS, other denominations within the conference have established programs which are struggling to meet the needs of these families with their own overburdened resources (most notably with programs such as Shiprah and Florence Crittendon) and,

WHEREAS, the United Methodist Church has an established commitment to ecumenical ministries,

THEREFORE, with a desire to enable actions by our church which are commensurate for the words of our resolutions and consistent with the ecumenical commitment of the United Methodist Church,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Conference Council on Ministries is encouraged to compile a registry of those providers of abortion alternative services within the conference which are supported by other denominations, said list to be completed to the best of their ability by February 28, 1995 and distributed to the local churches, and

BE IT RESOLVED, that we encourage individual United Methodists throughout the conference to support such programs with their prayers, presence, gifts, and services; and,

BE IT RESOLVED, that United Methodist Churches throughout the conference are encouraged to observe Sunday, April 2, 1995 with the receipt of a special offering to be distributed by the local church directly to a provider on the newly developed CCOM registry.

SECOND DAY - MONDAY EVENING May 30, 1994

MONDAY NIGHT
WORSHIP SERVICE
DR. ANGEL TORO
John 5:1-5

Wow! Praise Jesus! It is good to see you Bishop. We bring greetings from the Florida Annual Conference and Bishop Hasbrouck Hughes. We are just getting ready for our annual conference this coming Thursday. We appreciate the invitation and the honor that is ours to be with you tonight sharing God's word.

Let me share with you a passage of the scripture. It is in the gospel of St. John, chapter 5 verses 1-5. And the Bible says, "After these there was a feast of the Jews and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. Now there is in Jerusalem, by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue, Bethesda, having five porches. In these lay a great multitude of sick people, the blind, the palsied, where they are waiting for the moving of the water. For an angel went down on certain seasons to the pool and troubled the water. And whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had. And a certain man was there who had an infirmity thirty-eight years. When Jesus saw him lying and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he said unto him, "Will thou be made whole?"

Have thine own way, O Lord, have thine own way. You are the potter, I am the clay. Amen.

One of my favorite stories is about a couple that after working their entire lives now have saved money for retirement. And what do they do? They buy a hundred and fifty thousand dollar motor home and decide to travel America. They had a relative in Long Island, New York, and of course they were concerned about something happening to that motor home as they drove through Manhattan. If you have driven in Manhattan, you know what I'm talking about. I have never seen so many yellow cars in my life. So they drove, they were from the Midwest, and now they reached New Jersey and there was the beautiful George Washington Bridge. But they were concerned, they saw trouble coming, so they say, "Let us ask an expert what will be the best time to drive through Manhattan to avoid any accidents." They spotted a policeman, who better than a policeman to know when is the best time to drive through Manhattan? The policeman very graciously said, "Don't worry, the best time to drive through Manhattan is seven o'clock on Sunday morning." Well, the couple looked at each other like saying, "Would you please add some more information." He says, "Yes, you know it is the best time because at seven o'clock on Sunday morning all Catholics are in Mass. All Jewish persons are on the golf course, and all Protestants are sleeping." So they parked their beautiful motor home in New Jersey and waited until Sunday morning. Seven a.m. and there they were, the road was as clear as could be, but all of a sudden - Bang! Someone rammed them in the back, and needless to say they discovered that they were rammed by a Seventh Day Adventist going late to work. We may say that those people were just sore losers. Well let me tell you tonight, I have good news. We are not a losing team. We are a church that is alive. We are winning together with God's power and the Holy Spirit's anointing is upon us. We are going to turn this great church of ours around for the glory of God. We are going to wake this giant up and we will be able to say, "Indeed we are alive. Behold I am doing new things right now and it springs forth." Do you perceive it? But in order to become an inviting congregation and a welcoming church, we need a vision of God's power moving within the church. We have read this scripture, let us talk a little bit about it.

In the gospel of St. John, chapter 5, we now read that was time for one of the great feasts of the people of Israel. It was the feast of Passover. People were on their way to the temple, going by the Sheep's Gate and by the gate the Bible tells, there was a pool called the pool of Bethesda, that means house of mercy. That pool had five porticos or five porches. Listen carefully, the Bible says that there was a great multitude gathered there - people that came day after day and gathered in that place. How sad as we look at this story, that every single day, these religious people went by that pool and saw the multitudes and they saw they were in need. They saw that they were hungry. They saw that they were sick, and they didn't stop to care for them. Jesus saw the needs of those people, and Jesus even though he was concerned and he wanted to be a part of the worship celebration, was more concerned for those people in need. So he stopped. There he spotted a man, and Jesus knew that he had been there for a long time, thirty-eight years. That is long enough isn't it? I think that when you want something real bad, you will take as long as you have to. He was there thirty-eight years and he was healed. Jesus saw him and asked him, "Do you want to be made whole?" or in other words, "Do you want to be healed?" What kind of a question to a man that had been waiting thirty-eight years to be healed! I imagine this man was saying, "Are you kidding me? I've been waiting. That is what I want. That is why I'm here!" Jesus saw these people outside my friends. People not being helped. People being ignored, and those in need were unable to be inside the temple. How many Bethesdas we have today in our society. This place outside the temple was recognized by the people as the place where there was a manifestation of the supernatural powers. This stirring of the water was a sign to those people of God's presence.

Isn't it interesting that the pool was not inside the temple. Failing God, my friends, is the church that fails to do his mission. If a church fails to invite, if the church stops celebrating and witnessing, God will put other pools around and people will find what they need. We have faith that the pool is inside with us sometime. We will come for the surprise that the pool is someplace else and not inside the place where we are. People in the temple were too worried about their feast and other provisions. About the rituals, about maintaining their faith and defending the system. Now we see that the moving of the Spirit was happening someplace else. We need to bring the pool into the church and allow the Holy Spirit to stir the waters in order for the people of God, the people of God called United Methodists, to begin to celebrate and witness the name of Jesus Christ.

If the power is missing in the temple, God will provide another place where the miraculous will be experienced. The man was by the pool and had been sick for thirty-eight years. Being so close and at the same time so far, but now Christ dealt with him personally and asked him, "Do you want to be healed?" He begins to give excuses why he had not received the healing. Lord, I've been here, and I know that I have to be ready. As soon as the waters get ready, I need to jump, but there is no one there to push me. We Methodists need to learn how to kick people into the waters of the Spirit. We need to start doing some kicking in the name of Jesus. So that we will be blessed in his name because God is moving among his people. Sometimes we don't even realize that something is happening. You know ten thousand United Methodists together is just not a big crowd. It is tremendous! It is time to wake up. It is time to be excited about your faith. It is about time to do something great in My name. And now he has received the healing touch of the Master, and he is made whole. It is enough that the people outside the temple were different from the ones inside. Why were they not in the temple. Probably because they were poor, from other countries and other races, other climes, different culture, different language, different style of approaching the healing. You know, all those things that we call diversities, don't we? But we need to understand that unified not necessary means to be the same. We are together, but we are as different as God intended us to be. We still can praise the name of Jesus. Our mission then, as a welcoming church is not doing everything the same way, but allowing others to exercise their faith and spirituality in a way that is unique and meaningful to each person of each group.

Now, it is wonderful to talk about becoming a welcoming church as long as we like the people that come in. But, the difference is that when the Holy Spirit is the one inviting and brings people to our churches you know what happens. He makes strangers and weird looking people and strange looking people the most important persons in the place. The Holy Spirit brings to our churches strange people that we in our right minds would never invite. All kinds of people, and will treat them as the guests of honor.

I have the privilege to know a woman pastor in Puerto Rico. A few years back, she was a school principal, almost ready to retire, a lay pastor. No seminary training, no Ph.D., no D.D., just a woman with a heart of gold in the cause of the ministry. She knew that there was a little church in the mountains that was about to be closed. A Baptist church, and she went to the headquarters and said, "Will you allow me to be the pastor? I don't need a salary. I just want to preach." At that moment they became Methodists and appointed her there. There was a handful of people at the church, and she said, "Let's be in prayer, let's do some fasting together. Let us do some serious thinking on God's guidance." Then this woman gave a prayer. Sometimes we don't know what we pray or what we ask. She said to the Lord in prayer, "Lord, send to this church the people that no one wants in their churches. Bring to this church the drug addicts, the prostitutes, all of those that no one wants in their churches, bring them to me." You know what? You know how many worship in that church now? Seven thousand people, and they just finished building a $5 million dollar educational wing. They have to use the convention center in San Juan that seats 15,000 people to hold their special services. Just because she prayed, "God, bring to my church those that no one cares for."

The best way to fill the church, my friends, is by emptying the church. Yes, let me explain. Don't panic. Don't panic. What I mean is this, you are friends, let's talk seriously here. We are at annual conference, we can talk seriously here. We have tried everything in the book and we are not any better. We have tried every program available to us and we are just growing slowly. We gain ten and we lose one hundred. We have to empty the church of that sense of security; of knowing everything that needs to be known; that we know how; we have done it this way for fifty years, and allow the Holy Spirit to then fill that church. No one can fill the church as the Holy Spirit does. You cannot get people in unless you go out and witness to Jesus Christ. Yes we have to change a few things. We have to try new things, new programs need to come, yes, but what is going to make it happen is Jesus Christ, the Lord of the Church.

Now, at this point I need to ask you, what kind of a church are we? Uh-huh, because you know that what I mean is that there are many different kinds of churches. I use four models of four different buildings or structures to identify our churches today. Number 1 is the mausoleum. You know what a mausoleum is, you know those condominiums for the dead? A nine year old boy told his four year old brother when he first heard that grandma was going to be buried in a mausoleum, (he wanted to impress his four year old brother) "My brother (and that's a mouthful, isn't it?), a mausoleum is the place where the dead people live." A mausoleum is a place where the dead people live. I heard a story once, I believe Dr. Joe Harding once said, that one time a man had a heart attack in church and they called 911. They took 20 people before they got to the man that was dead.

The second model is the museum. The museum is better than the mausoleum because the people involved are least alive. But it fails as the model for the church. Why? Because of what happens in the museum. In the museum the people try to preserve that which is there as if it were alive. We unconsciously do that all the time in our churches. Don't touch that piano! Don't move the furniture. We know that we need to become another community and transform. But no this is the building where my grandma was married and my mother was married and we have made museum of our church keeping that which is dead as if it were alive. God is bringing new life to the church today and we need to take advantage of that now.

The third one is a place like this, a coliseum. It is better than the mausoleum because everyone is alive. It is better than the museum because the action is taking place right there, right now, but it fails as a model for the church. Why? Because in the coliseum everyone is a spectator and only a handful of people, a handful of stage professionals are involved in the act. That is why we pay the preacher. That is why we have staff in the churches. If we are United Methodists, we need to start confessing and practicing that we believe in the ministry of all Christians. We are all preachers, we are all missionaries and we are all evangelists in the name of Christ if we want fill our churches.

Ah, but the best one and the last one is the pharmacy. Ah, it is a place where we grow together, where Christian maturity takes place and where we are equipped for work. If the church is to be a community in which we grow together to a Christian maturity so that we will be equipped for the work which God calls each of us as Christians to do, the church is the body, it is a body of people who are individually and collectively being dwelled by Jesus Christ. And as a body each member is intimately connected to the other so that we depend upon one another. If you want to be an inviting congregation, we need to understand then that the world, that the people out there in the barrios where they find themselves will be saved. By what? Like someone says, by the foolishness of the gospel. In this difficult task, we have vitamins. You know that we have Christian vitamins for the work of the church. Let me share them with you tonight. Christian vitamins for the Christian church. Are you defeated? Take Vitamin A - always be accepting. Are you discouraged? Take Vitamin B. God's witness will take place and people will recognize the moving of the spirit in your churches.

My friend, we serve a God that is wonderful. Let me tell you a story. Seven years back I went to Lake Placid, Florida to start a brand new church. Well, one year, to make the story short, we had the new parsonage. Now we began to dream of that land where the new church would be built. There was this beautiful track of land, perfect location. Location, location, location. A six million dollar school had just been built next door to it. Great feasibility. I began to pray for that land. Of course, I went to the Realtor that was selling that property. His name is Pete McDavid. I said, "Pete, I am Angel Toro, the pastor of the new Methodist church here. I'm interested to buy this land here by the new school." He says, "Well, Dr. Toro, no problem, the only thing is they have 47 acres. They will not sell ten or fifteen - all 47." I said, "I only need ten and I cannot afford 47. Do you think that they will deal with me?" He said, "No, my instructions are 47 or nothing." I said, "Well, will you give me the name of the family. I may be a little bit convincing to them." Well, I went to the family and I received the same answer: "No, 47 acres or nothing." For an entire year I went to Pete McDavid and to this family to see if they would change their mind and sell me just the ten acres of land that I needed. Well, after a whole year of getting "No, No, No" over a hundred "Nos" my ego was down. My self esteem was in the dumps. I said, "Lord, I'm going to throw in the towel and I'm going to start looking for another place." But then, I gathered the board, administrative council, to explain what was going on. I said, "My friends, we have not been successful in getting this property, so we are going to start looking other places." Well, thank God for lay people with a mission of God. My lay leader was Brother Lucas, a man who had no education whatsoever, but he knows the Bible from cover to cover. He said, "Pastor, before you throw in the towel," listen to this, "why don't you do what the Bible tells us to do?" Okay, here I was the resident theologian and I didn't know what to say. I didn't want to embarrass myself in front of my board, so I said, "Brother Lucas, can you be more specific?" So Brother Lucas said to me, "Well pastor, all you have to do is go home and claim that land for the Lord." Oh! It was worse than the first time, and I immediately tried to start thinking: Do we have something in the Book of Worship on claiming the land, a service something like that, so I can claim it? In a bulletin would I go first, you know? A call to worship and all of those things. I didn't want to let Brother Lucas know that I was lost again, so I said, "Brother Lucas, can you be more specific?" He said, "Pastor, think in faith, believing. Believing that God can change things. Stand up in front of that land and raise your hands to heaven and claim it for Jesus." That sounds easy, I can handle that. Well, my friends, we finished that meeting at eleven o'clock that night. I had to drive by that property to go to the parsonage. What better time to do that claiming right then, it was eleven o'clock. There was still some traveling to do. It was a county road, you know I had a reputation to protect. I didn't want people see the preacher going crazy praying at eleven o'clock at night in front of an empty lot. What would they say. What I did was leave my car running. I opened the hood, in case anybody who drove by and recognized me will think that I was having car trouble. I left the door open so I could rush in fast. I stood up in front of that fence, in front of that ten acres and said, "Jesus, I claim it. I claim it and I can see your church there." I ran and closed the hood and got into the car, closed the door and I went home.

Remember Pete McDavid, the realtor? For 52 weeks he had told me "No." Now it is Monday, this happened at eleven o'clock on Sunday night. Monday morning at nine o'clock, I received a call from Pete McDavid, the realtor. He said, "Dr. Toro, are you still interested in the land?" I said, "Is the Pope Catholic? Of course!" He said, "I don't know what happened. I don't know what happened, but last night the family was together and they have had a change of heart. Now they don't want any other but you and your congregation to have those ten acres of land. And not only that, they were asking $15,000 an acre. If you buy it, they will sell it to you at $6,000 an acre. Sixty thousand dollars for 10 acres, do you want it?" I said, "Where do I sign?" It is not over yet. Here I was ready to sign in a couple of hours a $60,000 contract and the checkbook was empty. We didn't have a penny. You know, just like that little old lady on that Wendy's commercial, "Where's the beef?" Well, there was no money. Then I called, thank God for District Superintendents with a vision, my superintendent, and said, "We got it!" He said, "We got what?" I said, "The land, the land that we wanted so much. But I have a problem, we are out of money. They will sell ten acres for $60,000. What can we do?" He said, "Go my son in faith, because right now I'm writing you a check for $60,000." In less than 24 hours of the claiming of that land, we were signing a contract with money on the way. Let me tell you, only God can do that thing. It is not coincidence and it is not luck.

We are not lucky people, we are blessed people. We need to fill our churches with Lucases.

We need to believe then that great things are going to happen when those people gather. We need to have hope to offer those people as they come into church. They don't come for a fix, they come to be blessed because they are hungry, they are ill, they are empty. They need someone to touch them and only Jesus and you and I can do it.

Finally, my friends, when we become a welcoming congregation, we realize that Jesus is our common ground. He allows us and our experiences to become doors through which others will enter. Remember this, that when we call God 'Father', we are claiming a lot of people, a lot of different new people, a lot of strange people, as our brothers and our sisters. If we are challenged, there are reminders that we are to become an inviting and welcoming church. The word to you tonight is this: I know it is a lot of work, the Lord knows that. It takes time and commitment and sacrifice and dedication and prayer and going on your knees and doing some fasting too. For the Lord has a word for the church and for the South Carolina conference and the word is, "Don't be afraid." Do you know how many times the phrase "Don't be afraid" can be found in the Bible? Three hundred and sixty-five times. Do you know what that means? For every day of the year, when you are anxious, when you think that you can't amount to anything, that the work is so great and you are alone doing this, the Lord says to you, "It is Monday, don't be afraid. It is Saturday, don't be afraid. It is Sunday, don't be afraid. I am going to be with you. I am going to give you what you need to be the church that I want you to be." My friends, like you, there are other conferences and other people around this great nation called United Methodists that are seeking this experience. That want to celebrate, that are beginning to celebrate, and are beginning to witness. The word to you is, "You are not alone. You are not alone. You are not alone."

Let me close by reading you a letter. It is entitled "Trying to Do the Job Alone."

The writer says, Dear Sir: I'm writing this letter in response to your request for additional information. In block No. 3 of the accident report form, I put trying to do the job alone as the cause of my accident. You said in your letter that I should explain more fully and I trust that the following details will be sufficient. I am a bricklayer by trade. On the day of the accident, I was working alone on the roof of a new six story building. When I completed my work, I discovered that I have about 500 pounds of brick left over. Rather than carrying the bricks down by hand, I decided to lower them in a barrel by using a pulley which fortunately was attached to the side of the building at the sixth floor. Securing the rope at the ground level, I went up to the roof, swung the barrel and loaded the brick into it. Then I went back to the ground and tied the rope holding tightly to insure a slow decent of the 500 pounds of brick. Now you will note in block No. 2 of the accident report for that I weigh 135 pounds. Much to my surprise, I was jerked off the ground so suddenly, I lost my presence of mind and forgot to let go of the rope. Needless to say, I proceeded at a rapid rate up the side of the building. In the vicinity of the first floor I met the barrel coming down. This explains my fractured skull and broken collarbone. Furthermore I continued my rapid descent, not stopping until the fingers of my right hand were two knuckles deep into the pulley. Fortunately, by this time, I had regained my presence of mind and was able to hold tightly to the rope in spite of my pain. At approximately the same time, however, the barrel of bricks hit the ground and the bottom fell out of the barrel. Devoid of the weight of the bricks, the barrel now weighed 50 pounds. I refer you again to my weight in block No. 2 and as you might imagine, I began a rapid decent down the side of the building. Somewhere in the vicinity of the third floor, I met the barrel again coming up. This accounts for the two fractured ankles and the laceration of my legs and lower body. The encounter with the barrel slowed me enough to lessen my injuries when I fell into the pile of bricks. Fortunately, only three vertebrae were cracked. I'm sorry to report, however, that as I lay there on the bricks, in pain, unable to stand, and watched the barrel six stories above, I again lost my presence of mind and let go of the rope. The empty barrel weighed more than the rope, so it came back down on me and broke both of my legs. I hope that I have furnished the information that you require as to how the accident occurred. You see, I was trying to do the job alone."

Thank God we are not alone. We are a great fellowship. We are the people of God. We are United Methodists. We are people of all races. We are people that love the Lord, and in that love, having that togetherness, we are going to open the doors of our churches wide open and begin to welcome those strangers and say, "We love you. We want you here." And as they begin to come, a great celebration, a great witness and a great rejoicing is going to take place in our churches and then we are not going to listen to reports every year, well we have lost only six hundred. We are going to start hearing we gained a thousand for Jesus. South Carolina is alive for Christ. Bishop, our churches are growing. District Superintendents, there is fire in our churches. God is moving. My friends, what else to say, "Be in the name of Jesus, a welcoming church and an inviting congregation for the glory of God. Amen. Amen."

THIRD DAY - TUESDAY MORNING May 31, 1994

A Love Feast was celebrated in Leonard Auditorium at 7:30 a.m. The Conference reconvened for the third day at 8:30 a.m. by singing the hymn, Lord, I Want to Be a Christian. The Rev. Eben Taylor offered the prayer for the morning session.

Rev. Julian Ford asked for a point of personal privilege to report on the progress of Jackson Grove United Methodist Church and to thank the Conference for the 1993 offering.

The report of the Committee on the Annual Conference (p. 80) was given by the Rev. Delos Corderman, who made the following motions: 1) that Wofford College be the site of the 1995 South Carolina Annual Conference Session; and 2) that a report be received from clergy members nominated by clergy nominators of the districts. These motions were approved. The report as a whole was approved.

Bishop Bethea's ruling on questions of law raised by Rev. Delos Corderman: (1) On eligibility of suspended clergy for MPP/CPP - "No." (2) On contracting to purchase pension or insurance benefits - (see paragraph 1606.11).

Decision of Law

By Bishop Joseph B. Bethea:

The question raised is: "Does a clergy member of an Annual Conference, who is an Active Participant in the Annual Conference Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) and Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) adopted by the General Conference of the United Methodist Church, but who has been put under Suspension by the action of the Clergy Session, remain eligible to be an Active Participant in MPP or CPP?"

I must rule that following suspension by the Clergy Session of an Annual Conference, a member does not remain eligible to participate in the Ministerial Pension Plan or the Comprehensive Protection Plan for the following reasons.

- 1) The condition of eligibility for Active Participants in MPP found in Ministerial Pension Plan Document Section 3.01(a)(3), "a Clergy member of a Conference Under Episcopal Appointment," means "an appointment by a bishop pursuant to Section V and VI of Chapter 3 of The Book of Discipline or pursuant to rules of the Puerto Rico Methodist Church." (MPP section 2.40.) A clergy member suspended by the Clergy Session of an Annual Conference cannot be appointed and, therefore, cannot be an Active Participant in the Ministerial Pension Plan.
- 2) The condition of eligibility for Active Participants in CPP found in Comprehensive Protection Plan Document Section 3.01(a)(3), "a Clergy member of a Conference" has the following proviso: "... provided that such a person in (3) or (4) or (5) is receiving a Plan Compensation at least equivalent to 60% of the applicable Conference Average Compensation or 60% of the Denominational Average Compensation, whichever is less." Unless the Clergy member is receiving a salary from a qualified salary paying unit recognized by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, he/she would not be eligible to be an Active Participant in the Comprehensive Protection Plan.

Decision of Law

By Bishop Joseph B. Bethea:

The question is: "May an Annual Conference, in order to comply with a decision of a Trial Court, enter into a contract with outside parties for the purchase of pension or insurance benefits on behalf of a clergy member who has been placed on suspension by the Clergy Session of that Annual Conference?"

In response to this question, the following Paragraph of The Book of Discipline appears to apply specifically: Paragraph 1606.11(a), "An Annual Conference may not make any arrangement with a life insurance company for the purchase of annuities for the benefit of individual effective or retired ministers or take any steps to nullify, in whole or in part, the pension plans and programs of The United Methodist Church by making contracts with outside parties. (See Judicial Council Decision 585.)"

Therefore, I must rule that an Annual Conference, in order to comply with the decision of a Trial Court, may not enter into a contract with outside parties for the purchase of pension or insurance benefits on behalf of a clergy member who has been placed on suspension by the Clergy Session of that Annual Conference.

Rev. Debra Quilling raised a question, "Does this apply only to the time under suspension? The answer was "It does not affect past pension credit or contributions to this point in time."

The report of the Board of Health and Welfare (p. 140) was moved to record. The Conference expressed appreciation to Rev. Ted Morton, Executive Director of Greenwood Methodist Home, for his work by giving him a standing ovation. Dr. Carolyn Briscoe presented the reports of the Homes (Greenwood Methodist Home; The Methodist Home, Orangeburg; the Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee and Epworth Children's Home) and asked that they be moved to record. The Board of Evangelism report (p. 117-118) was moved to record. The Denman Evangelism Awards were presented to two clergy persons, Rev. Steven P. Taylor and Rev. Curtis Scott Ghan; and to one lay person, Mr. Ronald Tower, Lay Leader at Startex United Methodist Church.

The newly formed Older Adult Task Force was recognized. The report of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry (p. 129) was given by Rev. Patricia Griffith-Fallaw, chairperson. The Francis Asbury Award was presented to Rev. Risher Brabham. Introductions of the presidents of the Conference college's were made. A certificate of recognition for the Crusade Scholarship for Charlene Johnson was accepted on her behalf by her father, Rev. Charles Johnson. Dr. Henry Tisdale, who will become president of Claflin College on July 1, 1994, was introduced to the Conference. Mr. Craig Smith, a Claflin student, was recognized to speak about the Black College Fund. Mr. James Salley reported on the progress of Africa University. The entire report of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry was approved as a whole.

A recess was called at 10:12 a.m. Conference reconvened at 10:30 a.m. with the singing of the hymn, Pass It On. Bishop C.W. Hancock presided. The Order of the Day for the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate report (p. 220) was given by Rev. John Ropp. Rev. Willie Teague, editor, recognized Rev. Ralph Cannon for his writing for the Advocate. Recommendations Nos. 1 and 3 were presented at this time. Recommendation No. 2, already before the conference, was referred to CF&A. Rev. C.J. Lupo, Jr. presented an amendment to the report as follows: "It is moved that the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate continue publication as at present until the June, 1995 meeting of the South Carolina Annual Conference, provided 1) That a joint committee of 15 persons, consisting of twelve members of the Annual Conference and three members of the Board of Trustees of the Southern Christian Advocate (publishers of the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate) be appointed by the Bishop for the purpose of and with authority to accomplish the following: a. To study the communication needs of the United Methodist Church in South Carolina; b. To determine the role and place of the Advocate in meeting those needs; c. To develop options and recommendations for the future of the Advocate based upon this study, to be presented to the Board of Trustees by February 1, 1995; d. To report to the South Carolina Annual Conference in June 1995 the manner in which this study was undertaken, and the results of the study and the response of the Trustees. 2) Funds for this study shall be appropriated by the Council on Finance and Administration not to exceed $5,000." This amendment was signed by Susan Henry-Crowe, A. Clark Jenkins, Frank Haddon, Mickey Fisher, C.J. Lupo Jr., Fred M. Reese Jr., Lounne Rouse, Wiley B. Cooper, Fran F. Smurthwaite, D.E. Canaday, Frank J. Griffith Jr., A. McKay Brabham Jr. and Jean Osborne. This amendment was approved. The report as amended was approved with the exception of Recommendation No. 2.

Rev. Kay Adams Best presented the Bessie Parker Scholarship, in the amount of $2,000, to Joyce Murphy, a student at Duke Divinity School. Mr. Charles Appleby was also recognized to present Rev. Chad Davis to the Conference.

Dr. Carolyn Briscoe moved the reports of Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns (p. 143-144) and the Commission on Status and Role of Women (p.144) to record. Rev. Linda McDaniel presented Elizabeth Pratt George the award in The Clergy Women's Sermon competition. Rev. David Surret presented the Committee on Career Planning and Counseling report (p. 145) and recognized the district Vocation Counselors. The report was moved to record.

Travis Medlock, Attorney General of South Carolina and son of a United Methodist minister, was presented to the Conference by Rev. Sinclair Lewis.

Rev. Clyde Calhoun asked that the Committee on the Episcopacy (p. 213) be read to record.

This was approved. Rev. Delos Corderman presented the Committee on the Conference Journal (p. 80) and the report was approved.

Rev. Charles Johnson raised a question: "Was the financial portion of the C.J. Lupo amendment referred to CF&A?" Answer: "Yes." Question: "Where was last year's report of the Belin Board?" Answer: "There was not one." Question: "What is the obligation of the Conference boards and agencies to report?" Answer: "Standing Rules require reports."

Rev. Ted Walter, cabinet secretary, presented the Charge Line Changes (p. 212) with one correction: Orangeburg No. 4 should read "... Providence-Pleasant Hill Charge."

Rev. Ray K. Smith presented the Resolutions on Local Churches (p. 221-224 and p. 82). 1) Galloway Memorial UMC, Greenwood, was renamed Aldersgate UMC, approved; 2) Glenn Chapel property was given to the Town of Sellers, approved; 3) Discontinue Gilliam Chapel UMC, approved; 4) Abandon Nazareth UMC, approved; 5) Discontinue Ridge UMC, approved; 6) Merge Canaan and Harris Chapel, approved; 7) Transfer title of Rowesville Charge/New Hope UMC, approved; 8) Abandon Renfrew, approved. Rev. King announced that Poe UMC property has been deeded to Habitat for Humanity. Rev. Smith asked for a point of personal privilege to remind members of the conference that the Conference Trustees cannot fix gravestones, etc. in cemeteries they hold title to.

Dr. Michael Watson presented the report of the Board of Missions.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

Dr. Michael C. Watson

Bishop Bethea, Members of the Conference: As some of you know, I will soon have completed 41 years of medical practice, 40 of these in Bamberg County. My job, every day, consists of being confronted with problems, one after the other, as patients come to me for assistance. To organize my thinking in order to properly diagnose and treat these problems, I formulate a series of questions, try to get factual answers and when these facts are known, I can then move on to a solution.

I have decided to present my report as a series of questions and the facts relating to these questions and then try to formulate solutions. This is the historic Methodist way of reporting, I believe.

I am directing my report to the entire conference, but particularly to the laity for reasons that will be obvious.

My first question is, "What is the state of health of our United Methodist Church?"

What are the facts?

In the decade between 1983 to 1992, our church had a net loss of 879 churches (2.3%). That is, we closed 879 churches more than were established during that 10-year period. Our Southeast Jurisdiction was the largest loser among the jurisdictions with a net loss of 305 churches (2.35%) and our conference lost 20 churches (1.85%). Only 2 conferences in our jurisdiction had a gain, Florida with 24 and Red Bird with 3. It is interesting to me that the Red Bird Mission Conference is the site of the first School for Lay Pastors. The graduates of this school have gone back into the hills and valleys of the Kentucky mountains and established churches where none had ever existed before.

Looking at membership for the decade from 1982 to 1991, our denomination had a net loss of 597,274 (6%). (Our average attendance at worship service declined by 3% or by 93,045 per week during that period.) Our Jurisdiction had a net loss of 26,482 members (1%) and our conference had a net loss of 1,771 (1%). I am sure that you all noted in last week's South Carolina United Methodist Advocate that in 1993, a single year, our conference lost 1,463 members. Comparing this 1,463 for a single year with 1,771 for a decade seems to indicate that our losses are accelerating with time. Our condition seems to be worsening at a faster rate. Bear in mind that this is in a period of expanding population.

If I had a patient who was losing a vital substance like blood with a hemorrhage at this rate, I would be very concerned. First I would call a "Code Blue" and start treatment immediately. As soon as I could, I would tell the family that the patient was unstable and critically ill.

I think you all will agree that we have a problem and that the health of our church is not good.

Looking further into this problem, we ask ourselves, "How did this come to be? Is the competition for membership between denominations greater now and the pool of the unchurched smaller as the people have joined other denominations?" The answer is "No." A recent study of our conference area reveals that the majority of the persons residing within the bounds of our conference are unchurched by a majority of 53%. They have no church affiliation and have no knowledge of or experience with the saving Grace of Our Lord.

A logical next question might be, "Where are all of these unchurched people?" Some of you might say, "I don't personally know anyone who is not at least a nominal member of some church." And for many of you, this would be a true statement.

The overwhelming majority of the unchurched are in the ranks of the poor. The poor are really invisible to most of us. We rarely come in contact with them and consider them, collectively, only as objects of our charity and our social service programs.

How did this come about?

This situation has arisen because our denomination, and most of the others, in our efforts toward church extension and congregational development have not had any program with this group as the target in many decades. We have been very generous with our mission efforts with the poor in the foreign fields, but virtually none at home.

Why did we neglect this significant majority of our people? There are several reasons.

We have targeted the economic middle and upper-middle class as the objects of our efforts and so have most other denominations. We have done this in spite of our history. As you know the neglect of the poor by the Church of England led to the birth and the rapid growth in the Methodist Movement.

It has been said that those who ignore the lessons of history are destined to repeat the failures.

In spite of the fact that most of the members who were converted to Christianity in the early Christian Church and the early Methodist Church were led to conversion by lay persons or lay preachers, we insist that each church be led by ordained clergy, if possible. This has several drawbacks. One is that they are very expensive and this fact alone means that we cannot afford to minister to small churches. In our early days as a denomination, ordained clergy had a supervising role over several lay preachers and the average pulpit did not have an ordained clergyman preach there each Sunday, by any means. Trained and ordained clergy relate best to middle and upper-middle class people and Lay Speakers and Lay Pastors often relate better to the economic lower classes and the poor.

We seem to have the idea that the money we need to operate our church could be best obtained in large churches where the poor have little if any representation. This is an erroneous supposition as studies have shown that the average member in the small churches is more generous in their giving than the average member in the larger churches.

In the last several decades our church has offered little encouragement or opportunity to our laity for active participation in the life of the church. It has sent a message loud and clear that material gifts, regular attendance at worship service, accepting membership on innumerable committees and perhaps teaching a class in Sunday School is all that is required of Christians. We have totally ignored the admonition that all believers are members of the priesthood, not simply those who are set aside, that we should all preach the "Good News" and that sharing the Gospel message is an obligation to all those who call themselves, "Christian."

Who is responsible for this sorry state of affairs?

I, myself, must bear a part of the responsibility, but so does every person here today who hears my voice. We are all Christians and we know what we should have done, but we didn't.

What can we do now?

Two years ago at this conference, I told you of a dream that I had. I saw a large church, or several smaller ones working together, identify a neighborhood of the poor in their area. Volunteers would go door-to-door there and conduct a survey. They would find out what services would be helpful to these people. Things like story-telling times, day-care for children and the elderly, after-school tutorial programs, formation of women's groups or clubs, Boy and Girl Scout troops and so forth. Then a facility, probably a residential type building, would be secured and the programs begun there with lay volunteers. The structure might be known as a Mission Cottage. The idea would be to initially establish a Christian presence in the neighborhood.

A logical next step might be to begin Sunday Schools and Bible Study. This would lead to the development of a Christian Community. Preaching services could then begin with a Lay Speaker or a Local Pastor and the Mission Cottage could then become a Mission Church.

The Mission Cottage and the Mission Church would have to be under the close supervision and coordination of the ordained clergy, but would be staffed by the laity.

The Board of Missions is excited and pleased to learn that there are several Mission Cottages in our conference in various stages of development now. We pray for their success.

Bishop Bethea and members of the conference, I pray that all of us will go home from this meeting resolved to do something about this shameful situation that we find ourselves in. For all of our sanctimonious rhetoric about being an inclusive church, we have systematically excluded those among us who have the least power and who are least capable of helping themselves - the poor.

As a result, many thousands of persons have been denied the Saving Grace of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Your Board of Missions stands ready and eager to assist you. Thank you.

At noon the hymn Come, Sinners to the Gospel Feast was sung.

DR. WILLIAM W. WILLIMON

Topic: The Transforming Second Chance

Text: Acts 22:3-11

I came in here today and Josepha Bethea asked me had I heard anything about the Duke basketball coaching situation. I said, "Well, I know our president is working on this even as we speak, our president is seeing after it." Josepha said, "If Coach Krzyzewski leaves, Daddy is going to hold you responsible." So, I said that we had important business to do at noon and Mike Watson has so eloquently reminded us of the urgency of that business. We are in need of the Spirit. Some of the people get the wrong idea from us about what the Church is. I know a young man, I saw him as he was coming into the chapel one Sunday, and I asked, "Why do you come to Duke Chapel on Sunday morning?" He said, "Well, I like it. It is just so big and it is so solid. You know here at the University so many things have changed for me. My life is fast motion so much of the time. I like the Chapel because it is substantial. Heavy! The building is big - heavy; the pews - heavy. The preacher." I said, "Yes?" He said, "Has a respect for tradition. It is just good to come here and know that in a life of fast changes, that some things stay tied down." I noticed after the service, after they had gotten through, that young man walked out of that dark, gothic building and the bright sun light just blinded him. Sometimes you have to step out of the Church to find out what the Church really is.

One of my friends has written a biography of Dr. Billy Graham, Dr. Billy Graham, Prophet with Honor. In that best selling biography, William Martin says that one of the key reasons for Dr. Graham's phenomenal evangelistic success and abiding popularity is that Billy Graham has preached perennially and forcefully the power of God to give the transforming second chance. In Dr. Graham's sermons he tirelessly preaches the transforming power of God for the second chance. Dr. Graham's own life illustrates that power. In his own rethinking of the arms race, nuclear armament in relationship to the Soviet Union, and racism, the transforming of the second chance. Surely the charismatic, evangelistic, evangelical Billy Graham's second chance story for us is that account of the conversion of Paul in the book of Acts.

Paul tells about how he got a second chance in Acts, chapter 22. Paul says, "I am a Jew. Born in Tarsus in Cilicia but brought up in this city, a student of Gamaliel, educated strictly according to ancestral law, being zealous for God. I persecuted the people who followed this Way up to the point of death, finding both men and women, putting them into prison. As the High Priest and whole Council can testify. From them I received letters to the brothers in Damascus and I went there in order to find those who were there and bring them back to Jerusalem for punishment. While I was on my way, approaching Damascus, about noon, a great light from heaven suddenly shown about me. I fell to the ground, I heard a voice saying, 'Paul, Paul, why are you persecuting me?' I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?' Then he said to me, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth whom you are persecuting.' Now those who were with me saw the light, but did not hear the voice. I asked, 'What am I to do, Lord?' The Lord said, 'Get up and go to Damascus. There you will be told everything that you have been assigned to do.' Since I could not see because of the brightness of the light, those who were with me took my hand and led me to Damascus."

Let me put this testimonial in context. Paul had come, at this point in the book of Acts, had come up to Jerusalem. Jerusalem. Remember yesterday? That's where we began. You shall be my witnesses: Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria, even to the ends of the earth. A lot has happened since that time, we are now in chapter 22 in the book of Acts. We've come up to Jerusalem and there at Jerusalem, as was the case in those days of church growth and evangelism, all hell has broken loose. There is a huge mob. This mob is saying to Paul, "What is this? We hear that you have brought in these Gentiles, these outsiders?" A huge mob has gathered, and Luke says: "Some of them are shouting one thing and some are shouting another, some did not know why they were there." Remind you of any meetings you have been to? And so they grabbed Paul and they drag him around and they say, "How did you get here? What are you doing? Why are you bringing in these untouchables?"

That is what brings us to Paul's testimonial today. The testimonial of the second chance. He says, "I am just like you, you know me, I am family. A Jew, brought up in the seed of Abraham right here in Jerusalem. Zealous was I for the traditions of our ancestors." I came up just like you. I grew up like you. I had a Sunday school attendance pin all the way down to my knees. I went through the whole thing you went through. Then about noon, I was on my way, making the world safe for God, on my way up to Damascus to persecute. About noon there was a light. It was a bright blinding light, any light that blinds you at noon at the very peak of the sun has got to be a bright light. There was a voice, and it spoke to me three times, "Saul, Saul, (You remember at noon you have to repeat things to get people's attention.) Saul, why do you persecute me?" I fell to the ground. I stumbled. I didn't know where I was. I lost my grip. I couldn't find my way. I was blinded by the light. Then the voice said to me, "Get up and go." About noon a great light shown and I was just blinded. I'm betting today if there are some present here who could testify, had we the time, about that bright blinding light. That moment when you thought you knew the way and you were blinded and you were dislocated and you were disengaged so that you might be moved elsewhere.

It was about noon when she came to me. She was a sophomore. She said that she was pre-law and she had done very well in her grades at Duke. But she said that lately she had not been able to sleep. Lately she had lost her appetite. And I said, "Well, okay but why would you come to me to tell me about that." She said, "Well, I've got this boyfriend and he has been taking me to this campus Bible study group. Something has just sort of got hold of me and I can't figure it out." I said, "What did you score on the SAT?" She said, "Fourteen hundred." I said, "That is impressive to confuse somebody like you, isn't it? I'm sorry, you shouldn't have been taken to that Bible study. I know that somebody has led you to believe being a Christian is kind of tie stuff down, get stuff straight, I'm sorry. Sometimes when you get hooked up with Jesus it's a rough ride. Things get dislocated." She would know, I think, what we are talking about, about this blinding light at noon where you just wander and you lose your grip and God is making a move.

I wonder if sometimes in church we bolt down the pews and we make the pulpit furniture heavier than it needs to be and we print up the whole service of worship in the bulletin and we just plod through obeying Robert's Rules of Order as a kind of defense mechanism against this blinding intrusive light. Because we know a story about a God that had just as soon come blow us to bits as look at us. Just blow in and disrupt things and grab us by the collar, and we might cut loose and we said to heck with the Committee on Standing Rules, we are going to let the Spirit lead us. It has happened. It has happened before and we know this story. If you know a story like this, it is enough to keep you uncomfortable every time you come to church. John Wesley, the Methodist. What the Church of England accused us of was enthusiasm. They accused our forebears in the faith of being enthusiastic. Enthusiasm - literally full of it. Full of the Spirit. We were born by a story like this one. We were born by a God that cuts away to us, down the Damascus road at noon or at Aldersgate street at night. A blinding light that disrupts and dislodges and blows things apart. We realize that God hasn't called us to just plod through the agenda. God has not called us to get together and close churches. God has called us for adventure, for risks, for this journey. It is no small thing to be loved by the God of the second chance. The transforming second chance.

So when you have been around a church very long you learn to be careful. In my last church we tried to do what Dr. Watson was recommending to us. We decided to have a program of evangelism - church outreach. Evangelism, you know what that means. (Oh Lord, we don't have enough members to keep a roof over our head. We need some people in here to help pay this budget.) So we got some books on church growth and we talked to the Baptists down the street. They had a neighborhood canvas, going door to door, hand them an envelope about the church, invite them to the church. We decided we would have a neighborhood canvas. I told them, "This neighborhood has been burned over two or three times, I don't think the pickings are very much here." But, anyway, we went by the book. We had this canvas and we got a brochure that told about our church and some of the things we were doing. We got people into teams and we met and had lunch on Sunday. Then we were going out across the neighborhood on Sunday afternoon and leave these brochures. I was there when the instructions were given out.

I was there when Gladys and Mary were clearly told, "You go down Summit Drive two blocks and you take a right." The trouble is Gladys and Mary in their earlier lives had been elementary school teachers. This meant they were a lot better at giving directions than receiving them. They went down Summit Drive two blocks and took a left. They took a left and they went down into the projects and evangelized the wrong neighborhood. We came back at five o'clock to report. Just as I had predicted, there was not much going on. People knocked on doors and people were not at home. People that were at home said they were watching the game on TV and it didn't suit for us to come then. Gladys and Mary said though that they hadn't had much luck down there but they did meet a woman named Verleen. Verleen lived down there in a three room apartment with two children and they said she had never been to a church. She was interested. She took some brochures. They told her about the Wednesday Morning Women's Bible Study. She said she wanted to come. I said, "You were told to go down there and turn right on Summit Drive. I heard, you were told to turn right." Wednesday came around, Women's Wednesday Morning Bible Study. I was leading the Bible study that Wednesday. There Gladys appeared in her Plymouth with this Verleen. Verleen had a Bible, she was very proud of this Bible. She had never owned a Bible in her life but they got some of the people in the Mary and Martha Circle to go together and they bought her a Bible. She was real proud of it. It was a leather Bible and had her name printed in gold on the front of it. She had that Bible, she had these two children with her. Somebody said, "I'll keep the children during the Bible study. If I am not back within an hour, you come get me." We went into the parlor and had the Bible study. It was the first week of Lent and we were studying Luke 4 and we were studying about the temptations of Jesus in the wilderness.

I said a little Bible study on Luke 4, about temptation. How Jesus avoided temptation. I ended the Bible study and I said, "Now, has anyone here ever resisted temptation like Jesus did." They thought a moment. Someone said, "Well, I was at the supermarket checkout line the other day and there was some confusion and before I knew it I was outside in the parking lot. I had a loaf of bread I hadn't paid for. I said to myself, 'Oh heck, the supermarket won't miss that.' And I thought, 'No wait, I am a Christian. I went back in and I paid for that bread. I said, 'Good, okay that is resisting temptation. Anyone else?' Verleen spoke, "Well, a couple of years ago when I was living with this guy, not my current guy. The guy that is the father of my first child, I was living with him. We were into cocaine big. You know what that cocaine is like, you don't know what the hell you are doing. It gets in your brain. You know what that's like. You can't think with that stuff. So my boyfriend said to me that he had his eye on this convenience store. He has been watching this. He wants to hold the store up on Friday night. We go down there on Friday night about one o'clock and we knock off that convenience store and take $300 out of that place. Just like taking candy from a baby. Two days later, he tells me he has his eye out on this service station. I don't know, there was just something in me, I said to him, "Alright, I held up that convenience store I am not going to hold up that service station." He beat the hell out of me. I will tell you it was the first time in my life that I had ever said "No" to nobody. It felt good to be a person." I said, "Okay, that is sort of what we are talking about here in the Bible, and I think it is time for our prayer time now." We got out of the parlor and we were standing out in the parking lot and I was helping Gladys get into her Plymouth. She said to me, "You know, your Bible studies use to be dull, but I'm going to go home and get on the phone, I think I can get a crowd for this." I looked up and even old compromised, settled down, predictable me was just blinded by the noonday light. I, by the grace of God, even I, had been given a second chance.

Amen.

ORDINATION SERVICE DR. WILLIAM W. WILLIMON Tuesday Night, May 31, 1994

Sisters and brothers in the ministry of the United Methodist conference, I realize that twenty years ago this month I was ordained as elder in this conference and in gratitude, I stand before you for this ministry that we have in common.

He came to me, he was a third year of divinity student and I was right fond of him and he said he wanted my advice. He said, "I want your advice on whether I ought to join the Kentucky Annual Conference or the Western North Carolina Annual Conference. You know me, you know my interests and you travel about in the church and are familiar with conferences and which bishop in which conference do you think would be affirming of me and in which conference do you think I would receive the best appointment. Which conference do you think would do me right?" I said, "Well, you've asked my advice, I will give it. Do not go to the Kentucky Annual Conference. Do not go to the Western North Carolina Annual Conference. You need to think about joining the Navy. If you join the Navy, they will give you a uniform. They will tell you what they expect of you. They will give you a rule book and you can follow it. They will evaluate you fairly, which is more than I can say for us. You can just flop to the top and be a good sailor and keep you head down. You know we don't need anymore people like you in our church. We are a church that is hemorrhaging. We need some shakers and movers. We need some people that don't bed down with the status quo and don't just look to be kept. We need some people to come in and shake up things, ask some questions and wheel and deal. Think of the Navy.

We need some folk just half as reckless as God has been with us." Jesus said the kingdom of God is like a farmer that went out to sow some seeds. He very carefully prepared the ground, removing all the rocks and the twigs. He plowed it up and he plowed straight furrows, one right down from the other, a foot apart. Then he took the seeds and very carefully placed one seed there and covered it over with 1/2 inch of soil, three inches later another seed, three more inches another seed, no! No. Jesus said a farmer went out to sow seed and just started slinging it everywhere. Well, some of it fell on the road and others got in the bushes. The birds ate a bunch of it. But he said, some of it fell on good soil and it yielded great increase. Of course, that is wasting a lot of seed. You are going to waste a lot of seed when you just start slinging it everywhere without regard to where it is going. Jesus said the kingdom of God is like that.

A woman lost a quarter and she did what any of you would do. She moved all of her furniture out into the front yard. She ripped up the carpet, ripped up the linoleum in the kitchen. When she found the quarter, she went rushing out to the neighbors and said, "Come on let's party, I found the quarter." The kingdom of God is a lot like that.

There was a father, his younger son said to him, "Dad, drop dead. Put the will into effect. Give me my inheritance." The father does just that. The son goes out to the far country and wastes the entire inheritance in just a week or so on booze and bad women. He comes back in rags and the father throws a party. The older brother was out in field. Coming in from the field. He could hear the music as he was coming in. He could see the lights up at the big house. He said to one of the servants, "What is going on?" The servant said, "Your brother is home, your father is throwing a big party up there." The older brother said, "On a Wednesday? Doesn't he know we have turnips to dig out here?" He comes up to the father and he says, "Is this any way to act when this never-do-well son of yours comes home? I've served you all these many years. I've turned your turnip business around, putting the books in back in the black. You never gave me a party." The father said, "Oh, big deal, Herman, you the biggest turnip grower in Marlboro County. Big deal. At least your brother has been up in Charlotte and seen the lights and done a few things. Come on in and party." Jesus said you know the kingdom of God is a lot like that. Let's celebrate and witness.

My late friend, Bob Wilson, at Duke was doing research. He went out to Melodyland Seminary, out in California. It is not an accredited United Methodist seminary. Three thousand students they have out there, Melodyland Seminary. He was interviewing the president. It is not affiliated with any denomination, any church. He said to the president, "Well, where do you place your graduates once they finish seminary?" The president said, "We don't place them anywhere. That is their problem."

He said, "Where do they go, how do they get churches?" The president said, "They go out and start churches. We have got twelve courses here in how to begin a church." The president wheeled around and picked up this computer print out. He said, "Here is last year's class right here." Bob looked down the list and there was so and so meeting at Gospel Life Fellowship Church in the Oak Leaf shopping center, Van Nuys. There was somebody else at the Gospel Fellowship Spirit-Filled Church meeting at apartment 3-A in a housing project. Bob said, "Gosh, I guess this isn't a United Methodist seminary, is it?"

There was a man going down the road from Jerusalem to Jericho. He fell among thieves. They beat him, stripped him and left him half-dead. By chance there was a layperson coming down the road, he passed by on the other side. There was a priest who then came down the road, going to an important church meeting, he passed on by. The only person who stopped was this man in this long, large black Buick, a Samaritan. He stopped. But he didn't just stop. I mean we would have done that. It is the way he stopped. Luke spends most of the time in that parable going into great detail, telling us the way the Samaritan stopped. He gets out of his Buick, he rips up the suit he is wearing and makes bandages out of it, puts the bleeding man on the leather seats of the car, goes down to the inn, hands them his gold card, all of the cards out of his wallet. He says, "Here is every dime that I have, take care of him. If you need anything else, I will pay you when I come back." That isn't a story about somebody who gives someone a quarter to call the Highway Patrol. I mean, we would have done that. Jesus says the kingdom of God is a lot like that. I'm saying there is a kind of recklessness, a kind of extravagance, a kind of wastefulness, just built right into the way God does business.

I was visiting an inner-city church in Philadelphia. We were having a workshop there in the fellowship hall. The young pastor led me through the sanctuary. As she was leading me through the sanctuary, I noticed on the third pew there was a sleeping bag there. On the next pew I saw a big suitcase and a sleeping bag. Looked over to the left in another pew, I saw a pillow, sleeping bag and some other things. I said, "What do you do here on Sunday morning? I guess you worship differently up here than we do in South Carolina." She said, "No, no, this isn't worship. These are the homeless men that sleep here during the week." I said, "Homeless men?" She said, "Yes, we thought it would be nice to do a homeless ministry. We thought that meant inviting them over here for lunch. But it turned out there were so many of them and there was no where for them to go after lunch. So, someone in the board meeting said 'We've got this sanctuary here and it is heated, why don't we just open the door and let them sleep here?' We have about twenty men who sleep here every week day night, right here in the sanctuary." I said, "Well, isn't that a little reckless of you?"

There was a man going on a journey. He called in his servants and he said, "I'm getting ready to go out of town for a few months, here is the keys to my Cadallic. Here is my stock portfolio. Here are the keys to my wine cellar, the house, the refrigerator. You take care of it. I'll be back." One of the servants took the stock portfolio and went out and wheeled and dealed, made himself some money. The other one plowed up the front yard and planted soybeans - made a killing. The third servant took the master's money and went out and wrapped it in a napkin and hid it in the backyard. The master returned after a few months. The servants came in and one said, "You wont believe how much money I made on the stock market." The other one said, "Well, I know the yard is a mess, but I made a bunch of money off that crop." The third servant came in and said, "Master, I knew that you would want me to behave responsibly and so I haven't lost any of your money. Here is every cent that you left with me. It is all wrapped up in this napkin. Tell me what a good boy I have been." The master said, "You wicked, lazy, good for nothing, get out of here. Good servant, my eye. I wish you would be half as reckless as I am. Go out and wheel and deal and make a little something. You either use it or you lose it." Jesus said that the kingdom of God is a lot like that.

I was visiting a guy that I was in seminary with. He was showing me around his new church that his congregation had built. It is in the inner-city of one of the nation's great cities. A million and a half dollar building program. He showed me around the sanctuary. It was all carpeted, wrap around seats there, big colorful windows. Afterwards, after my tour, I said, "You know it is a beautiful church. It is amazing, but don't you feel a little odd building a multi-million dollar church in the middle of such a poor neighborhood. Don't you feel a little problem with building such an extravagant, fine building, where there is so much poverty around here?" My friend sort of laughed, shook his head and said, "You white folks just can't stand for anybody to have a good time can you? Particularly when it is black folks having a good time. Y'all get real nervous." He said, "No, no, no. This church is here as a witness. God didn't intend us for this surrounding ugliness and defeat. God meant for us to be royalty. He meant for this to be a sign and a signal of the kingdom." So Jesus said, "Now which of you, having lost one sheep, will not leave the ninety and nine sheep in the wilderness and go beat the bushes for as long as it takes until you find that lost sheep." Of course the answer is - Nobody would do that. You are not going to risk ninety-nine sheep and go out and recklessly risk everything for just one sheep. You are not going to do that. Jesus says, "Well that is a shame, because God is a lot like that." Elsewhere he said, "I am the good shepherd and the good shepherd will lay down his life for sheep." A good shepherd? That has to be a dumb shepherd. A breathing, living, thinking human being lay down your life for a $3.95 plus postage sheep. What kind of way is that to do farming? That is reckless, that is wasteful. That is extravagant. I am saying this to you, sisters and brothers, entering the ordained ministry this evening. I am saying this because I am sure that all of you are good people. You have been examined, you have been reexamined, you have been tested and retested. You have been put through all the seminary courses. You have been checked out. You are the kind of people that floss after meals. You pick up your socks. You not the sort of people who buy a pillow or mattress that has the tag on there - "Do not remove this tag for fear of imprisonment", who would remove the tag. You get a milk carton, it says open on the other end - you always open it on the proper end. Maybe that is okay for some lines of work, but tonight we are going to lay hands on your head and we are going to pray to God, sometimes God grants our prayer, to pour out the Holy Spirit on you. To pour out the Spirit which cuts loose and sets free and empowers and drives and opens up with the kind of extravagance that is reckless.

At this year's commencement, after the baccalaureate sermon, we were standing around out in the yard, in front of the chapel, speaking to parents and to graduates. This woman comes up to me and she says, "I'm mad at you." I said, "Me?" And she said, "You know who I am, I am Janie's mother." I said, "Oh, that's right. I just love Janie." She said, "Well, that's great. All I know is that she was sent here to go to law school. She made good grades. Her father is a lawyer and her grandfather is a lawyer. After you people have gotten through with her, now she is going up into West Virginia, in some little hollow up there, to work in that church program with a bunch of people up there." I said, "Well, we call that a victory. We think that is good." She said, "Well, I just want you to know that her father and I think it is a waste. We think she is just throwing away her life." Alright, but all I know is that the sower of the seed and the seeker of the sheep and the reckless healer of the wound, laughed with divine reckless delight, saying, "O, but the kingdom of God, thank God, is just like that."

Amen.

Rev. DeArmond Canaday: "I move that the S.C. Annual Conference, in session at Wofford College, appeal the ruling of Bishop Bethea and ask the Judicial Council to deal with the basic disciplinary question of the power of a Trial Court as stated in Paragraph 2626.1(h)(1) which states: 'The court thus constituted shall have full power to try the respondent...Upon conviction, the court shall have the power to expel the respondent from the Church, to recommend withdrawal of the credentials of ordination or consecration of the respondent, TO SUSPEND THE RESPONDENT FROM THE EXERCISE OF THE FUNCTIONS OF OFFICE, or to fix a lesser penalty.' The Judicial Council will be asked, if this motion is approved, 1) on what basis can the order of a Trial Court be ignored by an Annual Conference. Also the Judicial Council will be asked: 2) if the penalty set by the Trial Court is determined to be illegal by the Judicial Council, can the Trial Court be reconvened to develop a penalty that is legal? 3) Or is there any other remedy other than nullifying the clear desire and order of the body that heard all of the evidence and determined that the respondent should receive pension and insurance benefits during his suspension? 4) Is nullification by Episcopal Ruling of the clear order and intent of a duly appointed Trial Court not a denial of the constitutional right to trial by a committee? I believe that the above motion needs to be adopted by the Annual Conference if the fundamental questions are to be dealt with by the Judicial Council. I hope that you will adopt this motion to assure that these important matters will be clarified by the Judicial Council." This was approved.

THE COVENANT RENEWAL SERVICE

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1, 1994

Bishop Charles W. Hancock

Luke 9:37-43

Mariam and I appreciate very much your generous and gracious spirit to us. It has been a pleasure to be here with your bishop and with those of you in the South Carolina Annual Conference. The Rev. Dr. Maurice Boyd tells the story of a little Irish boy who was invited to a party. It was the first party to which he had ever been invited. His mother said to him, "Now when the party is over, I want you to remember to thank your hostess for having had you at the party." That time came and he remembered what his mother said. He said to the hostess, "I thank you for having had me at the party." Feeling that there was a little something inadequate about that he added to it by saying, "I have been very nicely had." We want you dear people in this conference to know that we feel that we have been very nicely had during this time with you.

I am sure that you have noticed, as I have noticed, that your bishop is at times somewhat unpredictable and full of surprises. He said to me a few hours ago, yesterday or the evening before that, "Since you are here I want you to preach in my place in the closing service of worship." I said, "Well, Bishop I really didn't come prepared to preach at your conference." He said, "That's all right, I know you can put together something for that moment." And like you, I have attempted to be cheerfully obedient unto your Bishop. It is indeed my pleasure and honor to speak to you at this time of worship.

I invite you to hear the word of God as found in the ninth chapter of the Gospel according to St. Luke. I ask you to remember that this event in the life of Jesus comes in the Gospel immediately following the experience on the Mount of Transfiguration. The reading begins with the thirty-seventh verse: The next day when they came down from the mountain, a large crowd met him. A man in the company called out, "Teacher. I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child. A spirit seizes him and he suddenly screams; it throws him into convulsions so that he foams at the mouth. It scarcely ever leaves him and is destroying him. I begged your disciples to drive it out, but they could not." "O faithless and perverse generation," Jesus replied, "How long shall I stay with you and put up with you? Bring him to me." Even while the boy was coming, the demon threw him to the ground in a convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the evil spirit, healed the boy and gave him back to his father. And they were all amazed at the greatness of God.

The mission of our Lord did not call for him to marvel in the mysticism of some Mount of Transfiguration experience. The rarified atmosphere of the heights could not make a permanent recluse of our Lord. It was enviable that he would leave the isolated heights and find himself again in touch with the ravaging torments of the human experience. When he came down from the mountain, a great crowd awaited him. A man out of the crowd said unto him, "Master, look at my boy. This is the only child I have." Jesus beheld before him a mind in distress and a spirit diseased. The plaintive plea of the father continued, "I begged your disciples to help him but there was nothing that they could do." They were interested but they were helpless. They were compassionate but they were powerless. Jesus said, "Bring him to me." These are directional words of Jesus. I have been called again to some of the fundamental things within the faith. These directional words of Jesus bring into clearest focus that which is the primary function and responsibility of the Church - stripping away all of our noble affirmations, our activated programs, our cozy fellowship, our well ordered services of worship.

The primary function and responsibility of the church is to bring people unto Jesus Christ. Let us sound well the creeds of the church. Let us plan our activities. Let us enrich our fellowship within the church. Let us beautify and signify the worship of almighty God, but these must never become an end in themselves. They must ever be a means to the end of bringing people unto Jesus Christ. We need to hear again in the Church Jesus saying, "Bring him to me. Bring her to me." We must remind ourselves that it is not the church which saves, it is Jesus. It is not the church which transforms, it is Jesus. It is not the church which makes anew, it is Jesus. I fear sometimes that we forget that there is nothing in our fellowship, as rich as it might be, that can meet the deepest needs of the human spirit. Those spiritual needs can be met only by Jesus himself. Holding the words of Jesus in this setting you can see it. The man said, "I asked your disciples to help him but there was nothing that they could do. They were interested but they were helpless. They were compassionate but they were powerless." Jesus said, "Bring him to me."

I think sometimes that we give the people in our communities the impression that the thing that we are most interested in is getting them involved in the organizational structures of our church, to get them participating in our programs, get them attending our services at the church and we never confront the deepest needs of their lives with the offer of him who alone can meet and satisfy those needs of the human spirit. Little wonder to me that we have so many people in our churches who know nothing of the power of God at the center of their lives or that in our churches we have so many of our members whose relationship to it is marked by indifference or inactivity. You see in their indifference and in their inactivity, they have never understood that it is a person whom they betray. Perhaps they have assumed that it is a program at which they do not enjoy or a fellowship which they do not feel they need.

A man stood one day watching a mountain of water roll over the precipice of Niagara Falls. He mused to himself about all the kilowatt hours of electric energy being generated there. He thought about the energy being generated there that could provide heat and warmth for homes in the coldness of the winter. He thought about the energy being generated there that could dispel the darkness of the night. He thought about the energy being generated there that could provide power for his labors and his work. Then he thought to himself all of this energy being generated here doesn't mean a thing unless you get it from where it is to the point where it needs to be. In our churches we can talk about our Lord. In our classes, in our small groups, in our services of worship, we can speak about him. We can discuss the loveliness of his countenance. We can talk about the uniqueness of his mind and his spirit. We can clothe his nature in the eloquence of language, but it doesn't mean a thing unless we get the power that is in Jesus in touch with the need of a human life. The basic primary function and responsibility of the church is to bring people unto him.

These directional words of Jesus have served, for me, as a challenge to my belief in the power of Jesus to do in a human life what he says he can do. Jesus says, "I can take a life and I can transform it. I can create it anew. I can redeem it. I can reconcile it unto God." I wonder sometimes if we really believe Jesus can do that. I wonder because it would seem to me if we really believe that, we would be more actively involved in bringing people unto him. I speak now, I'm sure, to people here who know people somewhere in whom the deepest need of their lives is for that which Jesus alone can meet in their lives. It may be a member of our family. It may be husband or wife. It may be mother or father. It may son or daughter. It may be the neighbor who lives next door or the one who lives across the street or around the corner. It may be the one with whom we work everyday of the week. The deepest need of life is for what Jesus alone can do in their life. We somehow never make the offer of him unto them.

We don't read Robert Browning now, as perhaps we once did. There are those who say that the loviest literary work of Robert Browning was The Ring and The Book. I wonder if you know how he came to write it. I read somewhere that one said that when he was in Florence, Italy, Robert Browning left his hotel room one morning, walked across the square in the center of the city, went into a little second hand book store and took from the shelf a pamphlet of a story. He paid fifty cents for it. He took it back to his room. He read it. It was a sad and sordid, sensual, sinful story of a human soul. He read it again and again and yet again. And Browning turned upon that sad, sordid, sensual, sinful story of a human soul the wonder of his imagination and transformed it into a lovely literary expression. Jesus says, "I can do that. I can take a life, any life, and though it be a sad, sordid, sensual, sinful story of a human soul, I can take that life and turn upon it the pure fire of the love of God and transform it into a magnificent expression of Godly living." I wonder if we really believe Jesus can do that.

Dr. Frederick Speakman, a Presbyterian minister, tells in one of his books about a little American woman who was traveling with a group in Europe. They were visiting some of the great, magnificent, historical cathedrals of that continent. In one of them a young man was delivering unto them a well prepared, well rehearsed, articulate lecture on the magnificent history of that cathedral and pointing out unto them the finest points of the exquisitely beautiful, Gothic architecture that embraced them. The little American woman, never quiet able to get away from her own personal experiences, interrupted the young man in his lecture with a question. She asked, "But young man, has anybody been saved here lately? What you say about the history of this cathedral is marvelous and what you are saying about the exquisitely beautiful Gothic architecture around us is magnificent, but has anybody been saved here lately?" I ask you about your church: "Anybody been saved there lately? Have you brought anybody to Jesus there lately? Have you even tried to bring anybody to Jesus there lately?"

"Master, look at my boy. He is the only child I have." Jesus said, "Bring him to me." I ask you in this moment to consider entering personally into a covenant with God. Saying unto him, with God's help you will do your best to bring someone unto Jesus in the next twelve months. Is that too much? Will you truly make this a service in which there is a covenant relationship between you and God, that with his help you will intentionally do your best to bring someone unto Jesus within the next year? Are you willing to make that covenant with God? Grant, O God, that it may be so.

Amen.

The conference adjourned Sine Die.

(The following summary of action taken by the Clergy Session in this matter is to be recorded in the 1994 Conference Journal under the Minute Question which asks What other personal notations should be made ?)

In consideration of Minute Question No. 17 during the Clergy Session of the South Carolina Annual Conference on Monday, May 30, 1994, Bishop Bethea recognized the Reverend Roger M. Gramling, Counsel for the Church, in the matter of the Trial of the Reverend Eldrige Bates Rowell which was conducted on October 20, 1993, at Columbia, South Carolina. The Reverend DeArmond E. Canaday, Counsel for Mr. Rowell, raised a procedural question as to what should constitute the nature of Counsel for the Church's Report to the Clergy Session and suggested that the statement signed by the Reverend E. Herbert Franklin, Secretary of the Trial Court, dated October 26, 1993, and addressed to Mr. Rowell be placed before the body. Bishop Bethea concurred and directed Counsel for the Church to read the statement which follows:

"... this is to certify that the verdict in the trial of Eldrige B. Rowell was as follows:

General Charge of Immorality: Guilty
Specification Number One: Guilty
Specification Number Two: Guilty

The penalty fixed by the Trial Court was as follows:

Because of the gravity of the offense committed by the respondent and his breach of covenant represented by that offense, we hereby require:

1. The suspension of Eldrige B. Rowell be continued until the 1996 session of the South Carolina Annual Conference. Pension and Health Insurance are to be continued, but not salary.
2. Personal counseling by a licensed therapist shall be required to explore the issues which have resulted in the Rev. Rowell's acts of immorality. Semi-annual verification that therapy is ongoing, until closure is accomplished, shall be made to the cabinet.
3. During the period of suspension Rev. Rowell shall be under the care of an elder who will shepherd him toward re-entry into the itineracy. The shepherding elder is to be chosen by the respondent and approved by the cabinet. This elder shall report annually to the cabinet on the progress being made by the respondent.
4. For the two years following re-entry into the itineracy, Rev. Rowell shall be under the supervision of an elder appointed by the District Superintendent of the District in which he is appointed.
5. Should Rev. Rowell fail to comply with these stipulations, we recommend withdrawal of ordination credentials.

Counsel for the Church then advised the body that Par. 2626.1.h)(2) of the 1992 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church reads in part that "in the trial of a clergy member..... the penalty is subject to ratification, but not amendment, in the executive session of the clergy members in full connection with the Annual Conference to the extent that the penalty changes the ministerial relationship of the respondent." Counsel stated that item No. 1 of the above report changes the "ministerial relationship" of Mr. Rowell and therefore is subject to ratification by the body.

Counsel for the Church moved that the Executive Session of the Clergy Members in Full Connection of the South Carolina Annual Conference in session on May 30, 1994, ratifies the penalty fixed by the Trial Court against the Reverend Eldrige Bates Rowell that his suspension be continued until the 1996 session of the South Carolina Annual Conference with Pension and Health Insurance to be continued,, but not salary. A question was raised concerning the possibility of continuing pension and health insurance benefits for a person under suspension. The motion to ratify the penalty fixed by the Trial Court was adopted.

The Reverend Delos D. Corderman, Conference Secretary, requested a ruling from Bishop Bethea on a decision of law. The question presented by Mr. Corderman was as follows:

Does a clergy member of an Annual Conference, who is an Active Participant in the Annual Conference Ministerial Pension Plan(MPP) and Comprehensive Protection Plan(CPP) adopted by the General Conference of the United Methodist Church, but who has been put under Suspension by action of the Clergy Session, remain eligible to be an Active Participant in MPP or CPP ?

The Reverend Delos D. Corderman, Conference Secretary requested a second ruling from Bishop Bethea on a decision of law. The question presented by Mr. Corderman was as follows:

May an Annual Conference, in order to comply with a decision of a Trial Court, enter into a contract with outside parties for the purchase of pension or insurance benefits on behalf of a clergy member who has been placed on Suspension by the Clergy Session of that Annual Conference ?

On May 31, 1994, during the Session of the South Carolina Annual Conference, Bishop Bethea ruled as follows in response to the first question raised by Mr. Corderman during the Clergy Session the previous day:

... following suspension by the Clergy Session of an Annual Conference, a member does not remain eligible to participate in the Ministerial Pension Plan or the Comprehensive Protection Plan for the following reasons. (1) The condition of eligibility for Active Participants in MPP found in Ministerial Pension Plan Document Section 3.01(a)(3), "a Clergy member of a Conference Under Episcopal Appointment" means "an appointment by a bishop pursuant to Section V and VI of Chapter 3 of The Book of Discipline or pursuant to rules of the Puerto Rico Methodist Church." (14PP section 2.40) A clergy member suspended by the Clergy Session of an Annual Conference cannot be appointed and, therefore, cannot be an Active Participant in the Ministerial Pension Plan. (2) The condition for eligibility for Active Participants in CPP found in Comprehensive Protection Plan Document Section 3.01(a)(3) for a "Clergy Member of a Conference" stipulates that "such a person in (3) or (4) or (5) is receiving a Plan Compensation at least equivalent to 60% of the applicable Conference Average Compensation or 60% of the Denominational Average Compensation, whichever is less." Unless the Clergy member is receiving a salary from a qualified salary paying unit recognized by the General Board of Pension and health Benefits, he or she would not be eligible to be an Active Participant in the Comprehensive Protection Plan.

On May 31, 1994, during the Session of the South Carolina Annual Conference, Bishop Bethea ruled as follows in response to the second question raised by Mr. Corderman during the Clergy session the previous day:

Paragraph 1606.11 of The Book of Discipline appears to apply specifically: "(a) An Annual Conference may not make any arrangement with a life insurance company for the purchase of annuities for the benefit of individual effective or retired ministers or take any steps to nullify, in whole or in part, the pension plans and programs of The United Methodist Church by making contracts with outside parties. (See Judicial Council Decision 585)" Therefore, I must rule that an Annual Conference, in order to comply with the decision of a Trial Court, may not enter into a contract with outside parties for the purchase of pension or insurance benefits on behalf of a clergy member who has been placed on suspension by the Clergy Session of the Annual Conference.

Report No. 3

A. The compensation for the District Superintendents for the year 1995 will be as follows, with the understanding that the item for in-district travel, which is paid from the District Administration Fund only by voucher, varies from district to district.

Salary	$54,706
Average in-district travel	2,200
Insurance	1,500
Total	$58,406

B. The Council on Finance and Administration of the South Carolina Annual Conference, The United Methodist Church, hereby designates up to 15% ($8,206) of the district superintendent's salary for the year 1995 as allocated for parsonage utilities and maintenance, not including maid service and such expenses as paid by the district.

C. The District Administration Fund will be handled as follows:

1. The item "Office Expense" in the District Administration Fund will be for the operation of the District Office to pay such items as secretary, postage, and supplies and will be set at $17,500 per district.
2. Exception: Inasmuch as the Columbia District Office must be in The United Methodist Center, one-half of the rent of that office will be paid from the Conference Expense Fund.
3. The funds for program in each district are based on the membership of the district, beginning with a base of $3,000 for the smallest membership district and adding $100 for each one thousand (1,000) members, or major fraction thereof, above 15,000. The schedule for 1995 will be as follows:

	Membership	Amount
Anderson	15,815	3,100
Charleston	25,804	4,100
Columbia	28,283	4,300
Florence	21,367	3,600
Greenville	21,503	3,600
Greenwood	19,472	3,400
Hartsville	21,093	3,600
Marion	20,525	3,600

  5. There will be no shifting of funds among travel, program, and office expense.
  6. Vouchers for continuing education must be approved by the District Committee on Continuing Education prior to payment. The unused portion of the Continuing Education allowance may be carried forward from year to year during a district superintendent's tenure, not to exceed a total amounting to three years Continuing Education allocation. Not more than fifty percent of accumulated funds shall be used for travel expenses. The accumulation is cancelled in full when a district superintendent leaves the superintendency. It does not carry forward to the new district superintendent. However, by application to the CF&A in advance of leaving the superintendency, the district superintendent may within a reasonable length of time use the unused portion of the Continuing Education allowance to take training which would assist in his/her return to the parish ministry or other appointment. For the year in which there is a move, one-half of the Continuing Education allowance will be available for each superintendent.
- D. Each District Board of Trustees shall elect a treasurer from the elected trustees of said district. The treasurer of the Board of Trustees shall administer all funds for the District Parsonage Fund, writing and signing all vouchers for parsonage payments, repairs, insurance and furnishings (not to include parsonage utility payments). The moving expenses of an incoming district superintendent may also be paid from the District Parsonage Fund, not to include more than $150 packing expenses. The treasurer shall report to the board all receipts and expenditures of the District Parsonage Fund.

Report No. 4

A. We call attention to the "Special Days" designated by the Book of Discipline and recommend that they be observed with appropriate free-will offerings and that the following special observances be a part of the program of each local church.

Human Relations Day	January 15, 1995
One Great Hour of Sharing	March 26, 1995
Native American Awareness Sunday	April 30, 1995
Golden Cross Sunday	February 5, 1995
Peace With Justice Sunday	June 11, 1995
Epworth Children's Home
Mothers' Day	May 14, 1995
Work Day	September 17, 1995
Church school offering first Sunday each month
World Communion Sunday	October 1, 1995
Missions in South Carolina	November 5, 1995
United Methodist Student Day	November 26, 1995

B. An offering may be taken to support the Bessie Parker Memorial Scholarship Fund as a part of the observance of Women in the Pulpit Sunday, March 12, 1995. Also, it is recommended that all gifts from individuals or churches designated for this cause may be received for the scholarship.

C. We offer the following recommendations:

1. That all boards, commissions and committees receiving funds from the conference treasurer shall submit with each voucher adequate supporting data.
2. That boards, agencies and conference institutions which are allowed to withdraw lump sums from the conference treasurer shall submit an annual audit by a certified public accountant to the Council on Finance and Administration.
3. That all boards, commissions and agencies of the conference pay a standard rate of 24 cents a mile when a representative travels on church business. In order to encourage car pooling, we recommend that if a car contains two persons traveling on church business, the mileage rate be increased to 29 cents; if a car contains three persons all traveling on church business, the rate be 32 cents; and if a car contains four or more persons all traveling on church business, the rate be 34 cents per mile. We recommend that other expenses for travel on church business be paid; also, that the maximum paid to a person for meals shall be $4.00 for breakfast, $6.00 for lunch and $10.00 for the evening meal. Meal reimbursement will normally equal $20.00 per day.
4. That each church place in its budget an amount of at least $500 per year to be used by the pastor as a continuing education fund, and that if the full amount is not used in a given year, the unused portion may be carded forward from year to year during the tenure of a pastor, not to exceed a total amounting to three years continuing education allowance. Not more than fifty percent of accumulated funds shall be used for travel expenses. The accumulation is cancelled in full when there is a change of pastor. It is also recommended that the health insurance premium be paid by the local church directly to the Office of Ministerial Affairs, even if it is done on a salary reduction basis, and that if this is done, the amount be included in the charge conference worksheet which itemizes salaries and benefits for 1995.

5. That the balance held for each board, commission, committee or agency on the books of the conference treasurer shall be carried forward from one year to the next and that this shall be taken into consideration in the subsequent budget request.
6. That "average net funds" as used in the calculation of 1995 apportionments shall mean for each church the four-year average of net funds in the years 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1993. When a church has declined for two years in "net funds," the term "average net funds" shall mean the average of the last two years only. Newly organized churches will be treated in the same manner as other churches of the conference. A four-year average of net funds will be used, but for the years prior to the organization of the new church, the net funds figure will be zero.
7. That "net funds" be defined as the total of figures reported on lines 64 through 72 (inclusive) of Table II.
8. That the funds received on the apportionment for Methodist Homes (item 12, Report No. 1) be divided 55% to Orangeburg Methodist Home, 30% to Greenwood Methodist Home, 15% to Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee; that the funds received on the apportionment for Senior College Fund (item 9, Report No. 1) be divided in three equal parts, one-third each going to Wofford College, Columbia College and Claflin College; that the funds received on the apportionment for Methodist Camps and Retreat Centers (item 13, Report No. 1) be divided 60% to Asbury Hills Methodist Camp and 40% to Sewee Coastal Retreat Center.
9. That the granting of a sabbatical leave by the Annual Conference shall carry with it automatic authorization from the Contingency Fund to provide pension credit and insurance for the person granted the sabbatical, provided there are not funds in the budget of the Board of the Ordained Ministry for this purpose. No more than two sabbatical leaves will be funded by the Conference in any one year.
10. That the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration be authorized to grant amounts up to $7,500 from the Conference Contingency Fund to meet any individual emergency or unanticipated need.
11. That the program agencies of the Conference Council on Ministries be funded 100% of budget if needed, by using funds from the Contingency Fund and interest earned from the corpus of the Contingency Fund.

THE BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

The Board of Diaconal Ministry continues to be intentional in its task as the advocate for the facilitation and expansion of love, service and justice ministries throughout this annual conference. This intentionality is reflected in the growing number of persons who are inquiring about or participating in or completing the steps involved in becoming a diaconal minister. Through interpretation, we present to inquiring persons the option of fulfilling their calls in this form of representative ministry. Grounded in a tradition that sees its roots reflected throughout the Bible, we seek to foster dialogue that will strengthen our relationship with our brothers and sisters in ordained ministry. And, we are visioning for the next century by constantly asking ourselves what would God have us do in this place and time as members of the household of God.

However, we must deal with the here and now. Therefore, the Board has committed to address several issues in the near future. A procedural manual is being developed that will establish continuity as the Board's membership changes. We are addressing the need to have guidelines that pertain to continuing education units and self-directed studies. We are finalizing a document that presents guidelines for employing local church lay employees, including but not limited to diaconal ministers. And finally, we will continue to hold conversations with the Board of Ordained Ministry through our Executive Committees.

On behalf of the Board, I wish to express our appreciation for the support that Bishop Bethea has given and continues to give as we go about doing the tasks that have been given us as the Board of Diaconal Ministry.

Chairperson of Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry:
Harry S. Primm, III, 1911 Toole St., Cayce 29033
Registrar of Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry:
Hazel C. Bennett, 28 South Main St., Inman 29349

OVERVIEW OF SEXUAL ETHICS POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

To be presented to the 1994 South Carolina Annual Conference

The need for a policy and procedure for dealing with situations where there is alleged sexual harassment, sexual abuse, or sexual misconduct of any sort in the church has, become very evident. This includes clergy, lay staff and lay volunteers for the various congregational and institutional endeavors.

Bishop Joseph B. Bethea addressed this concern in 1992 naming a committee of the cabinet to develop a proposed policies and procedures to be presented to annual conference in 1993.

The proposal was submitted to the 1993 Annual Conference where it was accepted but deemed incomplete. The conference directed it to be further developed and brought back to the 1994 conference. Specific areas of concern included lack of definitions and an incomplete response to the victims of misconduct and to congregations involved in processes.

Bishop Bethea named the committee soon after conference to be inclusive as to race, gender, lay and clergy. Two named early declined to serve as they had become litigants in a harassment suit against a former United Methodist clergyperson, a church, a district and the annual conference.

The committee met three times with work of preparation between sessions. The final is being sent to annual conference delegates for their consideration with perfection and adoption to be completed at the May 29-June 1 session.

The actual policies and procedures are as brief as possible. There will be interpretation events planned at the district level that will include ways to help prevent such occurrences as well as making known how to use the procedures. Clergy and lay will be included.

The Pastoral Care and Counseling Committee will be asked to assist in identify persons (lay and clergy) who may be available to be support persons for victims when there is a need.

The fair process as stated in paragraph 2622 The Book of Discipline 1992 shall be followed in any and all procedures to assure that the accused, the accuser and the church have all their rights protected.

SEXUAL ETHICS POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

South Carolina Annual Conference

To be presented to the United Methodist Church for approval at its May 29 - June 1, 1994 Session

THEOLOGICAL BASIS

The South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church believes and proclaims that all persons are created by God. God values human life, intending all men, women and children to have worth and dignity in all relationships with God and others. We are called to use our bodies, including our sexuality, in responsible ways.

Scripture specifically states that we are created equally and that we are one connected body in Christ. Therefore, where one part of the body is injured (physically, emotionally, or spiritually), the entire body is rendered less than God's intended whole. Sexual misconduct, harassment, and abuse are violations of the integrity of the body of Christ.

Sexual misconduct, harassment, and abuse express a dehumanizing lack of respect for the worth and dignity of persons. Sexual misconduct, harassment, and abuse are unjust in the misuse of status and power in work relationships. As dehumanization and injustice, these acts are sinful behavior which violate teachings of the church.

PURPOSE

The purposes of these policies and procedures are:

To provide guidance to clergy and lay employees and volunteers of the South Carolina Annual Conference and its local churches in reported cases of sexual misconduct, sexual harassment, or sexual abuse.

To ensure that the Annual Conference meets its ethical and legal responsibility to protect the accuser and the accused in the matters of reported sexual misconduct, sexual harassment or sexual abuse.

To supply a mechanism which seeks to provide reconciliation, to begin healing, and to restore wholeness to individuals and institutions of the Annual Conference in reported cases of sexual misconduct, sexual harassment, and sexual abuse.

DEFINITIONS

Sexual harassment includes any unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical, which is perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive, and which creates a hostile or abusive working environment. Sexual harassment is not exclusively sexual, but may include exploitation of a power relationship.

Sexual abuse includes incest, rape, and any other intrusion into a person's physical or mental integrity.

Sexual misconduct includes sexual exploitation, clergy/ministerial malfeasance, any form of criminal sexual conduct, sexual harassment, and sexual abuse.

Clergy/Ministerial sexual misconduct happens when someone in a ministerial role engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, employee, or counseling client thereby taking advantage of the congregant or clients vulnerability or the power imbalance with the employee. Ministers are always responsible for knowing the possible impact of their words and actions in caring for the emotional, mental and spiritual needs of persons who come to them for help or over whom they have any kind of authority. The sexualizing of the relationship between minister/counselee, pastor/congregant is unprofessional and unacceptable behavior.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

I. IF YOU ARE SEXUALLY HARASSED:

1. Inform the harasser. If you choose, take another person with you for support. If the Person can be reasoned with, tell him/her firmly and clearly that you do not want the behavior to continue. This action, in many cases, will resolve the issue.

receive any written letters, cards, or memos of a suggestive nature from the harasser, keep them. Note the date received and how received (mailed to your home, left on your desk, etc.)

- II. If you are accused of clergy sexual misconduct, contact the District Superintendent immediately but be aware that the District Superintendent cannot serve as your counselor in light of his/her primary responsibility for ordering the life of the church. (see paragraphs 501 and 523.12 of The Book of Discipline. Whatever is said by the accused clergyperson may be used against him/her in a future judicial process.
- III. If you are reporting clergy sexual misconduct, contact the District Superintendent and the Staff/Parish Relations Committee. If the clergy is a District Superintendent, contact the Bishop.

IV. PROCEDURES FOR A DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT.

- A. Presume the innocence of the accused pastor until misconduct is established. If or when contacted by an accused pastor tell him/her immediately that as a District Superintendent you cannot serve as his/her counselor in light of your primary responsibility for the ordering of the life of the church (see paragraph 501 of The Book of Discipline) and the District Superintendent's responsibility of seeing that the provisions of the Discipline are observed. (see paragraph 523.12) The pastor should be encouraged to seek the counsel of an elder who is not a District Superintendent. The District Superintendent shall caution the accused pastor that whatever is said to the District Superintendent may be used against him/her in a future judicial process.
- B. Notify the accused of the accusations.
- C. The District Superintendent in his supervisory role in accordance with paragraph 454. 1a 1992 Book of Discipline, may attempt to reconcile the situation between the two parties. If reconciliation is accomplished, a record of the process and its conclusions will be included in the personnel file of the accused.
- D. Notify the Bishop of the accusations.
- E. Notify the Staff/Parish Relations Committee of the accusation.

- G. if the district superintendent determines that there is substance to the accusation, the district superintendent must follow the grievance procedures as outlined in paragraph 454 1992 Book of Discipline.

V. RESPONSES TO PARTIES INVOLVED

- A. Responses to the accuser
  1. The Board of Ordained Ministry shall respond to the accuser of misconduct by a pastor with sensitivity and care. A support person (lay or clergy) shall be assigned to the accuser early in the process to serve as advocate, interpreter of the process, and pastoral presence. The assignment shall be with advice and consent of the Bishop. The accuser may choose an alternate support person. In accordance with par. 454 1992 Book of Discipline, should the accuser desire it, a person chosen by him/her may accompany him/her to any meeting related to the process.
  2. Where there are multiple accusers identified, an opportunity should be made for these persons to meet together throughout the process.
  3. When clergy sexual misconduct has been substantiated a list of qualified therapists shall be provided to the victim. While this does not imply financial responsibility on the part of the church, the Board of Ordained Ministry may offer financial support for this purpose. The Board of Ordained Ministry may direct the offending pastor to make restitution to cover these expenses.
- B. Responses to the congregation or agency
  1. The district superintendent shall meet with the congregation or agency to communicate the results of the hearing process with special attention to the disciplinary action taken and its implications.
  2. A clergy member charged with an offense under paragraph 2623 The Book of Discipline 1992 may be permitted to withdraw under paragraph 2628 and the record shall be "withdrawn under charges" and the person's status shall be the same as if expelled. The congregation may be told only that allegations have been made and have not been proven. They may say further that these are being addressed by the provisions of the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church.

3. The district superintendent may make available a trained resource person who can assist the congregation or agency in whatever ways necessary to bring healing to their brokenness.

C. Responses to the accused pastor after misconduct has been confirmed

1. The disciplinary action deemed appropriate by the Board of Ordained Ministry must be understood within the context of Christian Theology and provide the greatest potential for personal redemption and healing. Those ministering to an offending pastor must remind the offender and be reminded themselves of the depth of God's grace and the cost of God's forgiveness in Christ. Rituals of confession and absolution, while given freely, should be practiced with care and not in haste.
2. While confession and/or acknowledgment of responsibility for misconduct shall be regarded as an important first step in the possible restoration of an offending pastor to effective ministry, the nature of pastoral authority combined with the intimate access of the pastor to vulnerable people, requires a high level of maturity and emotional health, especially in sexual matters. Therefore, full restoration to pastoral ministry requires the judgment of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

In the case of Special Conference Claimants, the rate shall be 100% of the rate for full conference members. The Board requests that the service annuity rate for a surviving spouse be 75% of the minister's service annuity rate.
- B. The Board of Pensions requests that an appropriation be made that will give the Board of Pensions (The Pension Fund) $3,288,021.00 for the pension program of the South Carolina Annual Conference for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1995 and that this sum be apportioned to the charges of the South Carolina Annual Conference on the basis established in continuing resolutions.

C. RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed, and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service; and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the South Carolina Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference:

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the years 1993 and 1994 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the South Carolina Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability;
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/ housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rule. 71-280, 1971 C.B. 92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities."

- D. Each institution, organization or district to which a minister is appointed shall pay to the South Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pensions an amount equal to sixteen and four-tenths percent (16.4%) of the Denominational Average Compensation as determined by the General Board of Pensions for the year 1995. Such payments shall be made for each minister so appointed and paid monthly in equal payments each month during the year 1995 or in advance for monthly crediting in twelve equal installments from deposits made in the Deposit Account of the South Carolina Annual Conference with the General Board of Pensions by the treasurer of the South Carolina Annual Conference. In the event that monthly credits to the minister in special appointment's Church Account exceed the funds deposited for the minister in special appointment, and the Deposit Account is overdrawn, an interest charge made at the currently monthly rate of interest credited to the STIRA investment program shall be made. This interest payment is due the following month with interest charges on a daily factor until the institutional account of the minister in special appointment is current.
- II. The fiscal year of the Board of Pensions shall be the same as that of the South Carolina Annual Conference.
- III. We recommend that the Annual Conference approve the distribution which the Board of Pensions has made to claimants during the year as set forth in detail in our Report No. Two Payments to Annuitants and Beneficiaries during the year 1993.

THE COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

The Annual Conference archives continue to be housed at the libraries of Claflin College, Orangeburg, S.C., and at Wofford College, Spartanburg, S.C. We are indebted to the continuing generosity of the Trustees and Administrations of these two colleges for their assistance in preserving the historical collections of the Annual Conference and its predecessor entities.

The Commission is aware of its responsibilities originating from paragraphs 738.1 and 2549.4 of the 1992 Book of Discipline. These mandate that the Commission is responsible for the task of providing for the collection, evaluation and storage of all inactive records that should be retained for posterity. The Annual Conference should be aware that abundant storage space is not currently available to the Commission, nor have guidelines yet been developed to direct the accumulation of such material. The Commission hopes to begin the process of guidelines development within the 1994 Annual Conference year by seeking input from all interested persons and organizations of the Annual Conference.

Because of increasing interest among local churches to seek historical site recognition, the Commission has seen the need to develop a set of guidelines in this process. A copy of these guidelines accompanies this report.

An interesting and ongoing project of the Commission is the desire to develop a "community of sites important to the people called Methodists" in the Charleston area. There are more than a dozen sites that are especially interesting to United Methodists. Some date as far back as the visits of John and Charles Wesley in the city in the 1730s. As confirming evidence is collected for each site, the Commission will seek the proper recognition from the General Commission on Archives and History. Several of these Charleston sites are not related to any local congregation, so this research must come from other sources. It is planned that this project will be completed in time for presentation of the "community of sites" to the 1996 General Conference.

The Commission appreciates the interest of individuals and churches in the broad area of historical research and recognition. The Commission is the servant of the Annual Conference and is available for such assistance as it can develop.

PROPOSED GUIDELINES FOR OFFICIAL RECOGNITION OF HISTORIC SITES OF THE

SOUTH CAROLINA UNITED METHODIST ANNUAL CONFERENCE

"Historic Sites are buildings, locations, or structures which are specifically related to a significant event, development, or personality in the history of an Annual Conference (or its antecedents). Historic Sites are designated by formal action of the Annual Conference within whose region the site is located. Such designation shall first be considered and reviewed by the (Annual Conference) Commission on Archives and History. After action by the Annual Conference to designate a building, structure, or location as an Historic Site, the president or chairperson of the Commission on Archives and History . . . shall advise the General Commission on Archives and History of the action taken and provide such documentation as may be required. The General Commission in turn shall provide an official Site Marker, keep a register of all Historic Sites, and maintain an ongoing file of pertinent information concerning them." (Paragraph 1812.1, 1992 Book of Discipline, The United Methodist Church, adapted only for references for Annual Conference consideration and action.)

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

1. What are the tests for site qualification?

- The site must be within the bounds of the South Carolina Annual Conference.
- The site must have been related to United Methodism and its predecessor denominations for at least 100 years. Please note, however, that age alone is not a sufficient criterion to justify qualifying as an Historic Site.
- Historical value will be measured based upon something of significance having taken place at the site that relates it to South Carolina Methodism. Is the site the birthplace or gravesite of someone who made outstanding contributions to South Carolina Methodism? In what way does the site under consideration connect with some personality or event of significance to the history of Methodism in South Carolina?
- The site must have Conferencewide (statewide) historical value.
- The site must be accessible to the public, and provisions must be made for its upkeep. Will proper insurance coverage be necessary?

2. Who can make application for the recognition of an Historic Site?

All applications must originate either with a local United Methodist church in South Carolina, with one of the District Superintendents of the South Carolina Annual Conference, or by the Commission on Archives and History applying in the name of the United Methodist Bishop for the South Carolina Annual Conference.

3. What is the timeline for providing adequate application data?

- Those interested in seeking recognition of a potential United Methodist Historic Site must begin the process with a request for an application from the secretary of the Commission on Archives and History.
- Three copies of the application must be received by the chairperson of the Commission on Archives and History by October 1 in the year preceding the session of Annual Conference where the application will be considered.
- The application will be reviewed by a committee of the Annual Conference Commission before November 1. If the review committee recommends more substantiating data or a better presentation of some material or information, this should be corrected and returned to the Commission by December 1 so that the application can be considered by the Commission at its winter meeting.
- With the approval of the application for Historic Site status by the Commission, the recommendation will be forwarded to the Committee on the Annual Conference for consideration of the application at Annual Conference.

4. How are applications to be submitted?

- Applications must be provided in triplicate in a presentation folder on archival quality paper.
- Since color photographs generally have a useful life of only about 20 years, photographs should be black and white and no larger than 8" by 10".
- Full documentation may include copies of maps, deeds, wills, diaries, newspaper clippings, etc. If the copy is of poor quality, a typescript should be provided also.
- If the applicants wish copies of the material, these should be made before the final submission of the application. Once approved by Annual Conference, the material cannot be removed from the files of the Annual Conference Archives, the General Conference Archives, or the records of the Annual Conference Commission.
- The applicants are expected to provide any updating of historic information that may become available with the passage of time.

5. How is the site registered at the General Church level?

Following Annual Conference approval, one copy of the application will be forwarded with a check for $75.00 provided by the applicants and made payable to the General Commission on Archives and History. The fee covers the registration cost at the General Church level and also the unique numbered site marker that will be provided by the General Commission.

6. How is the site formally recognized?

A formal dedication service should be planned that is appropriate to the historic background of the newly designated Historic Site.

THE COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION*Report No. 1*GENERAL:

The South Carolina United Methodist Conference, through this commission, helps fund mission and ministry across the state by providing compensation assistance to clergy serving churches with specific missional needs.

A COVENANT CONNECTION

We affirm that we are in a sacred covenant with each other. The notion of covenant is based in the Word of the Bible. Abraham was called into covenant with God, a covenant that Israel shared. God promised to provide for the people of Israel; Israel was required to be faithful to God alone. Jesus called his followers into a renewed covenant with God, a relationship he referred to as "the kingdom of God." In this covenant Christ reminds us that God cares for us and calls us to be faithful to the one God and to each other.

In the South Carolina Conference, we are in a mutually supportive covenant with each other. We affirm the priesthood of all believers, where laity and clergy each bring special gifts for the ordering of the lives of our churches. As pastors and people, we are bound in a covenant of mutual support. Pastors offer themselves in response to the call of God as instruments for the care of congregations. Ordained clergy bring special training, skills and experiences. The laity also bring their own special gifts, leading the church in their own unique ways while providing for the physical and emotional well-being of their pastor.

Likewise, through their Baptism, the laity of the churches of the Conference have entered a covenant of ministry. Each church has a unique history, special gifts, specific concerns, and individual and varied communities to serve. New churches are being born, some churches are dying with dignity and grace, some are being renewed by the Spirit of God to discover new and unfolding ministries. But the common thread of covenant binds all the churches of the Conference together. We are one body. When one member suffers, all suffer together. When one member rejoices, all sing the Doxology!

Pastors are in covenant with the laity and with each other. Each has been called, with unique gifts, to unique ministries. Pastors have diverse backgrounds in terms of theology, race, ethnic and cultural heritage, age, gender and individual histories. Each has a contribution to the covenant of ministry; each has a need and an opportunity for growth.

The various bodies of the Conference are likewise bound in covenant together. Neither antagonists nor competitors, the various bodies within the Conference are called to listen for God's guidance and to work together for the good of all. The Cabinet, the Commission on Equitable Compensation, the Council on Ministries, the Conference Committee on Congregational Development, the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee and others are in covenant together to serve one Lord. As a covenant people, we seek the best stewardship of all the resources the Lord gives us for the greatest good of the whole body.

Therefore, as a covenant people, we call on the Conference and its various agencies, churches and individuals to work together for our common good, and in support of our common calling. Our focus is the faithful use of the available resources provided by the whole church. Stewardship demands investment in ministries which support, strengthen and renew our mutual covenant.

COVENANT AND ITINERACY

That we understand ourselves to be bound together with Christ and with each other to serve Christ's mission in the world shows forth in our use of an itinerant ministry. For the sake of the mission, pastors go where they are sent and churches receive those who are sent. For the sake of the mission, pastors devote themselves fully to the work of ministry and congregations set pastors free for ministry by providing for their material needs.

The Book of Discipline 1992 uses the language of "obligation" and "counter obligation" to define the connection between covenant and itineracy. Paragraph 441 says: "Assumption of the obligations of the itinerant ministry required upon admission to the traveling Connection places upon the Church a counterobligation to provide adequate support for the entire ministry of the Church."

MISSION

The Commission on Equitable Compensation, composed of laity and clergy in equal numbers, is charged to aid the effective operation of both covenant and itineracy in the service of Christ's mission in the world.

Beyond the responsibilities stated in Paragraph 722 of The Book of Discipline 1992, we understand that at this time in the life of the South Carolina Annual Conference, it is the mission of this Commission to enhance our covenantal itinerant ministry in these ways:

- 1) to encourage the development of new churches and to assist in funding their pastoral support;
- 2) to assist the re-formation of existing churches which find themselves in a missional situation requiring temporary support for pastoral leadership to develop ministries which will strengthen outreach and evangelism;
- 3) to enable cross-racial appointments as they are deemed helpful to the Conference and the local church by the bishop and the Cabinet;
- 4) to aid congregations in their efforts to become self-sustaining communities of witness and service;
- 5) to encourage the churches of the Conference to provide adequate support for pastors; and
- 6) to encourage pastors of the Conference to faithful stewardship of their time and talents.

GOALS:

1. The Commission on Equitable Compensation has the goal of adequate compensation for all clergy in the conference. We commend churches for providing adequate compensation for their pastors while taking on themselves adequate outreach ministries to ensure the sharing of the gospel of Christ in their communities and the continuing growth of the body of Christ. We commend pastors who have led churches to focus on ministry over maintenance as well as those who have supported conference and local mission.
2. The Commission on Equitable Compensation has the goal of assisting churches while challenging them to responsible witness for Christ and a viable outreach ministry. We will hold as a high priority the use of the Equitable Compensation Fund for the staff development of new churches; the staff redevelopment of engulfed churches or reforming churches; and the temporary support of churches in which there is a cross-racial appointment.
3. Our goal is to assist all conference churches to be in vital ministry and moving toward base compensation self-sufficiency. We commend churches for: taking risks, initiating new ministries, openness to change in charge lines, developing new ways of seeing themselves and their communities, engaging their gifts fully in the outreach ministries as well as maintenance, expressing commitment to women ministers and cross-racial appointments, faithfully supporting ministers appointed to serve the church. We encourage churches which see themselves as struggling for survival to explore Charge realignment to lessen the demands on their resources, relocation to a more favorable location, merger with a neighboring congregation, use of lay pastors, or death with dignity by petitioning to discontinue the church.
4. Our mandate from The Book of Discipline 1992 is to recommend minimum levels of support for pastors. Our goals for minimum base compensation levels include:
  - a. base compensation support for beginning pastors serving full-time commensurate with entry-level compensation packages in similar fields;
  - b. base compensation support for pastors serving less than full-time based on the percentage of full-time which they serve;

- c. base compensation support for experienced pastors based on the minimum plus a supplement for their years of service.
5. Our goal is to encourage the District Superintendent to fulfill the requirement in The Book of Discipline 1992 to assist churches in developing adequate compensation. (See Paragraph 523.3 of the The Book of Discipline 1992.)
6. The Commission on Equitable Compensation has the goal of encouraging churches at all compensation levels to address work load and job expectations as well as compensation provided. This may include adjustments of charge lines, use of lay pastors, and multiple-staff adjustments. Creativity throughout the covenant, not merely within existing church or charge lines, but between churches and charges, and between large and smaller churches, is encouraged.

Report Number 2

These recommendations are made in light of the covenant and goals articulated above.

A. Minimum Base Compensation Scale

In accord with the mandate of the Discipline, the commission recommends that the South Carolina Annual Conference fix the following as its minimum base compensation scale, effective January 1, 1995, and continuing until changed by the Annual Conference. The Commission recommends the following minimum salary scale. Salary amounts have been based upon 75% of the 1994 average salary for Full members of the Annual Conference. Other categories are based upon a percentage of the Full members calculated figure. The Commission on Equitable Compensation requests that a line item apportionment of $271,000.00 be made to fund the base compensation support required and/or provided under these recommendations.

FOR FULL-TIME APPOINTMENTS:

Category	Amount
1. Effective Members	$28,900.00
2. Probationary and Associate Members	$26,000.00
3. Local Pastors	$24,300.00

FOR STUDENT APPOINTMENTS:

Each person serving a local church student appointment shall receive the compensation for his or her category, proportional to the percentage of time serving in a pastoral charge. (i.e., One-half time service would receive one-half the Equitable Compensation for that person's category.) The percentage of time serving the charge shall be determined by the Cabinet.

B. Charge/Church Visits

When a church or charge is initially being considered for Equitable Compensation supplements and at the beginning of its third year of receiving such supplements, the Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that the following representatives of the larger covenant connection shall meet with the Administrative Board(s) or Administrative Council(s) of the church/charge: (1) the District Superintendent, (2) a representative from the District Board for Congregational Development, (3) a member of the District Board of Buildings and Locations, and (4) a member of the Commission on Equitable Compensation. The meeting will be convened and chaired by the District Superintendent. The purpose of the meeting will be:

- (a) to discuss the current mission of the local church or charge;
- (b) to hear the needs of the local church or charge; and
- (c) to help develop a plan for the church's or charge's future outreach ministry.

C. Length of Time for Equitable Compensation Support

Effective January 1, 1994, churches or charges receiving Equitable Compensation support shall be limited to four years. Such churches will in no case receive more than 35% of total compensation from the Equitable Compensation fund, with assistance decreasing by one-fourth each year after the first year.

D. Mission Statements and Growth Goals

Churches or charges receiving or applying for Equitable Compensation support shall submit annually to the District Board for Congregational Development and to the Commission on Equitable Compensation its Mission Statement specifying its understanding of its unique ministry and a statement of membership growth goals for the coming year, with ministry plans for reaching these goals.

E. Experience Merit

A pastor who has served for 5 or more years in full-time service, in the South Carolina Annual Conference, shall receive, in addition to the minimum base, a supplement of $100.00 per year of service for up to 10 years of service.

Example: Year 5: Equitable Compensation base plus $500.00;
Year 6: Equitable Compensation base plus $600.00;
Year 7: Equitable Compensation base plus $700.00;
Year 8: Equitable Compensation base plus $800.00;
Year 9: Equitable Compensation base plus $900.00;
Years 10+: Equitable Compensation base plus $1,000.00.

F. Travel Supplement

1. The Annual conference provides a travel supplement through the Equitable Compensation Fund for pastors of churches/charges faced with inequitable transportation costs due to the geographic spread of the parish or the distance of the parish from hospitals and other institutions requiring frequent visits by their pastor.
2. Pastors shall qualify for the travel supplement when:
  - a. the charge/church pays the Equitable Compensation Apportionment in full for the previous year, and
  - b. the pastor receives base compensation from the Equitable Compensation Fund, and
  - c. the pastor lives in the parsonage or in other housing within the parish boundaries, and
  - d. the pastor resides more than 20 miles from the hospitals most often used by parish members and/or 30% of the parish families reside more than 10 miles from the parsonage.
3. The Travel Supplement program shall be administered as follows:
  - a. Travel Supplements shall be disbursed by voucher on the basis of actual miles in excess of 4,000 quarterly or 16,000 annually driven in performance of pastoral responsibilities up to a limit of 20,000 miles. (Up to 4,000 miles to be covered by the Travel Supplement.)
  - b. The mileage rate shall be that approved by the Annual Conference for Boards and Agencies.
  - c. Clergy couples shall not be compensated for extra travel for commuting between their parishes.

G. Continuing Education

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends providing the difference between what the local charge pays and 70% of the Annual Conference recommendation for Continuing Education.

1. This money shall be provided for Effective Members and Associate Members of the Annual Conference and for Full-Time Local Pastors who have completed the courses of study.
2. This money shall be vouchered on a reimbursement basis.
3. Any amount of Continuing Education funding provided by a church or charge over the Annual Conference recommendation will reduce the Equitable Compensation Fund support available to the church or charge.

H. Housing Allowances

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that all money given to the pastor for housing by the charge he/she serves be considered income if the pastor is not a resident in the charge which he/she serves.

I. Application for Equitable Compensation Support

The District Superintendent shall request the base compensation assistance required by each charge, which must be approved by the Commission on Equitable Compensation before payment can be made. This request from the District Superintendent shall be accompanied by an application form provided by the Commission on Equitable Compensation and completed by the pastor, the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, and the District Superintendent, indicating income from all sources.

J. Cross Racial Appointments

If the Bishop and Cabinet, in making a cross-racial appointment, find it necessary to request equitable compensation supplement, special consideration will be given on an individual basis. Guidelines under Section L. will apply.

K. Cooperative Parish Ministries

Directors or Coordinators of Cooperative Parish ministries which have been approved by the Board of Missions, and application made by the District Superintendent to the Commission on Equitable Compensation by January 1 preceding the appointment in June of the same year may be eligible for funds not to exceed $7,000.00. No pastor shall be eligible to receive funds unless the charge he/she serves agrees in writing to release him/her for these added duties. Assistance will be provided over a 4-1/2 year period and will decrease by 25% each year after the first year and a half.

L. Missional Situations

Missional Situations are when areas - rural, inner city, transitional or engulfed neighborhoods, or areas where new churches are organized, demand an effective ministry but are not capable of providing such ministries without Equitable Compensation assistance. To be eligible for Equitable Compensation assistance the following procedure must be followed:

1. The District Board for Congregational Development shall be the authorizing body to project a new missional situation.
2. The District Board for Congregational Development will refer this to the Conference Committee on Congregational Development for verification that it is indeed a missional situation, and its priority rank among conference needs.
3. It will then be referred to the Cabinet for approval. The Cabinet will then designate a pastor with at least 4 years experience and request an appropriate base compensation for that particular missional situation.
4. Each missional situation will be reevaluated annually by December 31st each year.
5. Each step of the above procedure must be documented in writing to the Commission on Equitable Compensation by January 1st.

Other provisions:

If known at the time, the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation of a potential missional situation a year ahead of the time it is expected to be effected. In all cases where a new missional situation is to be effected, the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation by January 1st preceding the Annual Conference at which an appointment is to be made providing, at that time, the projected base compensation cost to be incurred in June.

Decreasing Support: Equitable Compensation assistance will be provided over a 4-1/2 year period decreasing 25% each year after the first year and a half as follows:

First Year and a Half: The amount of Equitable Compensation support will be according to the pastor's category.

[Special Note: The District Superintendent may apply to the Cabinet for a compensation that is more in keeping with the amount received by this pastor in his or her previous appointment. If this previous compensation is less than the conference average for that year, the compensation may increase by no more than $2,000.00, to an amount not more than the conference average. (See Section Q. for definition of amount.) If this previous compensation is more than the conference average, the compensation will be no higher than an amount equal to the conference average compensation plus 1/2 the difference between the previous compensation and the conference average.]

Second Full Year: The grant depends on amount received the first year and a half. At the beginning of the second full year, the church must assume one-fourth of the pastor's compensation.

Third Full Year: The grant depends on amount received the second full year. At the beginning of the third full year, the church must assume one-half of the pastor's compensation.

Fourth Full Year: The grant depends on amount received the third full year. At the beginning of the fourth full year, the church must assume three-fourths of the pastor's compensation.

After the first year and a half, an annual "cost of living" increase will be added at the beginning of each calendar year to the amounts paid from the Equitable Compensation Fund in missional situations. The amount of this increase will be determined by the Commission on Equitable Compensation at its June meeting each year. The total amount of Equitable Compensation support, including the cost of this "cost of living" increase, to be provided in the following year will be communicated to each church by September first for use in the budgeting process for the new year.

Note 1. No base compensation funds will be granted to a church after the fourth full year.

Note 2. The local church's share of this base compensation schedule is interpreted to mean all sources of income from the local church or from any other source.

Note 3. In all cases where a missional situation is attached to an existing charge, these become charge figures.

Note 4. The moving expenses for pastors assigned to newly set-up congregations will be paid out of the Equitable Compensation Fund.

M. Disbursement

Equitable Compensation Funds shall be disbursed monthly, and shall be given only to the pastor involved.

N. Utilities Allowance

The Commission on Equitable Compensation requests that the South Carolina Conference designate 15% (or actual expenses) of base compensation support funded by this commission as parsonage utilities allowance. This request is made to satisfy the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service. The Commission also requests that the church or charge designate 15% (or actual expenses) of compensation paid by them as parsonage utility allowance.

O. Charge Lines Adjustments

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that any charge receiving Equitable Compensation assistance for three consecutive years or failing to pay more than 65% of the minimum base compensation shall be studied by the Commission on Equitable Compensation for the purpose of making recommendations regarding a realignment of that charge.

P. Investment of Reserve Fund

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that all funds held in "reserve" be invested.

Q. Computation of "Average Salary"

In its usage, the Commission on Equitable Compensation computes the "Average Salary" by adding the most recently available compensations (excluding the 12 District Superintendents' compensations) for full-time Effective Members of the South Carolina Annual Conference serving churches under appointment, and dividing this figure by the number added. This figure for 1994 is $38,509.

R. Interpretation

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that an interpretation of its task and policy procedures be given as a part of the District Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee Workshops. It is further recommended that this interpretation be done by a member of the Commission upon invitation by the District Superintendent.

S. Compensation Guidance

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that District Superintendents assist churches and charges in setting appropriate compensation and work load packages in accordance with Paragraph 523.3 of The Book of Discipline 1992.

T. Ineligibility

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that the following not be eligible for Equitable Compensation support:

1. Retired supplies;
2. Part-time local pastors;
3. Pastors on leave of absence except as provided in Standing Rule 144;
4. Special appointment categories within the itineracy of The United Methodist Church as defined in Paragraph 443.1. a, b, c of the The Book of Discipline 1992.

U. Equality and Inclusiveness

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that, beginning on moving day of 1996, Equitable Compensation funds not be used to supplement the base compensation of pastors serving separate charges in the same geographic area.

V. "Grandfather" Clause

Any pastor under appointment in the South Carolina Annual Conference, serving churches and receiving Equitable Compensation support on December 31, 1993, may choose to continue to receive support under the policy set forth in the 1992 Conference Journal's "Equitable Salary" policies, for as long as that pastor is in that same appointment.

Report No. 4

This recommendation is in response to issues referred to the Commission by a previous session of the Annual Conference.

After consideration, our conclusion is that the church needs to address the issue of how we accept our responsibility for recruiting and training people for ministry in the South Carolina Conference. Related to this issue are matters such as location of seminaries, second career and family concerns, the high cost of a seminary education (especially in United Methodist related schools), and the history in our conference of using student appointments and Equitable Compensation Fund to assist ministerial students. We therefore recommend, that the appropriate body of the Annual Conference (which in our opinion is the Board of Ordained Ministry) be directed to address this issue and report back to the 1995 Session of the South Carolina Annual Conference.

Major Medical Insurance Benefits

The major medical plan of the Conference Insurance Program provides benefits for medically necessary reasonable and customary charges by the insured, or covered dependent, while receiving hospital services, treatments and supplies ordered by a physician. After a $250 annual deductible, the plan provides for payment of 80% of the first $5,000 of eligible expenses and 100% of all other eligible expenses over $5,000 within a benefit period.

The lifetime maximum coverage for each eligible insured and eligible dependent shall be limited to $1,000,000.

Other details of the major medical expense plan are contained in the guidebook Hospital and Medical Expense Program, South Carolina Annual Conference.

Report Number 4

Medicare Benefits

Medicare is a Federal health insurance plan, administered under the Social Security Act, for the benefit of persons 65 years of age or older. The Medicare Program consists of two parts: (a) hospital insurance, designed to pay for physicians' service and related medical services. Under the terms of the Medicare Program, hospital insurance (Part A) is provided for all persons under the plan. The medical insurance (Part B) is an optional feature for which the insured pays a stated monthly premium.

The Conference Insurance Program is so designed that it provides certain benefits which begin at the point where Medicare coverage terminates, and in addition, makes provision for some benefits not covered by Medicare at all. Therefore, it is required that all retired participants and/or dependent spouses aged 65 or older shall enroll in Medicare Part A and Part B and, in any event, benefits for retired enrollers and eligible dependents who have attained age 65 shall be computed as though the enroller or eligible dependent were enrolled in Medicare Part A and B.

Inasmuch as the insurance coverage for normally retired ministers and their eligible dependents who have attained age 65 is provided for them by the Conference without cost to the insured, all persons who are or who could be covered by Medicare Part A and Part B shall have their benefits computed by the Benefit Reduction method; and each insured or dependent age 65 or over should be positive that any hospital he/she enters is one which participants in the Medicare program.

Our plan does not pay benefits which are or could be paid by Medicare.

Eligible retired enrollants and their eligible dependents as well as participating active enrollants and their eligible dependents who have attained age 65 shall have benefits calculated by the Benefit Reduction approach with the same deductible(s) applicable and the same co-insurance as those enrollants under age 65. This assumes Part A and Part B the same co-insurance as those enrollants under age 65. This assumes that the active age 65 and over enrollant and dependent shall be enrolled in Medicare Part A and Part B immediately upon reaching the age of eligibility.

A handbook explaining the provisions of Medicare is available from any district office of the Social Security Administration.

Administrative Procedures

Billing: The Office of Ministerial Affairs sends a quarterly statement to everyone enrolled in the Conference Insurance Program. Statements are mailed in January, April, July and October. Although statements are mailed quarterly, payments for premiums may be made on monthly basis.

Cancellation of Coverage: It is imperative that each participant in the Conference Insurance Program keep this premium payments current. The Commission on Insurance has instructed the Administrator of Ministerial Affairs to cancel the insurance coverage of any participant who does not pay his/her premium by the end of the quarter for which he/she has been billed.

Ministers Serving Beyond The Local Church Appointments: For the purpose of proper cost analysis, it is required that all Conference Boards and Agencies, served by ministers and others eligible for group insurance, pay for the "institutional share" of the insured's premium. This provision shall apply to the District Superintendents, Conference Staff and those serving United Methodist agencies directly related and accountable to the South Carolina Annual Conference, should they elect coverage under the South Carolina Annual Conference Insurance Program. In every case the full cost of coverage must be paid by the insured, the employer, or through the combined payments of the insured and the employer.

Premium payments: Premium payments shall be made in accordance with the instructions printed on the quarterly "Statement of Account".

Application for Insurance Coverage: Eligibility for enrollment begins with recognition as a probationary member, full-time employment as a local pastor or student local pastor, or as a transfer from another Annual Conference, and so noted in report of the Board of the Ordained Ministry. Enrollment at any other time classifies an applicant as a "late entrant". Enrollment for local church employees under the provisions of section 10 of Report Number One may be made only in the months of January and July.

Applications for enrollment in the Conference Insurance Program are available from the Office of Ministerial Affairs. If not completed and in the hands of the Administrator within 31 days from the date of eligibility, the applicant will be classed as a "late entrant". It will then be necessary for a health statement to be furnished, and in most instances, a physical examination will be required at the expense of the insured.

Claims Procedure: The cost of medical care continues to rise, therefore, the Office of Ministerial Affairs and the carrier audit every claim with great care. Conference Insurance Program participants can render valuable assistance in the claims process by:

1. making certain that they have received all the services for which they are requesting payment.
2. Supplying the documentation required to validate the claim.
3. Refraining from asking for reimbursement for services clearly excluded under the terms of the insurance program.

Claims should be submitted at least quarterly, but not more often than once a month.

The Commission on Group Insurance is charged with oversight of the group insurance program of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the benefits of which program are outlined in the reports of the Commission submitted to and approved by the Annual Conference. The budget of the Commission on Insurance is approved by the Annual Conference and the Commission is authorized to negotiate and contract with carriers or the HealthFlex plan administrator to maintain the level of benefits approved by the Annual Conference for the eligible participants as defined by the Annual Conference.

Report Number 6

Coverage for Conference Lay Employees

The Commission on Insurance receives from time to time requests from conference boards and agencies for insurance coverage for lay employees. Accordingly, the Commission has adopted the following policy in this connection.

Conference insurance coverage is available to all employees of the United Methodist Church directly related to the South Carolina Annual Conference and working within the boundaries of the Annual Conference, including fully employed diaconal ministers fulfilling the requirements of Paragraphs 302-315 of the 1992 Book of Discipline and recommended by the Board of Diaconal Ministry of the South Carolina Annual Conference, provided the insured and the agency concerned bear their full share of the cost of the insurance.

Coverage under the major medical insurance shall be the same as for all other persons covered, and all provisions governing eligibility for the Conference Insurance Program shall apply.

Life Insurance Coverage for eligible Conference Lay Employees shall be as follows effective January 1, 1981:

- |                                                            |                                                                              |

Coordination of Benefits

The purpose of health care insurance is to help meet actual expenses. In line with that purpose, the Conference Insurance Program contains a nonprofit provision which coordinates our plan with other plans under which an individual is covered so that the total benefits available will not exceed 100% of the allowable expensed. Under this plan, if a dependent, employed spouse is covered by another group plan, application for insurance benefits should first be made under the employee's own policy, then application may be made to the Conference Insurance Program for any additional benefits that might be due.

Strict adherence to this policy is essential if we are to maintain good benefits under our program at a reasonable cost. A detailed explanation of the "coordination" provision is contained in the plan summary.

Report Number 8

The Commission on Insurance makes the following recommendation for action by the 1994 South Carolina Annual Conference.

1. That the Council on Finance and Administration apportion to the churches the sum of $3,906,944.00 for the Conference Insurance Program to be used as follows:
  - a. $88,394.00 for administration of the program.
  - b. $3,818,048.0 for the Conference's share of the cost of the insurance program in providing coverage for eligible enrollants of the South Carolina Annual Conference.
2. That enrollant premium payments be set as follows:
  - a. Categories 1-10 of Report Number 1. shall be $75.00 monthly for single coverage and $50 monthly for dependent coverage.
  - b. Premiums for retired ministers 65 and over be fully paid by the Annual Conference except in cases where the spouse is under age 65; in which instance the premium shall be $ 50.00 monthly.

  - d. Premiums for the actuarially retired member under age 65 with dependent shall be $75.00 monthly and $50.00 monthly for dependent coverage.

4. Every participant in the Conference Insurance Program shall become familiar with the provisions of the program as outlined in the plan summary copies of which are available from the Office of Ministerial Affairs, P.O. Box 11284, Columbia, SC 29211.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE CONFERENCE JOURNAL

The Committee is pleased to report that the migration from several computer systems to one has been completed. However, the move took at least two months longer than anticipated and resulted in a delay in the delivery of the 1993 edition of the Journal.

The Journal format used in 1993 will be repeated in 1994. Reports from the Conference Council on Ministries may utilize less space than in previous years because of the district meetings scheduled for May 22, 1994. The cost of materials for the district meetings will add to the total 1994 publication costs.

The projected cost for printing the Journal in 1994 is as follows:

Preconference Journal Materials	$10,865.00
Registration Packet	2,749.50
Conference Journals	34,200.00
District Meeting (05/22/94)	2,000.00
Total projected costs:	$49,815.00

Option formatting of the statistical section of the Journal and multivolume publishing have been considered. However, due to the increased binding and mailing costs, the Committee will continue to publish the Journal in one volume with an October 1, 1994 shipping date. We will also continue to publish the booklet "Record of Remembrance" with the memorial sermon and the memoirs.

1991 and 1985 editions of United Methodist Ministers in South Carolina will be displayed and sold in the exhibit area of the Toni White Theater of the Campus Life Center at Wofford College during the 1994 session. The cost will be $5 per volume. The Committee on the Journal appreciates the cooperation of the Council on Finance and Administration in gradually reducing the deficit position of the Ministers Book account.

Samuel Poston, Secretary

THE COMMITTEE ON THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Committee on the Annual Conference, in response to the 1993 decision to decrease the length of the session, has adopted the following format for 1994:

1. Communion/Memorial Service at 7:30 p.m., Sunday, May 29, 1994.
2. Ministerial Session/Lay Orientation at 8:30 a.m., Monday May 30, 1994.
3. All Courtesies and introductions at 2 p.m., Monday May 30, 1994.
4. All business to follow the calendar with makeup time Monday evening.
5. Ordination at 7 p.m., Tuesday, May 31, 1994 with a reception for the ordinands.
6. Recognition of retiring ministers at noon on Wednesday, June 1, 1994.

It is the belief of the Committee that the District Conferences on May 22, 1994 will increase exposure of the programs coordinated by the Conference Council on Ministries to a larger audience. Therefore, less time for Conference Council on Ministries programs will be required during the session. Special emphasis on VISION 2000 will be made on Monday evening, May 30.

Bishop Bethea has set the following dates and times for the 1995 session: 10:30 a.m., Wednesday, May 31, 1995 through 4:30 p.m., Saturday, June 3, 1995. The dates were selected in the hope that more lay participation would be possible toward the end of a week. The Committee on the Annual Conference recommends that Wofford College, Spartanburg, be selected as the site of the 1995 session.

The Committee has received a suggestion that in addition to the reports of the Cabinet and the laity, a report also be received from a member nominated by the clergy of the districts. The decision on a special report from the clergy will be left to the session.

Finally, the Committee wishes to express gratitude to President Joab Lesesne, Chaplain Talmage Skinner, the staff of Wofford College and the Spartanburg District Council for their hospitality this year and in other years.

Joseph B. Bethea, Chairperson
Delos Corderman, Secretary

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS

RESOLUTION ON NONDENOMINATIONAL RELEASED TIME FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

WHEREAS, there are some 41 million children in America's public schools and,
WHEREAS, today's public school children face a myriad of moral and ethical behavioral choices because of limited, specific training in our Judeo-Christian values and traditions and,
WHEREAS, America's youth continue to face an epidemic of destructive, even deadly consequences and,
WHEREAS, with parental consent for voluntary participation, schoolchildren in every state may enroll in nearby, off-campus programs of religious and moral instruction know as "released time for religious education" and,
WHEREAS, religious released time education was deemed constitutional by the United States Supreme Court in 1952 (Zorach v. Clauson) and,
WHEREAS, United Methodists highly value religious and ethical training as witnessed by our baptismal covenant made on behalf of children and our attention to the quality of local church Christian education,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that we, members of the South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, call upon the South Carolina legislature to enact legislation specifically providing for religious released time education in South Carolina, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we call upon Boards of Education in all South Carolina school districts to recognize and accommodate those interdenominational committees wishing to implement religious released time education, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we urge individuals, churches and local interdenominational committees to begin immediately to take advantage of this resource to address the moral and ethical crisis that is wrecking the lives of escalating numbers of America's youth by destructive behavior, resulting in imprisonment, damaged health, even death, and a lifelong blight on their opportunities due to interrupted education and development into effective persons.

Resolution on the Re-Imagining Conference

WHEREAS, Article V of the Articles of Religion of the United Methodist Church states, "The Holy Scriptures contain all things necessary to salvation; so that whatsoever is not read therein, nor may be proved thereby, is not to be required of any man that it should be believed as an article of faith, or be thought to be requisite or necessary to salvation," and

WHEREAS, The worship of "Sophia" (at the Re-Imagining Conference) which exalts her as a god and Jesus as her envoy is heresy of the worst kind, not keeping with our understanding of the position of the United Methodist Church, and

WHEREAS, The Women's Division sent delegates to the "Re-Imagining Conference" as participants, providing for their expenses and granting $25,000 to the conference;

NOW BE IT RESOLVED that the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church at its Annual Conference meeting May 29 - June 1, 1994 at Wofford College expresses to the Women's Division its opposition to active participation in the "Re-Imagining Conference," and urges the Women's Division to continue efforts to reassure the many local church United Methodist Women's groups of the Division's regret for any lack of accountability for the hard-earned monies sent to the General Church.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we call upon United Methodists and their employees everywhere to monitor carefully all conferences and gatherings in which they participate or promote to be reassured, insofar as possible, that their perspective is rooted in the heritage of a positive proclamation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ as it is best understood in the Christian tradition and Wesleyan theology.

A Resolution Encouraging Support for Abortion Alternatives

WHEREAS, one year has lapsed since a resolution on abortion alternatives was referred to the Board of Church and Society by the 1993 Annual Conference and,

WHEREAS, the conference appreciates the necessity of the time consuming process required to establish new and effective ministries; and,

WHEREAS, the Conference also appreciates that there are many families for whom the availability of abortion alternatives is not an academic problem to be resolved with time but an urgent crisis to be addressed today and,

WHEREAS, we cannot, to date, identify any substantive United Methodist Church programs in this area of ministry and,

WHEREAS, other denominations within the conference have established programs which are struggling to meet the needs of these families with their own overburdened resources (most notably with programs such as Shiprah and Florence Crittendon) and,

WHEREAS, the United Methodist Church has an established commitment to ecumenical ministries,

THEREFORE, with a desire to enable actions by our church which are commensurate for the words of our resolutions and consistent with the ecumenical commitment of the United Methodist Church,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Conference Council on Ministries is encouraged to compile a registry of those providers of abortion alternative services within the conference which are supported by other denominations said list to be completed to the best of their ability by

February 28, 1995 and distributed to the local churches, and

BE IT RESOLVED, that we encourage individual United Methodists throughout the conference to support such programs with their prayers, presence, gifts, and services; and,

BE IT RESOLVED, that United Methodist Churches throughout the conference are encouraged to observe Sunday, April 2, 1995 with the receipt of a special offering to be distributed by the local church directly to a provider on the newly developed CCOM registry.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

Report 1

At this quadrennial midpoint the Conference Council on Ministries continues to work toward the realization of the vision adopted by the annual Conference in 1992: "We affirm God's call to experience new life in Christ for the creation of more vital congregations and more faithful disciples." To this end, the Council on Ministries is presenting a coordinated program for 1995 of 33 programs, 22 events, one publication, five grants, three awards, support for 20 Advance Specials, support for six Line Items, and an operating budget.

The professional staff and the support staff continue to work with dedication and commitment as they give their very best efforts to the demanding tasks required of them. Lemuel C. Carter, after three full years as CCOM Director, continues to be a never-ending source of new ideas and new challenges. James S. Arant continues to ably serve as Associate Director for Nurture Ministries, a position he has held since January 1, 1989. Valuable service is provided by the Associate Director of Outreach, Jack C. Washington, who came to the staff in June 1991. Clarence O. Pittman, Associate Director for Congregational Development since January 1, 1992, has primary responsibilities in the areas of new church formation, church re-formation and church vitalization. June B. Willson joined the professional staff as Associate Director for Youth/Age-Level Ministries on January 1, 1993. Following the December 31, 1993, retirement of Doris Chambers, Administrative Assistant to the CCOM Director, Victoria L. Shearin, former CCOM Communications Coordinator, on January 1, 1994, assumed the responsibilities of Assistant to the Director in charge of Administration and Public Relations. At the same time Tom Meares, a former employee of the Advocate, officially became the CCOM Coordinator of Communications.

Also this year, the CCOM staff, with the full support of the CCOM Chairperson and Bishop Bethea, gave considerable time to helping successfully coordinate VISION 2000, a conferencewide holistic approach to evangelism with an emphasis on local church initiatives.

A CCOM Committee on Planning and Research has been named in compliance with the 1992 Book of Discipline. It is an inclusive committee, and not all the persons serving are members of CCOM. Dr. Robert McKeown is the chairperson of the committee. Paragraph 726.5c of the Discipline specifies the following functions of such a committee:

1. To engage in planning and research on behalf of the council in the continuing ministry of the United Methodist Church within the conference.
2. To serve as an advisory group in planning and research for the annual Conference and its agencies.
3. To serve as the clearinghouse for all planning and research projects under the sponsorship of the annual conference and its agencies.
4. To relate to and cooperate with the planning and research projects of the General Council on Ministries.

The depth of commitment, enthusiasm and the tireless efforts of the chairpersons and the many United Methodists who serve on conference boards, commissions, committees and agencies are a source of great joy! Thank you, all of you, for your dedicated service to our connectional church.

Please prayerfully review the additional Council Reports: the S.C. CCOM Vision Statement, the Proposed Coordinated Ministries for 1995 and the Proposed Budget for 1995. Careful reading of Program Review's annual accountability reports of boards, commissions, committees and agencies affirms the quality and quantity of their service to the church. These reports are evaluated annually and audited for review by CCOM and CF&A.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education is proud to report that 1993 was a successful year in its effort to promote programs. The Board of Education was restructured to form the Age-Level Councils on the Conference level. These age-level councils will function under the direction of the Board of Education.

The Board of Education has taken seriously its role in Christian education standards for the Conference. In 1993, the Board of Education was trained in United Methodist curriculum materials. The board has also studied Foundations: Shaping the Ministry of Christian Education in Your Congregation. Foundations is designed to build foundations for the teaching ministry that guides the United Methodist Church into the 21st century.

Seven teacher-leader training events and three human sexuality events were held in 1993. In addition, 78 persons attended the Leaders Advance; 21 persons attended the Leader Development Center at Lake Junaluska, and 39 attended the National Focus on Children in Nashville.

The board is intentionally encouraging its members to work with the various district councils and resource personnel within each district to ascertain the needs in the area of Christian education and to design programs addressing these needs.

Earline Haywood Ulmer, Chairperson

THE BOARD OF CAMPS AND RETREATS

The theme for the 1993 camping program at Asbury Hills United Methodist Camp was "We Are Created In The Image of God." The traditional camping program for small group and family camp experiences were continued. In addition, special camps - Wee Camp, Creative Arts Camp, Waterworks Camp, Pioneer Camp, Senior-High Alive Camp, Trailblazers Work Camp and Counselor in Training Camp - were offered for the first time.

A program of having chaplains for each week of camp was put into place. These chaplains served as the pastors for the camp. Approximately 55 volunteers helped to staff the summer camp program for Asbury Hills.

The building program was completed by the United Methodist Volunteers in Mission. This building gives additional space for activities as well as meeting space for small groups. Plans are under way for the building of a "staff house" by United Methodist Volunteers in Mission.

Construction was the large agenda for Sewee Coastal Retreat Center. The new pool and bathhouse were completed. Work was begun on the dining facility and the two housing units. The "Nomads" from Ohio Conference began work on a playground area.

John Baker was hired as the Caretaker for Sewee Coastal Retreat Center. United Methodist Volunteers in Mission will be building a Manager's home on the Sewee site.

Usage at Sewee by church groups is increasing and Scout groups continue to use the Sewee site. As construction projects are completed, the Board anticipates more usage of this beautiful property.

THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

Report No. 1

Evangelism ministry is the lifeblood of the church. Providing quality programs that enhance the evangelism ministries in local churches is the goal of the Board of Evangelism. The following programs were provided by the board in 1993:

The Bishop's Day with Confirmation Classes was held at College Place United Methodist Church on April 3, 1993. A total of 216 youths and adults attended. Quality leadership was provided by Bishop Joseph B. Bethea, the Revs. Thom Jones, Bart Sistare and Tom Brittain, and Mrs. June Willson. The program has been redeveloped for 1995. The Bishop's B.A.S.H. (Becoming a Searching Heart) will bring new ideas and enthusiasm to the program.

The Bishop's Five Star Awards were presented to 28 churches at the 1993 Annual Conference. These churches have shown excellence in five areas of evangelism ministry: Sunday School growth, youth ministry, new ministries that impact growth, apportionments paid in full or a 25% increase in amount of apportionments paid and members received by profession of faith or restored.

The Denman Evangelism awards were presented to the Rev. Larry Jenkins and Mr. Frank Duesing. They were chosen from a list of 18 persons nominated.

Lay Visitation workshops were presented in nine local church and district settings. A total of 265 persons attended these workshops. This program presents five models of lay visitation: Visiting Two-by-Two, Visitation to the Unchurched, Visitation through the Sunday School, Visitation to Inactive Members and Visitation to First Time Visitors.

The School of Ministry, held October 12-15, 1993 at Springmaid Beach, in its first year was a big success, with 278 persons attending. Dr. Leonard Sweet, Dr. Bob McClain, Dr. Mariam Glover-Weatherington, Bishop Robert Spain, Dr. William McTier Jr. and the Revs. Sheila Rogers, Nathaniel Evans and Clay Smith provided outstanding leadership.

Three hundred and thirty-six persons participated in workshops provided through the Vital Congregations-Faithful Disciples program. The workshops addressed topics such as "Caring for Inactive Members," "Preview of United Methodist 'Follow Me' Confirmation Curriculum," and "Caring Evangelism."

Report No. 5

The VISION 2000 District Intensive Training Workshops are a new program of the Board of Evangelism. The workshops, done by the VISION 2000 task force, will be administered by the board in 1995 and beyond. Decentralization is a key to success. Workshops will be made available to the districts while promotion and administration will be offered by the Conference. The District Council on Ministries will choose the workshop it wishes to sponsor, the date and the place. The Conference will promote the program and if needed will administer registration and make arrangements. Workshops that will be offered include: Lay Visitation, Lay Faith Sharing, Models of Prayer Ministries, Lifestyle Relational Evangelism, Evangelism and Christian Education, Reaching People in the Post-Modern Era, Evangelism Is Not a Four Letter Word, Singles Ministry and Evangelism in the Small-Membership Church. Districts will also have the opportunity to pilot new, creative models.

THE BOARD OF LAITY

The purpose of the Board of Laity is to foster lay participation in the ministry of the church. The board encourages participation in a wide variety of mission and ministry opportunities. A strong laity means a strong United Methodist Church.

Training lay leadership through various Board of Laity programs is at the heart of our work. The Lay Speaking Program, Giving in the Local Church and the Laity Convocation offer opportunities to enhance the ministry of the laity in the local church, district and Conference.

The Laity Convocation continues to be one of the most cost-effective ministries in the church. In 1993, 1,084 persons participated including 211 youths. Our leaders, Bishop Joseph B. Bethea, Bishop Earl G. Hunt and Dr. Evelyn Laycock, provided exceptional keynote leadership in a convocation full of meaning.

The Lay Speaking Program grows in numbers and effectiveness. Effective leadership on the district level has enhanced the ministry of the Lay Speaker. An excellent leadership development program, this program moves beyond the speaking part of its name. People are trained to be effective disciples in their local church. They become better church officers, teachers and members. The Lay Speaker Instructor's School trained 57 new Lay Speaker Instructors. The event was held May 7-8, 1993 at Main Street United Methodist Church, Columbia.

On May 3, 1994 at the United Methodist Center, Columbia, the Board of Laity provided training for 40 people who were to lead Cluster Leader Training events in their districts. These orientation sessions were led in cluster areas of the districts for lay and clergy members of the 1993 Annual Conference.

Many members of the Board of Laity are participating on the Bishop's Lay Cabinet. This group meets to discuss issues that affect the ministry of the laity in South Carolina and advises the bishop on possible solutions.

Future lay leadership programs include the Five-Day Academy for Spiritual Formation and a program of lay leadership training initially called "Certification of Leaders of Laity." These programs are designed to enhance the ministry of the laity for the new millennium.

THE COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

The major emphasis of the Commission on Worship in 1993 was the introduction of The United Methodist Book of Worship to the churches of the Conference. Several persons from the South Carolina Conference were sent to the national training event in Nashville in 1992 and have been available to lead workshops within the Conference. In addition, the commission joined with the Columbia District to sponsor an event led by the Rev. Andy Langford, who edited the book.

The commission has worked in cooperation with the South Carolina chapter of the Fellowship of United Methodists in Worship, Music, and Other Arts to provide training opportunities for musicians (professional and volunteer) and other worship leaders. The annual February workshop included presentations on The United Methodist Book of Worship in addition to sessions on choral music and handbells. Other events during the year focused on youth choirs and on children's choirs.

The commission makes available several printed resources, including materials for church leader orientation and district workshops and a directory of speakers and resource persons in worship, music and other arts in South Carolina. In support of the conference emphasis on VISION 2000, resources that had been targeted for workshops on spiritual growth were redirected to support the spiritual growth component of VISION 2000.

Worship services at Annual Conference have provided an opportunity to introduce to the churches of the Conference more of the resources from The United Methodist Hymnal and The United Methodist Book of Worship. The commission has also sought to make our diversity visible in the leadership of these services. Services in 1992 included music by choirs of Korean and African-American churches. Leadership of the early-morning Communion services included diaconal ministers in addition to ordained clergy and laypersons. And in the opening memorial service, district lay leaders joined the superintendents and other clergy as Communion servers.

THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

The Board of Missions continues to focus on mission education, mission service and encouraging mission involvement and mission giving.

Our Conference continues to be active in the mission of the church through UMVIM, SIP, Salkehatchie Summer Service, Hungrief, Church Extension, Congregational Development and Revitalization, and Advance Specials. We celebrate our success but are mindful that we can do more.

We glory in the worldwide program and connectionalism, both with sister churches and ecumenically, of our denomination that seeks to minister to an imperfect world where pain, hunger, poverty, injustice and ignorance are all too common.

We continue to celebrate the fact that for more than 200 years we have helped build congregations and churches, feed the hungry and seek justice for the poor and downtrodden.

We look with shame at our own state, which has more unchurched persons now than at any other time in our history. These unchurched persons now constitute a majority of our population - 53 percent. Our shame deepens when we realize that these persons are clustered in the lower socioeconomic areas, the very areas that we have neglected except as objects of our charity for decades. We have not "preached the Good News to the poor!" In fact, this is the group that we have ignored most as we pursue the dream of increasing our declining membership in the middle and upper-middle socioeconomic areas where most persons are, largely, already at least nominally associated with some church.

We look forward with eagerness and excitement to the opportunities that the next year will bring.

We thank God for VISION 2000 and its goal of making us look at ourselves in ways that we haven't been doing. We pledge to do our very best to present our membership with the opportunity for mission in our own communities so that each believer can become a missionary in every sense of the word.

We pledge to try to change our mindset from, "I don't do this but I give generously and that's enough," to "I will support the Church of Jesus Christ in every way that I can. I will support it with my witness to the world, especially the unchurched, as well as my material resources as we try to bring the Good News to every living person on this planet, including our own neighbors." Your Board of Missions intends to demonstrate how this can be done in every church, no matter how small, within our Conference.

We will strive to rectify our sins of omission.

SPARTANBURG METHODIST COLLEGE 1993 REPORT

In 1993 Spartanburg Methodist College, operating beneath the Annual Conference Board of Missions, helped develop the lives of 2,593 individual persons through its educational ministry. Strong missional links between the college, local churches and the Conference offices helped coordinate a variety of educational programs to serve these persons. Our students, faculty, staff and trustees join me in thanking United Methodists for SMC's place in the mission of the church and for the resources that the church provides for serving students.

Spartanburg Methodist College continued in 1993 its proud heritage since 1911 of serving the disadvantaged by providing over $3.7 million of financial aid to needy persons. More than 30 percent of all students came from families with incomes below the federal poverty level. More than 95 percent of the students received some form of financial aid. In addition to the South Carolina Tuition Grants and federal aid, the college provided $1.9 million of institutional funds to students. While helping these needy students, the college also saved the taxpayers of South Carolina $3 million dollars in subsidies which would have been required for the same enrollment at a state college.

SMC has the second largest enrollment in college degree programs since the early 1980s. The enrollment in 1993 was 1,189 in college-credit curriculum, 98 in job-training programs and 1,228 in vocational workshops and summer conferences. SMC is one of the nation's largest two-year independent colleges. The Board of Trustees and the faculty have clearly established that this college will not only continue as a two-year college but will strive to be a national leader in the two-year college sector. The college's practice of maintaining the lowest fees of its peer-accredited colleges in South Carolina enables a wide variety of students to get the excellent education offered in the independent sector. As a missional institution, this institution is unique in the independent sector by maintaining a flexible schedule for college degree programs to more than 300 working adults. The high quality of the college program is shown by the success of its graduates when 82 percent transfer to a senior college or university, and 93 percent of those who transfer earn a baccalaureate degree.

The church support of the college's ministry dropped from $357,500 in 1991 to $340,696 in 1992. For two consecutive years church support has dropped. Only 68% of the $503,000 apportioned to the churches was paid, and this drop in support caused harmful cutbacks in the missional programs helping needy students. Each dollar contributed by United Methodists was spent in the following way: 40 cents for financial aid to needy students, 9 cents for campus ministry programs, 16 cents for scholarships to United Methodists, 15 cents for prison classes serving 85 inmates, and 20 cents for special learning equipment to help disadvantaged students.

In 1993, the college took a bold step in developing its mission as a teaming community based on reason, faith, work and service. The percentage of college students involved in jobs and service positions on campus increased from 37 percent in 1992 to 44 percent in 1993 with an additional 40 percent involved in work off campus; the total of 84 percent of all students unite work on a job and college study together at the same time. The college has a goal that by 1998, all full-time students will participate in a job or a community service project.

In our ministry together in missional higher education, we are challenged to build even stronger programs to help persons develop abundant lives. The college appeals to each local church to strengthen four missional links with us: 1) full payment of the SMC apportionment; 2) mission specials from local church groups to help one of the special needy groups described earlier; 3) encourage United Methodist students to study at a United Methodist college; and 4) let us know how we might in a special way serve you. The college has staff and students who will visit churches when invited. For your convenience in communications with our campus, use our toll-free telephone number, 1-800-772-7286.

THE BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

"In prophetic religion," wrote the late George Albert Coe, early 20th-century religious educator and Methodist minister, "unprecedented values are conceived and men (sic) set about to make them real." I would like to believe that United Methodists in South Carolina are still about such a task: identifying those values concerned with Christian faith and rooted in the biblical witness as that tradition is most responsibly interpreted. Such in part is the mission of the church, and the proper function of the Board of Church and Society is to assist the Conference as it attempts to translate Christian faith into effective and responsible practice.

During the 1993-94 conference year, the Board of Church and Society has originated few projects on its own initiative and notes with some interest the absence from this report of our customary list of resolutions. We have been largely preoccupied with other concerns: the completion of unfinished tasks from the 1992 Annual Conference and developing our thoughtful responses to several directives from the 1993 Conference.

What we offer here represents the responsible work of individuals and small subcommittees over an extended period of time as thoughtfully considered and sometimes modified by the larger board. In responding to your directives, we have inquired carefully, reflected thoughtfully, and offer conclusions which we believe to be consistent with the finest contemporary understanding of the faith of the church. There will likely be less than full agreement with some of our conclusions. Disagreement, responsibly expressed in a pervasive spirit of civility, is both healthy and inevitable. Dr. Coe, cited earlier, was no stranger to controversy. Let us hope, however, that out of constructive conversation will emerge a greater truth and that in all things a spirit of love will prevail.

As a board, our principal focus during this conference year has been on programs rooted in the local church. Conference boards can make suggestions and offer designs for constructive programs, but effective action, if it is to occur at all, will most likely happen at the level of the local church. Perhaps this emphasis will become more apparent as one reads the remainder of this report.

MINISTRY TO INCARCERATED PERSONS

Developed by a subcommittee within our board chaired by the Rev. Harrison Ervin and with special appreciation to the Rev. Calvin Harris who served as unofficial consultant to the group, our board presents the following report as our response to a directive of the 1992 Annual Conference:

The Church is a unique institution, ordained by God and given life through the teachings and sacrifice of Jesus Christ.

As members of the universal Church, we United Methodists seek to reconcile all persons to God through Jesus Christ. We confess that we have been negligent about ministry with certain groups of people with wounded spirits, including persons in prison. It is therefore with a sense of urgency that we make the following recommendations.

The local United Methodist churches should:

- 1) adopt mission statements, including goals of prison ministry and specifically including incarcerated juveniles;
- 2) contact chaplains at their local prisons to identify specific needs;
- 3) make intentional visits with inmates;
- 4) hold vesper services, Bible studies, and other religious services within prisons;
- 5) assist in literacy work and other education within the jails; and
- 6) network with other groups already involved in prison ministries (such as the United Methodist Women, Kairos, the Alston Wilkes Society, the Prison Fellowship, and many civic organizations).

Recognizing that no discussion of prison ministry is complete without mention of prevention, we additionally call on local churches to identify children and young adults at risk and be involved in comprehensive ministry with them. This would necessarily include frank discussion on alcoholism and other drug abuse, social attitudes, educational values and the realities of the legal system.

We propose a study during the Conference year 1994-95 to examine alternatives to incarceration.

PLAN FOR "CREATIVE MINISTRY FOR AND WITH CHILDREN"

Developed by a subcommittee chaired by the Rev. Annette Edwards and endorsed by the full board, the following represents our response to another directive of the 1992 Annual Conference. An "Educational Ministry With Children Bibliography" was included with this committee's report. Copies of this extremely helpful document can be secured through a request to the Rev. Jack C. Washington, Associate Director of the Conference Council on Ministries.

Designing plans for Creative Ministry for and with Children by rights comes under the job description of the Board of Education, but the Board of Church and Society applauds the desire of the Conference to include the concerns of Church and Society in children's ministry. After consultation with two Christian educators, Vivia Fowler and June Willson, these are our recommendations:

- 1) Make available a list of resources designed for children and covering issues such as Peace, Drugs and Alcohol, Racism, the Homeless, etc.
- 2) Request that a recognition of these issues be included at the Preview of the New Curriculum Materials for the Conference to be held at Trenholm Church on April 25. (This will happen before Conference can give its stamp of approval to this plan, and the Board recognizes with appreciation the cooperation of the Board of Education in this effort.)
- 3) Ask that the Conference Children's Council include a workshop on how children make moral decisions in the Weekend Focus on Children to be held at Columbia College either this summer or during the Spring of 1995.
- 4) Request that the Advocate run a series of articles, to be written by Harris Parker and Vivia Fowler, on "How Children Make Moral Decisions."
- 5) Provide bulletin inserts giving a condensed version of the Advocate articles for local churches who request them.
- 6) Endorse and promote the "National Observance of Children's Sabbath," October 16, 1994.

RESPONSE TO A RESOLUTION ON ABORTION ALTERNATIVES

Aproposed resolution on abortion alternatives was referred by the 1993 Annual Conference to the Board of Church and Society. The following represents our response to this resolution:

The Board of Church and Society affirms the principle of the sanctity of life without denying the autonomy of persons (notably the host mother) as decision-makers. These are important values and are consistent both with the biblical witness and the faith of our church. Though the unfolding life of a fetus represents a value not lightly to be discarded, we believe that there are indeed circumstances within which an abortion is morally defensible. Thus persons with crisis pregnancies should be responsibly apprised of alternatives to abortion in addition to the availability of abortion services.

WE PROPOSE

- 1) THAT a task force be appointed by the Bishop and the Director of the Conference Council on Ministries to study the need for support ministries in the South Carolina Annual Conference, to identify existing United Methodist and other programs in South Carolina, and to consider the feasibility of initiating new ministries if such are indicated. The supporting programs to be studied should include adoption services, promotion of abortion alternatives within the church, as well as adequacy of pastoral awareness and training on encouraging abortion alternatives.
- 2) THAT this task force report the status of any specific United Methodist programs in this Conference engaged in any phase of abortion alternatives in order to promote and strengthen those efforts.
- 3) THAT if no specific United Methodist program be found, that this task force study the feasibility of starting new ministries consistent with its stated aims.
- 4) THAT the Conference Council on Finance and Administration provide reasonable funds for the expenses of this task force from contingency funds.
- 5) THAT this task force report its findings and recommendations to the 1995 session of this Annual Conference.
- 6) THAT the design team for the Bishop's School of Ministry consider including a training program for pastoral ministry to persons involved with crisis pregnancies.
- 7) THAT a recommendation be referred to the Council on Finance and Administration that a financial aid fund be set up to assist women desiring to use the services of the seven United Methodist-related pastoral counseling services in seeking assistance with crisis pregnancies.

A PROPOSAL IN RESPONSE TO THE GAMBLING ISSUE

In response to a resolution adopted by the 1992 Annual Conference, the Board of Church and Society has developed the design of a proposed program on the gambling issue for consideration and possible implementation by individual United Methodist congregations in our Conference. A rather detailed description of this proposal is contained in a memorandum bearing the date of the most recent meeting of our Board and is included among other materials provided delegates to the 1994 Annual Conference in their preconference packet. We urge representatives from each church in the conference to read with care these materials and plan their own strategy.

It should be noted that additional materials are available and can be secured by contacting the office of the Rev. Jack C. Washington at the United Methodist Center, 4908 Colonial Drive, Columbia, SC 29203; (803) 786-9486.

RESPONSE TO A RESOLUTION ON MEDIA VIOLENCE AND EROTICISM

Originating in a subcommittee chaired by William Belvin, the following statement was adopted by the Board:

A resolution dealing with eroticism and violence in the media was presented to the 1993 Annual Conference by representatives of Trinity United Methodist Church in Clio. The Conference referred the resolution to the Board of Church and Society for further study and with instruction to report back to the 1994 Annual Conference.

We agree with the authors of the original resolution that violent and erotic themes permeate much of the entertainment media and that the manner of their presentation is too often antithetical to Christian values and ethics. While we applaud recent indications that both the major networks and the cable television industry may be moving toward appropriate self-regulation, we realize that action speaks far louder than words. We also recognize that any move toward government regulation of what may be presented in the media must be carefully balanced against First Amendment guarantees of free expression.

We believe that the foundation of any program should be what the Church is best equipped to do. Before we speak of governmental regulation of the media, economic boycotts of sponsors, letter-writing campaigns or any other activist roles, we must emphasize the teaching of fundamental Christian values, ethics and beliefs in our church schools, our religious educational curricula, and in those denominational media for which we are directly responsible. We must teach our children and youth that much of what they see and hear is not the norm and assist them to interpret these powerful messages from a Christian perspective. It is highly unlikely that we can shield our children from exposure to messages that dehumanize and devalue. Instead, we must equip them with the spiritual strength and value system to be able to reject such messages. This is where our efforts should be initially directed. From there, an agenda of social activism becomes a natural extension.

RESPONSE TO A RESOLUTION CONCERNING HOMOSEXUALITY

The Conference Board of Church and Society was charged by the 1993 South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church with the responsibility of responding to a resolution on homosexuality proposed to that body at the 1993 Annual Conference. The original resolution is quoted below:

* RESOLUTION

Submitted to the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, Spartanburg, S.C., 1993.

WHEREAS, homosexuality is morally and spiritually wrong and degrades our society and
WHEREAS, placing homosexuals within the confines of military living places undue hardship on other military personnel, and
WHEREAS, taxpayers should not financially support special military housing for homosexuals, and
WHEREAS, it is best for a child to grow up in a normal, stable family environment, and
WHEREAS, growing up with homosexual parents inflicts undue hardship on children, we condemn the practice of homosexuals adopting children.
THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we the South Carolina United Methodists at Annual Conference go on record as opposing homosexuals in the military and homosexuals adopting children.

*Since a copy of this resolution was first received in preliminary form, some freedom in punctuation was exercised in order to make the statement more readable.

Without any effort to cast doubt upon the sincerity with which this resolution was conceived or the ethical earnestness that inspired it, we simply must indicate our non-concurrence with the resolution. We do so in the light of the following considerations:

- 1) The issue of homosexuality remains clouded by considerable ambiguity. Thus, the church should speak with the gravest of caution in an area where such ambiguity prevails. Is the practice of homosexuality "incompatible with Christian teaching"? Such is the official position of the United Methodist Church, endorsed once again by the 1992 General Conference. And yet "The Committee to Study Homosexuality of the General Council on Ministries of The United Methodist Church," following a study which lasted for the larger part of four years, was sufficiently impressed by the existing ambiguity surrounding the issue to recommend deleting such phraseology from the Discipline.

Although not adopted by the General Conference, a majority of the committee recommended the inclusion of the following:

"The present state of knowledge and insight in the biblical, theological, ethical, biological, psychological and sociological fields does not provide a satisfactory basis upon which the church can responsibly maintain the condemnation of all homosexual practice" (Report 278).

While the Conference Board of Church and Society is not endeavoring to rewrite the Discipline as adopted by the General Conference, neither are we inclined to adopt a still more restrictive stance or to suggest restrictive applications where none is required by the church's official position.

- 2) Further, the General Conference expressly indicated its insistence that the rights of homosexual persons be carefully protected and proceeded to outline some such rights (See the Social Principles, 9-10), adding that homosexual persons should enjoy "equal protection before the law."

Do such rights include unprejudiced service in the armed forces? We are neither experts at the law nor competent judges of military preparedness. Such questions have recently been raised at the highest levels of government and of the military. Apparently a policy has been adopted which reasonably satisfies both the current administration and the military establishment. Whether or not this policy will persist we do not know. Questions have been raised as to whether or not it represents the highest expression of justice and fairness. It is our judgment that homosexuals should be permitted to serve in the military without prejudice.

- 3) Nor does this Board concur with the reservations embodied in this resolution with respect to homosexuals adopting children. While we strongly agree with the resolution that "it is best for a child to grow up in a normal, stable family environment," we remain unconvinced with the contention that "growing up with homosexual parents inflicts undue hardship on children." We suspect that good parenting is to be found both among heterosexual parents and among homosexual parents. As Diane L. Thompson, associate professor of Social Work at Columbia College, put the matter in a requested memorandum to the Executive Committee of the Board: "The sexual preference of the parent should not be a barrier to adoption: The factors that are most important to address are the person's abilities to effectively nurture and love the child, to assist the child in his/her development and strivings for self-sufficiency, and to cope with the special needs and problems that children who have been through 'the system' often present."

Recognizing the importance of role-modeling, we would normally prefer that children be adopted within the context of the traditional family unit. Nevertheless, we are aware that in many instances other social contexts, such as the single-parent family, have been demonstrated to provide sound and effective nurture. We suggest that carefully selected homosexual parents, too, may on occasion also provide the love and nurture requisite for effective growth and development. Therefore, we would not want arbitrarily to exclude homosexuals as parents.

Re: The Gambling Issue

Annual Conference Request

Requested through a resolution adopted by the 1992 Annual Conference to offer a program to the local churches of the Conference suggesting a response to the issue of gambling, we offer the enclosed for consideration and possible implementation. Recognizing the existence of significant differences among the several age levels within a single congregation as well as differences among the congregations themselves with respect to specific interests and concerns, we anticipate that individual churches will exercise flexibility in implementing this suggested program design.

A Variety of Possible Settings

A variety of settings occur within which this issue can effectively be confronted. The following are just some of these possible settings: Sunday school classes, worship services, meetings of official boards and/or councils on ministry, evening discussion sessions, midweek Bible study classes, special summer programs of Christian education, and meetings of United Methodist Men and United Methodist Women.

An Immediate Challenge

That gambling is a social issue is probably apparent to most United Methodists. By no means a recent development, gambling has been around for a long time indeed. Current news releases, however, indicate something of the urgency with which the issue must be confronted. In addition to widespread advocacy of video poker machines, strong forces are being mustered in South Carolina to establish a state-sponsored lottery. The claim is being made that such a lottery would significantly improve the state's economy, with income from such a lottery being used to benefit important social programs in the state and/or to provide for a decrease in tax burdens on our citizens. Claims such as this are appealing to many people. Indeed, were a statewide referendum to be held at present, the possibility exists that a majority of South Carolinians would vote approval of a state-sponsored lottery.

Might not one argue that if a majority of our citizens approve the establishment of a lottery, then democratic principles dictate that such a lottery should in fact be established? One might so argue. But if our citizens are to make informed decisions concerning gambling, they simply must have access to a full array of factual information. The dissemination of such information is an important responsibility of the several religious groups within our state. United Methodists should be in the forefront of such a movement. Opposition to gambling is not only consistent with the history of our church and with the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church, it is also indicated by our continuing concern for the material, moral and spiritual welfare of our people. Gambling, we believe, constitutes a basically unhealthy human activity. It is neither conducive to constructive personal spiritual strength and value system to be able to reject such messages. This is where our efforts should be initially directed. From there, an agenda of social activism becomes a natural extension.

An Immediate Challenge

That gambling is a social issue is probably apparent to most United Methodists. By no means a recent development, gambling has been around for a long time indeed. Current news releases, however, indicate something of the urgency with which the issue must be confronted. In addition to widespread advocacy of video poker machines, strong forces are being mustered in South Carolina to establish a state-sponsored lottery. The claim is being made that such a lottery would significantly improve the state's economy, with income from such a lottery being used to benefit important social programs in the state and/or to provide for a decrease in tax burdens on our citizens. Claims such as this are appealing to many people. Indeed, were a statewide referendum to be held at present, the possibility exists that a majority of South Carolinians would vote approval of a state-sponsored lottery.

Might not one argue that if a majority of our citizens approve the establishment of a lottery, then democratic principles dictate that such a lottery should in fact be established? One might so argue. But if our citizens are to make informed decisions concerning gambling, they simply must have access to a full array of factual information. The dissemination of such information is an important responsibility of the several religious groups within our state. United Methodists should be in the forefront of such a movement. Opposition to gambling is not only consistent with the history of our church and with the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church, it is also indicated by our continuing concern for the material, moral and spiritual welfare of our people. Gambling, we believe, constitutes a basically unhealthy human activity. It is neither conducive to constructive personal development nor to the health of society at large. It simply should not become a means by which state revenue is secured. That income from a state-sponsored lottery would provide an acceptable substitute for the normal procurement of taxes is an argument unworthy of serious consideration. Revenue is revenue whatever the source. To support important state services by money secured from gambling is simply to change the source of income – in many instances, from a relatively fair tax base to the shoulders of persons who are least financially able to provide the funds.

Please understand the urgency of the current situation. The South Carolina Christian Action Council reports that during the spring of 1994, the South Carolina General Assembly will consider a proposal "to ask the people to change our constitution to allow a state-sponsored lottery." Further, notes the Christian Action Council: "In November 1994, the people of South Carolina will be able to say if they want video poker payouts to continue in their county. The outcome of each county's vote will bind that county for four years."

A Suggested Response

What should constitute the most helpful response to this issue by a local church? Something like the following commends itself to us: 1) secure and disseminate as much information as possible about the gambling issue, 2) relate this issue to the theological insights and principles of the church, 3) encourage individuals within the local congregation to develop lifestyles which are not dependent on gambling as a source of emotional thrill and/or envisioned financial income, 4) identify the specific expressions of the issue at a given time and place, and 5) assist individuals and groups within the church to participate as responsible citizens and community members in responding to efforts to legalize gambling or to establish it as a source of revenue.

Is gambling a "sin"? If a sin is something contrary to the divine purpose, then gambling may well qualify. And some congregations may want to approach the issue from such a perspective. We tend to believe, however, that the church will exercise greater influence within the larger community by approaching the issue of gambling more as a social problem than as a sin. Christians are wisely counseled, we think, to avoid whenever possible the image of being narrow-minded folk who blindly follow church tradition at the expense of reason or the contemporary spirit. To oppose gambling, however, is to be neither narrow-minded nor socially anachronistic. It is rather to confront thoughtfully and with firm purpose practices which are regarded as inimical to human welfare. Eugene Winkler put the matter succinctly: "Gambling is to be resisted in all its forms, not just because that is a traditional, typical Wesleyan stance, but also because we believe that Christians are biblically mandated to conserve the resources and gifts granted to us by a gracious God – the chief measure of our stewardship being money itself; and to stand on the side of the poor – those who are most exploited by such gambling devices as lotteries and video poker games."

Finally, we suggest that local churches involve as many of their members as possible in discussions of the issue of gambling. Divergent opinions should be received openly and with genuine respect. Discussion of this issue should not be the occasion for antagonism and division within a local congregation. Christians should be able to disagree with one another without rancor and hurt feelings. But care must be taken to ensure that each participant has the opportunity to express his/her point of view in the context of mutual respect. A constructive confrontation of social issues must remain a high priority of the Christian church, but the church must also remember its continuing task of leading persons to a deeply meaningful and transforming faith in the goodness and mercy of God.

Steps for Implementation

We suggest the following as appropriate steps to be taken by a local church toward the implementation of a meaningful response to the gambling issue:

- 1) Select a planning team.
- 2) Choose discussion setting(s) and time(s).
- 3) Publicize the study.
- 4) Gather resources.
- 5) Invite speaker(s) if desired.
- 6) Hold the discussion session(s).
- 7) Evaluate the session(s).
- 8) Express in written form appreciation of speaker(s) if included.
- 9) Share conclusions with the larger community if desired.
- 10) Monitor the impact of such community expression if included.

A Sample Session Agenda

- 1) Welcome
- 2) Introductions
- 3) Statement of the purpose of the meeting

- 4) Gambling defined
- 5) The psychological appeal of gambling
- 6) Arguments offered in support of gambling as a source of revenue
- 7) Arguments in opposition
- 8) The United Methodist tradition: Christian faith applied
- 9) Taking a thoughtful stand on the issue
- 10) Identification of specific strategies
- 11) Wrap-up and a look ahead
- 12) Dismissal with Christian grace

Definition of gambling

Questions logically persist as to the nature of gambling. Are bingo games considered gambling? What about raffles as a means of raising money for worthy causes? Participation in a variety of "sweepstakes" offers in which the only required cost is a first-class stamp? Individual church members will differ in their answers to some of these questions. Here is one "working definition" of gambling: The term "gambling" refers to a variety of practices in which one makes a payment to some person, group, or organization, which entitles the one making the payment to a chance (or to some chances) to win a prize, monetary or other, which generally significantly exceeds in value the original payment.

The Strong Appeal of Gambling

Transactions of gambling have a great deal of appeal to many people, especially to those who have quite limited material resources. The acquisition of wealth through hard work and personal sacrifice is firmly rooted in the American dream as well as in the "Protestant Ethic." Gambling schemes, however, retain the dream of acquiring wealth, but eliminate the elements of hard work and personal sacrifice. On the contrary, one is promised the possibility of sudden wealth through the means of "luck" or "good fortune." But what is wrong with gambling – especially if it is kept within responsible limits? Is anything inherently wrong with "investing" $5, $10, $100, or even more during the course of a year in games of chance?

Individual Christians will differ in the answers they make to such questions as these. Nor would a "deontological" (duty/principle) ethical approach necessarily yield the same conclusions as a "theological" (consequences) approach. It might be effectively argued that if one carefully limits the amount of money spent on games of chance so that one's responsibility to family, church and community is not imperiled, then such practices would fall within the scope of moral acceptability. In fact, however, such rigorous discipline seems rare in actual experience. Once accustomed to the pursuit of games of chance, many people spend far more than they can responsibly afford, and some are or become so addicted to gambling that self-control disappears altogether. Individuals and families can easily become victimized by the pursuit of sudden and unearned wealth.

The Fallacy of Gambling as a Source of State Revenue

Advocates of state-sponsored gambling in the form of a lottery often argue that such funds would be earmarked for designated social programs of worth and, thus, would improve the general welfare of the state's citizens and/or provide for tax relief. We do not find such arguments convincing. In a concise and informed statement to the Constitutional Laws Subcommittee of the South Carolina House of Representatives on May 18, 1993, Dr. Wayne Bryan, executive minister of the South Carolina Christian Action Council, characterized the lottery as a "sham" and shared with this group of legislators his studied conclusion that state agencies would not in fact benefit from a proposed lottery, nor would such provide promised tax relief.

The Need for an Ecumenical Approach

United Methodists, we believe, have good reason to mount an offensive against gambling – and especially against its sponsorship by the state. But an ecumenical approach is required. While study within individual congregations is essential, religious groups should unite their efforts to defeat an anticipated advocacy of state-sponsored gambling. Lotteries and casinos have no rightful place in South Carolina. Nor should we covet the taxable income from video poker machines. Financial resources are obviously needed in order for the state to provide required services for its citizens. Such resources, however, should be procured through a fair system of taxation and not through the highly questionable means of gambling, which almost inevitably would draw most heavily from those least able to pay. It is time for informed and caring Christians to be heard.

THE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry continues to promote and support this Annual Conference's ministry in and through its senior colleges (Claflin, Columbia, Wofford) and Campus Ministry Units (full-time: Clemson, USC-Columbia, Orangeburg and Winthrop; and part-time: Charleston, Lander, Francis Marion and Furman).

The Board presents the following report on its work during 1993 and its plan for 1994.

Because the Campus Ministry Committee of the Board continues to budget each unit according to the receipts from the apportioned campus-ministry line item and because the level of giving for the last three years has been approximately 71 percent of this line item, a significant shortfall in funds has been experienced in the operation of our Wesley Foundations. Due to this shortfall campus ministries have received no increase in salary since 1992 and the amount of program money generated by this conference for each Wesley Foundation has greatly declined. For example, in 1992 the Winthrop Wesley Foundation received from the Annual Conference $12,769.00 toward local operating expenses out of a total local operating budget of $22,470.00. In 1994, the Winthrop Wesley Foundation will receive $438.00 from the S.C. Annual Conference toward local operating expenses totaling $16,837.00. Campus ministers are working to broaden their base of financial support through a variety of fund-raising strategies. If the level of support from churches does not increase, however, there will be no money given from the Annual Conference to the ministry of the Wesley Foundations apart from salary support. In spite of the critical financial situation, there is increasing student involvement in and commitment to ministry and mission that is made possible through their participation in the Wesley Foundations. Each unit has submitted a report of the many ways in which the United Methodist Church is reaching students on college campuses. Additionally, several cooperative programs are offered.

In 1993, 50 students participated in the S.C. Sea Island Mission Project through Rural Mission Inc., which assists with home repair and other needs of residents of the Sea Islands. Approximately 50 students are expected to work May 8-13, 1994, at Rural Mission. In 1993, six students attended the Student Leadership Forum at Millsaps College, Jackson, Miss. This national gathering exposes students to excellent speakers who emphasize the significance of student leadership in the United Methodist Church. The 1994 Forum will be held in Evansville, Ind. Students will also attend the Southeastern Jurisdictional Student Convocation. The Ecumenical Campus Ministry Gathering exposes United Methodist students to students from a variety of religious traditions.

The College Committee of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry continues the Youth-College Link-Up program, which maintains a registry of high school students from across the state. The committee's goal is to increase the percentage of churches who respond with names of their high school sophomores and juniors. The College Board program continues to provide United Methodist high school students with information about our United Methodist colleges. Two merit scholarships were awarded to students attending United Methodist colleges. The Student Day Offering makes these scholarships possible. The 1993 recipients of the Merit Scholarship were Ms. Jennifer Winter and Mr. Terence McClary. These scholarships are important. Additionally, the entire Senior College Fund Line-Item is vital in that it is used to provide scholarships and grant funds for students rather than to provide operating funds.

Support for Campus Ministry and senior colleges is essential if our Wesley Foundations and our colleges are to continue their mission of strengthening young men and women in their Christian witness. If our colleges and Wesley Foundations are to survive, they must expand their vital work. Each church in this annual conference can make that possible.

Patricia Griffith-Fallow

CLAFLIN COLLEGE

1993 Ministry Accomplishments: Raised enrollment from 907 (1992) to 966 (1993). Purchased four buildings to house 44 more students, adding three acres to campus. Removed two frame buildings and began renovation of two dorms. Established "Second Chance" teacher education program for mid-career adults. Added Bible and Basketball Camp for boys to girls' basketball camp and other summer activities. Presented second Granville Hicks Lectures and won selection as presenter of Staley Lectures for students in 1995. Computerized most of campus and equipped TV/video studio. Graduated 105 seniors in May 1993.

Fiscal Condition/Long-term Needs: Fiscal year 1993 ended June 30 with an increase of $32,900 in the positive fund balance, marking the 11th consecutive balanced budget. Needs include a new 200-bed dorm, addition to library, expansion of science center, completion of campus computer network, drainage system ($19K), creation of pedestrian plaza for academic campus ($50K), renovation of four dorms ($3 million - HVAC, lighting, etc.), energy audit and conservation retrofit of all buildings. New faculty positions should include professors skilled in enhancement (remediation) of religion, psychology, early childhood education, music and mass communications. Salaries should rise to compete with comparable colleges.

Dreams, Visions, Hopes for the Future: Claflin hopes for adequate office space and facilities for the departments of music and history/sociology; for landscaping to bury unsightly power lines, pave curbs and sidewalks, and install uniform fences, signs and lampposts; for a student union containing a cafeteria, infirmary and student services offices (including those for chaplains and counselors); for full funding of the Honors program to underwrite leadership seminars and enrichment activities; and for appropriate equipment for performing arts groups.

Oscar A. Rogers, Jr., President

CLAFLIN'S MISSION

The mission of Claflin College is to provide a haven of opportunity for students of potential who desire a liberal arts education with a Christian environment. Its prime purpose is to produce graduates who 1) understand themselves and their world - its historical and social forces, its religious and human values and its scientific and aesthetic accomplishments; and 2) are prepared to pursue graduate or professional studies and careers which are satisfying and simultaneously contribute positively to society.

Therefore, Claflin, a United Methodist College, proposes:

1. To provide educational opportunity for students of academic promise without regard to sex, race, religion or ethnic origin and equip them with educational experiences to make significant contributions to the development of their communities.
2. To provide students with quality educational experiences with a liberal arts and science foundation and outlook which will enable them to acquire a broad range of knowledge, understanding and appreciation of various disciplines.

COLUMBIA COLLEGE

The 1993-94 academic year has been exciting, productive and spirit-filled. This fall 1,230 women enrolled, the third highest number in the 140-year history of the college. Our retention rate, one of the best measures of academic effectiveness and student satisfaction, continues to be among the highest of any women's college in America.

The caliber of student continues to improve in terms of standardized test scores, high school grades, and leadership experiences in school, church and community. The combination of challenging academic coursework, leadership development and a strong emphasis on moral and spiritual growth creates a unique environment for Columbia College students to mature into women of substance and integrity.

The Columbia College Campaign for Leadership continues to progress significantly ahead of our goal. This $10.5 million, five-year capital campaign provides resources for the new building, programming at the Leadership Institute, endowment growth, scholarships, technological upgrades and the annual fund. After only 42 months, we have raised more than $14 million in gifts and pledges. To be 33 percent over goal in only 70 percent of the time is a powerful testimony to the relevance of ethically based leadership studies for women.

Chaplain Toni White continues to inspire students, faculty and staff with her ministry of intentional inclusiveness, deep faith and powerful desire to serve. Toni's spiritual gifts comfort and challenge all of us as we seek to grow in learning, wisdom, faith and love.

The goal of Columbia College is to be a major force for women, for leadership, for values, for spirituality and for progressive change in our state and region. The Leadership Institute, the close ties with the Annual Conference, the dedication of faculty and staff, the loyalty of alumnae and friends, and the enthusiasm of students will make our goal a dynamic and meaningful reality.

Dr. Peter T. Mitchell, President

WOFFORD COLLEGE

In 1993 the college increased the quality of the faculty and student body and made several program improvements. Enrollment for the college was maintained in a steady state with an average of 1,050 students for the year. The overall quality and geographic diversity of the student body increased. The college strengthened the faculty with six new members who comprise the strongest group of new professors who have joined the community for many years.

In addition to the outstanding personnel additions, the college was awarded two significant grants. The larger of the two was from the Howard Hughes Medical Institute for a summer program to promote the study of science among precollege students and to recruit minority students and women into the science disciplines. The second grant came from the Fund for the Improvement of Post-Secondary Education and will enable the college to launch a wellness campaign using student-based information groups.

The Campus Minister and his staff continued to widen the variety of services they offer to the college and to the local community. Holy Communion was celebrated each Tuesday in Mickel Chapel and a regular worship service held each Sunday morning in Leonard Auditorium. These programs were highlighted by special services during the school and church year, including the Festivals of Nine Carols and Lessons, Homecoming, Parents Weekend and the Lenten/Easter season. The Chaplain is available to all students, faculty and staff members, and his ministry of presence creates opportunities for counseling and encouragement.

The college's volunteer services programs are organized through a student coordinator in the Campus Minister's office. The Chaplain's staff assists 71 Bonner Scholars who volunteer for 10 hours of service each week in the local community. In conjunction with the Twin Towers Project, Bonner Scholars and other Wofford student volunteers undertook over 1,000 hours of service each week.

The college continued to operate from a healthy financial position and a balanced budget for the 1993 calendar year. Total gifts for the year were valued at $10.2 million, 50 percent of which came through bequests and estate gifts. One gift in the form of a trust created by the late Lucy Dial Habenicht added almost $700,000 to the W. Hastings McAlister Memorial Endowed Scholarship Fund. This achievement clearly signals the importance of charitable estate planning to the future of Wofford College.

The costs of educating students continue to rise, however, and cuts in federal and state grants are making it increasingly difficult for students and their parents to fund the cost of higher education. Gifts donated to the 1993 Alumni Fund helped offset the losses caused by the third consecutive decrease in the amount received from the South Carolina Conference's Senior College Fund and a drop in tuition grant awards. Unrestricted gifts to the Annual Fund are vital to the college if Wofford is to achieve its purpose and, at the same time, ensure that the college remains among the top 10 percent in collegiate quality indicators while keeping its tuition charges below the national average for private colleges.

The Wofford Community is committed to offering an outstanding educational experience in the liberal arts to qualified students of this region, regardless of economic circumstances. Doing so requires that we seek increased scholarship assistance and teaching support. It remains a college goal that no student be unable to consider Wofford for financial reasons.

THE CITADEL WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation offers a United Methodist presence on the campus, affording a source for Christian growth, support and fellowship. We try to be a link between the cadets and their local churches, as well as United Methodist churches in Charleston.

A strong ministry is our Monday evening meeting held jointly with the College of Charleston Wesley Foundation. The meetings are held on The Citadel campus and provide a variety of programs and worship, as well as Bible study. The average attendance for the 1993-94 school year has been 58. Area churches provide refreshments each week. Some of the area clergy present programs.

Eighteen students and two campus ministers attended a fall retreat. Thirteen students and two campus ministers were at the state convocation. Several students helped with a United Methodist Relief Center project one weekend. Plans are being made to take part in renovation of a North Charleston homeless shelter.

The campus minister works with other campus ministers at The Citadel under the Chaplain with counseling and ecumenical efforts. One of our tasks was to help with the freshman orientation event, The Gathering, where students and their families worship and visit with the campus ministers. We also assist with the Religious Emphasis services. The campus minister accompanied several cadets to a National Leadership Forum in Washington, D.C., in September.

The Wesley Foundation at The Citadel has touched around 100 different cadets of different denominations and traditions.

As a part-time campus minister, I thank fellow part-time campus ministers from the College of Charleston, Kay Best and Kathy James, for their support and cooperation in our joint efforts. Special gratitude is given to Asbury-St. James Church for its assistance, encouragement and graciousness in sharing their pastor with the Wesley Foundation. Thanks is also extended to the area pastors and their churches for giving of their resources and time to make the Wesley Foundation more meaningful to the students. Much hands-on help has been given this year by the Charleston District Committee on Campus Ministry, especially in preparation of the welcome packets distributed to freshmen in September. For all their help and support, we are appreciative.

James H. Williams, Campus Minister

THE COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON WESLEY FOUNDATION

The College of Charleston Wesley Foundation strives to meet the needs of and encourage the faith development of United Methodist students and their friends. The College of Charleston is served by two part-time campus ministers.

The primary fellowship group is the Monday evening meetings, which is held jointly with The Citadel Wesley Foundation. Student leadership for this group is divided equally between the two campuses. The combined gathering continues to be important to our students, providing them with a forum for discussion of faith issues as well as support and friendships. During the year we have experienced a significant increase in the number of College of Charleston students participating and providing leadership for the Wesley Foundation.

The United Methodist presence continues to be known by our participation in the College of Charleston Religious Life Council. Besides regular meetings of student representatives and the campus ministers, we have participated in activity fairs, ecumenical worship services and orientation programs. The students and campus minister attended the South Carolina United Methodist Convocation at Santee. The United Methodist representative has served as secretary to this Interfaith Council and the campus minister has served as faculty/staff advisor. One of the most significant events this group has sponsored and planned is the Baccalaureate Service of Worship held during the spring commencement weekend.

We wish to thank the South Carolina United Methodist Conference of Campus Ministry for the College of Charleston students, faculty and staff. Thanks to the Rev. Jim Williams, campus minister at The Citadel, for his significant leadership, and to the area churches, whose pastors and members support our program with speakers, refreshments and other donations.

K. Adams Best and Kathy James,
Campus Ministers

THE CLEMSON UNIVERSITY WESLEY FOUNDATION

The college experience for a young woman or man has been likened to the experience of the Israelites when they were released from captivity in Egypt and allowed to find their way through the Sinai wilderness to the Promised Land. At first they were filled with excitement and great expectations, then they discovered that the wilderness was filled with all sorts of distractions and temptations, some utterly dangerous yet no less desirable. Many of the Israelites fell victim to these temptations and never quite made it to the land of promise. So it is with our young men and women today who go off to college and find themselves in a glittering world of opportunities and temptations. Some will not survive the experience.

The Clemson University Wesley Foundation is the presence of the United Methodist Church at Clemson University. We are here to provide support, guidance and encouragement to primarily the students, but also to the faculty and staff who are an integral part of the educational mission being accomplished at Clemson. Together with our neighbors and partners in ministry, Clemson UMC, we offer persons a variety of opportunities to develop and experience the excitement and peace found in traveling life's often treacherous journey as followers of Jesus Christ, aided and strengthened by participation and membership in the United Methodist community.

Some of the regular opportunities provided are:

- Sunday School and Worship at CUMC. At the beginning of each semester CUMC provides a "Welcome Back" luncheon.
- Sunday evening meals and fellowship. We have been blessed to receive culinary support from several local UMW groups.
- Tuesday discussion group. Our friend Dr. Louis Henry continues to provide excellent leadership resulting in a consistently strong level of participation.
- Thursday breakfast. Students are invited to the church kitchen for food and fellowship.

Additional occasions for growth and support offered in the 1993-94 year included:

- strong participation in the Clemson CROP Walk, and together with CUMC raising $3,776 of the $15,400 total.
- a Fall Retreat to Asbury Hills for relaxation and renewal.
- a Tuesday evening service of reaffirmation of our baptismal covenants voluntarily attended by 17 students.
- participation in the Student Convocation at Santee State Park.
- formation of covenant discipleship groups to provide support for intentional Christian living.

We genuinely appreciate the support we receive from the members of the Clemson University Wesley Foundation Board of Directors, the Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, Clemson UMC, and all the local churches who join with us in being faithful to the pledge we make to our children at baptism.

Ron Singleton, Campus Minister

THE COLUMBIA WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Columbia Wesley Foundation in partnership with the Lutheran Campus Ministry is known as PALM (Partnership Among Lutherans and Methodists) on the campuses of the University of South Carolina and Columbia College. We seek to witness to the Good News of Jesus Christ by providing opportunities for ministry and mission to, with, and by students, staff and faculty.

The Wesley Foundation continues to offer a place of hospitality for a variety of people and groups. The community is enriched by the sharing and dialogue that goes on among the people of different denominational, racial, cultural and national backgrounds. Our campus ministry associate particularly helps in attuning us to the particular needs and perspectives of minority students.

This year we continued our Multicultural/Multiracial Action and Study Group (Arkwork), a group of African-American, Hispanic, Asian and Caucasian students who travel to various local churches around the state leading workshops on issues of cultural diversity and race relations. The group also met for lengthy study and sponsored events on the two campuses to raise awareness and create dialogue. We have also worked to set up spiritual support groups and Bible studies to meet the particular needs of African-American students.

Our students reach out regularly in service to the community through visitation programs to the Tucker Center and by working with Habitat for Humanity. We raised campus awareness of the world hunger issue by initiating an annual hunger banquet, fast day, and interfaith hunger-awareness service. These were highly effective. After taking students to a national training event, we have begun a Covenant Discipleship group on the campus of USC and Columbia College. With other Carolina chaplains, we continued to offer a monthly faculty/staff lunch. Weekly Sunday evening worship proved to be particularly enjoyable this year. We had a good variety of kinds of services: folk communion, Taizé Lenten worship, services celebrating the African-American church's gifts, and evensong. Our other regular activities also continued: Wednesday evening table communion, Bible study and dinner followed by a program, midday prayer, as well as fall mountain and spring beach retreats. We held a number of social outings: canoeing, volleyball and cookouts. We participated with other campus ministry units in programs such as the Sea Island Workcamp project and South Carolina United Methodist Student Convocation.

Thanks to local and conference board members for their hard work in providing leadership for this essential ministry. Many thanks also to all the local churches that have faithfully paid their apportionments to support campus ministry. Without full support from the whole conference, though, campus ministry's future is uncertain.

Tom Wall, Director

THE FRANCIS MARION UNIVERSITY WESLEY FOUNDATION

For the past two years, it has been my privilege to organize and supervise a chapter of the Wesley Foundation at Francis Marion University. Campus ministry has been a great adventure.

During this past year, I have encouraged the students to assume more responsibility in developing and implementing programs. Our Tuesday evening meetings, which have been attended by six to eight people each week, have been led by students, teachers and pastors. In addition to sponsoring a wide variety of local programming, our group has participated in statewide activities such as the Sea Islands Work Camp and the S.C. Student Convocation.

Although the group this year has not experienced the kind of numerical growth that I had hoped it would, the faithful members of the Wesley Foundation have certainly experienced personal and spiritual growth as a result of their association with one another. The Wesley Foundation has played a key role in helping a number of students hear and respond to the call of God upon their lives. Quite a few of the students who have participated in our group during the past two years plan to enter ordained ministry.

As my tenure as the campus minister at Francis Marion University comes to a close, I would like to thank the S.C. Annual Conference for helping to establish a chapter of the Wesley Foundation at Francis Marion University and for continuing to provide financial support for this vital ministry. I would also like to express appreciation to my congregations at Liberty Chapel and Friendship for allowing me to serve in this capacity.

William F. Heustess, Campus Minister

THE FURMAN UNIVERSITY WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation at Furman University seeks to provide a context for spiritual growth and support for United Methodist students and their friends. The Wesley Foundation strives to offer a setting in which students can share and discuss issues of faith and life. Through study service, worship and play, we encourage faithful living within the Methodist tradition.

What an exciting year this has been for the Wesley Foundation at Furman University! There is a strong sense of community and support among students as well as several UM faculty who participate in the life of the group. Early in the school year, the students hosted a dinner/forum for all United Methodist professors. Many of those bonds created between students and faculty have remained strong throughout the year. Another exciting highlight of the fall was the weekend spent on Johns Island participating in a gleaning project called "Harvest of Hope." In addition to that fall retreat, the Wesley Foundation also sponsored a spiritual life retreat in the winter at Lake Junaluska called "Soaring like Eagles."

Wednesday evening continues to be the primary gathering night for the Wesley Foundation. A fellowship meal begins at 5:45 with the program following at 6:30. There are many strong, capable and committed leaders who give direction to the group. Through outside speakers, Bible studies, fellowship events, worship experiences, service projects and more, the lives of many are being nurtured in the faith through the Wesley Foundation at Furman University.

We are grateful to the United Methodists of South Carolina for providing these and other opportunities for significant ministries within the Furman community.

Susan Leonard-Ray, Campus Minister

THE ORANGEBURG WESLEY FOUNDATION

The report of the Orangeburg Wesley Foundation is submitted enthusiastically with joy and excitement for the opportunity to share stories of exciting ministries that have taken place since last annual conference. Our story is one with significant richness, depth, love and grace. It is a story of "The Church Beyond Itself." It is a story of young, bright, intelligent, ambitious college students struggling with values and issues that affect their lives. It is also a story of students witnessing their faith through worship, prayer, study and service.

Our students continue to meet on Mondays at 5:30 p.m. for a fellowship meal and discussion of contemporary issues that affect them and our world. Persons representing diverse agencies from the community met and interacted with the group. A few topics discussed were the mentally handicapped, loneliness, male/female relationships, volunteerism and mission service projects.

Bible study opportunities were provided for students to come together and study Scripture as a way of deepening their understanding and reflection of the biblical Word. In an age of biblical illiteracy, it seems, it is imperative that opportunities are provided for students to study and learn God's word. I have discovered that our students come with a genuine need and desire to have questions answered that have troubled them. We co-sponsored, in conjunction with other Christian groups, Religious Emphasis Week at Claflin College and South Carolina State University. Our campus ministry was involved in the planning, publicity and implementation of the events. Student participation was included in ways that were both visible and concrete.

As testimony and witness of our students' faith, they sponsored an intramural basketball game and solicited donations from the business community for Religious Emphasis Week. Donations received were given to the Orangeburg, Bamberg and Calhoun Counties Aid Program for AIDS education. Additionally, students donated clothes that were given to a local agency that assists homeless people.

Our campus ministry unit participated in a Thanksgiving worship service and provided a Thanksgiving basket for the needy in the community. Additionally, Christmas worship was provided and a gift was placed under the school's Christmas tree for a needy child. Students had an opportunity to share and express gratitude to God for his many blessings.

Our campus ministry students continue to exemplify and express the Christian faith through their involvement and participation in the Summer Investment Program as well as Sea Islands work mission projects. Our participants returned with a deeper sense of mission and sensitivity to the pain, hurt and poverty that afflicts our world. Our students also attended the South Carolina United Methodist Student Convocation at Santee State Park.

Sincere gratitude is expressed to the clergy and laity of the South Carolina Annual Conference for their guidance and support of campus ministry through stewardship. It is because of your decision to embrace campus ministry that we can continue to be "The Church Beyond Itself."

Jimmy J. Montgomery, Campus Minister

THE WINTHROP WESLEY FOUNDATION

Since 1932 the United Methodists have been a visible and effective presence on the Winthrop University campus through the Wesley Foundation. The United Methodists of South Carolina provide a comfortable building that is used by students and persons from the Rock Hill community for meetings, discussions, prayer, study and relaxation.

In partnership with Presbyterians and Catholics, we provided programs on Wednesday evenings which reflect our commitment to social justice issues, spiritual nurture, and the developmental needs of young adults. Local churches from the three denominations provided a meal each week and student interest and attendance was strong. With the Presbyterians we had a Sunday vesper service which had a faithful congregation of between 15 and 25 who met for worship and a snack supper. We continued two small discussion groups which met on Monday evening and noon Tuesday, providing a time for support and sharing. Both groups enjoyed a simple meal prepared by students.

We continued to provide a place where Winthrop students and homeless school-age children could interact. The children spent two hours each weekday afternoon with our students, who helped with homework and building self-image. The number of children in the program varied between nine and 17, and we had about 40 Winthrop students each semester who volunteered as mentors/tutors. More than 35 Winthrop students spent a cold night on the lawn of the student center, simulating what the homeless experience every night. They raised over $1,100 for the Homeless Shelter and made a statement about social justice to the local community.

We had 14 persons who spent a week at the Sea Islands Work Camp at Adam's Run; nine students went to the United Methodist Student Convocation on "Human Sexuality and the Christian Faith"; we had 32 for our W/N/W retreat which included 10 children from the Tuesday's Child ministry; and four of our students went with a Witness for Peace delegation to El Salvador and Nicaragua during the semester break.

We continued to play a leading role in the York County CROP Walk, the Alyce T. Guettler Hunger Run and the Oxfam FAST, raising a total of $17,925 for various local and world hunger agencies. We sponsored a display of two panels of the AIDS Memorial Quilt in the student center and conducted a memorial worship service; brought the 100,000 Faces exhibit to St. John's UMC which "memorialized" the 100,000 lives lost in the Persian Gulf War; sponsored an appearance of the Royal Lichtenstein Circus during exams; and continued to sell crafts made by a women's cooperative in Guatemala.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE

Golden Cross continues to offer support and relief to persons across the Conference with overwhelming health needs. Over $16,000 of medical assistance was granted to people who had exhausted their resources.

In addition, allied health scholarships totaling $6,450 were granted to United Methodist students who are training for allied health occupations.

Participating through the Palmetto AIDS Life Support Services with a grant of $3,000, United Methodists are helping provide a comprehensive, confidential and educational program to HIV-infected individuals and their caregivers about coping with HIV infection and its many challenges.

Two seminars, designed to enable members of local congregations to minister to persons with HIV and their families, were held in the Marion and Hartsville districts in April 1994.

A grant of $5,000 was made to the Orangeburg Alzheimer's Community Care program, which offers adult day care for persons with Alzheimer's and a weekly support group for their caregivers.

Our Conference homes continue to expand their ministries and physical facilities as they respond to the ever growing needs of children and the elderly. We have outstanding directors and staffs in each of these homes that deserve our deepest appreciation. More detail of these is provided in their individual reports.

Through our Conference apportionments we have provided $428,932.69 to assist members at the three retirement homes with financial needs when their personal funds are exhausted.

The Mother's Day and Work Day offerings provided $455,565.16 to assist with the care and programs at Epworth Children's Home.

THE GREENWOOD METHODIST HOME

This is the 26th annual report of Greenwood Methodist Home to the South Carolina Conference. We are pleased to make this report which serves both to tell currently what we achieved in 1993 and to record a portion of the Home's history which others may research in the future.

During 1993 we served a total of 169 persons in "Haven Hall," the Home's Health Center. We admitted 71 persons to fill vacancies which resulted from death or discharge to home or other locations. We experienced 30 deaths, and the remaining 43 discharges represent 26 persons returned to their home settings (including some of our own "Heritage Hills" residents who returned to their campus homes) following a period of post-hospital rehabilitation/recuperation and 17 persons discharged to hospitals or to other locations.

"Heritage Hills," our retirement community, served a total of 163 persons. We admitted 21 new residents, transferred six residents to "Haven Hall," transferred three residents to other homes and experienced six deaths in our resident family.

We have operated our retirement community facilities at virtually 100 percent of capacity with only the "turnaround time" between discharges and admissions resulting in brief vacancies. We need that turnaround time to accomplish repairs and refurbishment. We experienced a higher-than-usual vacancy rate in "Haven Hall" near the end of the year, but at this writing our vacancies are down to two. The limitations imposed by the Medicaid program preclude our serving any additional Medicaid clients, and the increasing availability of home-delivered health care is changing the market for traditional institutional services. We are increasing our capacity for post-hospital Medicare services as well as exploring ways to offer other special services that may increase our short-term occupancy numbers.

Our fund-raising efforts in 1993 produced exceptionally good results and enabled us to meet (and exceed) the requirements of a "challenge" grant from the Self Foundation. In December we reported to the Foundation that we had met the goal of raising $300,000 to claim the Foundation's $125,000 grant. We will raise another $300,000 in 1994 to gain a second grant of $125,000. All of this activity has been conducted through "A Campaign for Greenwood Methodist Home," which has a grant of $3,070,000 to achieve four principal objectives. Our first objective is to secure a total of $1,020,000 for use in rehabilitating "Haven Hall," our oldest building. The second objective is to secure $500,000 for use in planning and making site preparations for the next residential units, including an addition to "Heritage House" that will equip us to offer Assisted Living services. A third goal is $550,000 to assist in meeting other current financial needs for which our operating budgets are not sufficient. Finally, to address the increasing requirement for providing financial assistance to those who need our services but have limited income that will not cover the cost of the care required, we have established a "Resident Assistance Fund" with a goal of $1 million. This fund will supplement the "Support Fund" gifts made by the churches of South Carolina Methodism and the income produced by a modest Endowment Fund, which now holds less than $1 million in permanent funds. With a year remaining in the Campaign timetable, we have achieved approximately 50 percent of our goal.

Although our fund-raising effort is not a Conference campaign, we are pleased that some churches have made voluntary contributions, providing both needed dollars and a helpful morale boost. Work has begun on renovation of "Haven Hall" and will continue throughout 1994. Planning is under way for the additions we need to make. The response to the "Resident Assistance Fund" has been less than we had hoped, but we will continue to encourage support for this need through various planned giving arrangements to provide opportunity for participation by persons unable to give currently but who will consider a future gift by means of a bequest. We have long recognized the fact that our colleges could not function without scholarship funds. We must now recognize that our retirement homes have the same institutional need for scholarship funds to assist those who reside in a new "campus" setting!

In June we will see valued members of our Board come to the end of their terms of service. The Revs. Michael Guffee (Immediate Past Chairperson), Patricia S. Wood (Immediate Past Treasurer) and Lemuel Carter have served ably in clergy positions. Mrs. Ethel Manning, Mr. J.R. Wright and Rudolph C. Barnes, Esq., have been faithful and effective in their stewardship as lay members of the Board. We will miss them, but we look ahead with confidence knowing the Conference will elect able replacements for each of these persons.

Let us close by thanking you for your visits, your referrals and your gifts. We are most grateful to our colleagues in ministry – the local churches of South Carolina Methodism – who undergird us through the "Support Fund," the lifeblood of our charitable services. We earnestly solicit your continued support.

THE METHODIST HOME - ORANGEBURG

One January 6, 1994, The Methodist Home celebrated her fortieth birthday with a festive birthday party attended by residents, staff, trustees and guests. During these forty years, "the Home" has had the privilege of serving more than 3,500 older adults. The waiting list is now approximately two years long.

Construction began on the beautiful three-storied James F. Walsh building that will house thirty lovely apartments; six 1-bedroom 1 bath, eighteen 2-bedroom 2 bath, and six 3-bedroom 2 1/2 bath. We expect to occupy this building in September 1994.

The Home was able to obtain from Greenwood Mills 289 additional acres of land bringing our total acreage to 673 acres with 550 acres of planted pines that are eighteen years old.

Plans are being completed for the new 176 bed nursing/Medical Center with groundbreaking to take place in June or July 1994. We expect to have this much-needed facility ready for the first patients by January 1996. There will be 134 private rooms, 22 semi-private rooms, a doctor's suite, dental suite, pharmacy, along with physical therapy, occupational therapy speech and hearing areas. One wing of the facility will be for Alzheimer's patients as well as a wing for rehabilitative patients.

Let us hope the old adage "life Begins at Forty" is really true and that The Methodist Home, Orangeburg, is just beginning with a great number of years of ministry to the older adults of South Carolina.

We continue to be grateful to all of the United Methodists and others for your continued love, prayers, and support through the years. May God bless us all!

THE METHODIST MANOR OF THE PEE DEE

How quickly The Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee has moved from being a brand-new facility, just opening its doors, to one that is striving for improvement of service. A letter from one of the first residents tells the story:

We want you to know how pleased we are with everything The Manor has offered us. We have witnessed the "shakedown cruise" The Manor went through with personnel changes, food improvement, and many other items developed in order to make us feel more at home. From what we hear, community betterment is an ongoing thing here and we are thankful for this.

The Methodist Manor was able to achieve the goal of 100 percent occupancy several months ahead of projections. By fall of 1993, all units in all levels of care were occupied and waiting lists had been started. The support of the churches in South Carolina and the community enable us to provide many services. The Methodist Homes Support Fund helps make it possible for residents in financial need to apply for assistance and to feel secure with this safety net.

Being able to service more than 125 residents and their families gives a feeling of satisfaction and stimulation. To be of greater service, The Manor is moving forward and adding 18 additional independent-living apartments and 38 additional assisted-living suites, as well as constructing a permanent ground-floor location for the infirmary – all to be ready for residents by early 1995. Plans are also taking shape for a future chapel.

The fulfillment of the dream of those dozen or so folks who met in 1983 to wish for a church-related retirement center in the Florence area has now become the answer to prayers for those who live at The Methodist Manor.

EPWORTH CHILDREN'S HOME

A cursory reading of the Scriptures reveals a select group which God directs us to care for at any cost: the widows and orphans. There is no greater ministry of the church than to serve those who are destitute and in need. Today's "orphans" are children who are the victims of dysfunctional families and are in need of someone to protect them and help them to develop their God-given potential.

We are privileged to be the vessel through which this Annual Conference can provide a broad range of services to children, youth and their families. Deeply rooted in the traditions of the church and dependent upon the United Methodists of South Carolina to sustain its life, Epworth is approaching 100 years of ministry.

During the past year, our greatest successes were in our education program. Fifty-two students made the honor roll, and test scores have improved significantly. Interest in reading has accelerated greatly. The compensatory education program was chosen by the Josten Learning Program for demonstration at its regional meeting. The program continues to receive recognition as a very special program by the Southern Association, which annually renews accreditation of the program.

A grant from BabyNet has increased our staff in the In-Home Early Intervention program with a second worker. This will help us to serve twice as many minority families who have children with early developmental problems.

Construction of the new Special Care facility is now complete and all costs are paid. The building has been occupied and we eagerly anticipate the benefits for the children in this highly specialized program.

We are grateful to Washington Street United Methodist Church for improvements to the parlor and classrooms of the Epworth Memorial United Methodist Church.

Other improvements to the campus during the year include a covered walkway connecting the swimming pool and the education building, cleaning and repairing storm drains, resurfacing the floor of the Williams Brice Activities Center, paving the parking lot surrounding the R. Herman Wright Child Care Center, and upgrading several pieces of equipment in the central kitchen.

God has blessed us greatly and South Carolina United Methodists have responded with First Sunday, Mother's Day and Work Day offerings. Epworth's finances are in good order. During the year your gifts made it possible for Epworth to provide physical, spiritual and emotional nurturing for many children in residential group care and outreach services. These offerings are vital to our operation. Without them it would be necessary to turn away many needy children. A number of fund-raising projects, including "Canoeing for Kids" and the Dave Thomas Invitational Tournament, provided additional funding. The story of Epworth continues to be presented to United Methodist churches across the Conference at every opportunity. Every United Methodist in South Carolina can be proud of the ministry that Epworth is providing to our children.

Youth groups, United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, church school classes and other groups within the churches have assisted in special projects – providing school supplies, Christmas gifts, cottage or individual sponsorships, and parties or activities. Many individuals have gone a "second mile" and more to provide opportunities for the children to experience unbudgeted "extras." We are deeply grateful for all of these.

The Epworth staff remains remarkably stable, although there continues to be opportunities for houseparent staff. The staff is trained and deeply committed to being in ministry to children.

The Conference can help Epworth to identify potential foster homes and people willing to adopt children with special needs.

We are daily confronted with children's needs that make us look for new ways to serve the children in today's world, and require us to renew our commitment to the knowledge that we are in God's will and that God sustains and directs us in every aspect of this ministry. We are especially grateful for the continuing growth in the financial undergirding of this ministry which makes what we do possible.

THE COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

The Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns is charged with the mandate to "interpret, advocate and work for the unity of the Christian Church in every aspect of the life of the conference and its churches, and to encourage dialogue and cooperation with persons of other living faiths." (1992 Discipline, ¶1739.4a).

One is not a Christian in isolation. In fact, we use the term "Body of Christ" to describe our fellowship. Christ intended togetherness, because it is a witness to Christ's mission. As in Jesus' day there were cultural, political, economical and theological divisions, so it is today as well. Because Christ worked for unity, we are called to do the same.

As we become more of a global village, there are increasing opportunities to work toward this unity. But to live ecumenically is proving to be both rewarding and controversial. A gathering of Christians from different continents demonstrates how each one uses different cultural images to define the gospel. Some see such gatherings as controversial, and advocate a "keeping to oneself in order to maintain purity" stance. Yet, such a position seems to undermine Christ's desire for oneness that the world may believe. Out of such fellowship, we can learn that God is greater than the framework of our various cultures.

In 1993, our commission was involved in three programs.

1. Ecumenical Breakfast: On June 1, 1993, we held our 13th Annual Ecumenical Breakfast during Conference. Mrs. Anne Marshall, member of the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference, member of Muscogee Nation and associate general secretary of the General Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns, spoke on the challenges facing Native Americans. We had 52 persons in attendance, a number of these representing our judicatories in South Carolina.
2. The Bishop's Ecumenical Dialogue: On March 22-23, 1993, a number of United Methodists participated in this gathering, where Lutherans, Anglicans, Roman Catholics and United Methodists gathered at St. Christopher Camp on Johns Island to hear Dr. Janice Love, a United Methodist and member of the World Council of Churches' Central Committee, speak on "Signposts on the Road to Unity: Baptism, Eucharist and Ministry." United Methodists had the largest number of participants at this conference, and we look forward to continuing our participation in this annual event.
3. Week of Prayer for Christian Unity: In the fall of 1993, we brought to the Conference's attention the annual Week of Prayer, held January 18-25, and provided information on how to order materials for this special time when we gather to help fulfill the prayer of Jesus that "all may be one," and to call churches to renew their commitment to the unity with which Christ gifted the church.

Finally, in your materials for this annual conference, you received a newspaper-like document entitled "We Are the Church Together: A Study Guide to 'Churches in Covenant' Communion of the Consultation on Church Union." The 1996 General Conference will decide whether or not to enter into a relationship of covenant communion with the nine member churches of the Consultation. This document will help local churches understand what covenant communion is, and we hope you will use it as a study guide as we approach 1996.

THE COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

The Commission on Religion and Race is aware that much groundwork needs to be laid with pastors and laity in order to enable local churches to eliminate racism. A workshop to train District Directors of Religion and Race was conducted by the commission chairperson and Ms. Elaine Jenkins, jurisdictional liaison from the General Commission on Religion and Race. The District Directors are to provide training, support and resources to enable the local church Religion and Race Chairpersons to be more effective. District Directors of Religion and Race are to maintain in the district office the conference commission's file, which contains reports and resources for interested persons to read.

The Reverend Dan Batson and his committee members from the Commission on Religion and Race, along with members from COSROW, need nominees for the Barbara Boultinghouse Memorial Bridgebuilder Award. Persons or organizations who have built bridges of understanding by promoting equity and inclusiveness for all persons without regard to race, gender, age, handicap or economic condition are eligible.

Promotion of Continuing Journey Sunday is important. Local churches are urged to celebrate our progress since merger with the following cross-racial activities: pulpit exchanges, choir exchanges, Bible study groups, church picnics and any others the local churches care to plan.

Copies of the History/Listening Project committee report are included in the district files. Linda Green, working with the Advocate staff, will summarize the results for publication in the Advocate. Sharing these personal impressions of persons interviewed should lead to initiating additional dialogue. The commission is most appreciative of the great amount of time Mrs. Carleathea Benson gave to compiling this report. The efforts of Judge Willie Robinson and commission members who conducted interviews are also appreciated.

The Minority Presence Committee, chaired by Anderson Mack Jr., is intentional in its efforts to increase minority participation among children, youth and counselors in the Conference camping activities at Asbury Hills Camp. Three regional conferences were sponsored by the committee at which Wesley Voigt was speaker and recruiter.

Minority laity or clergy who are willing to serve on boards, commissions or committees at the district or conference level should inform the Religion and Race Chairperson.

The institutions monitored by Project Equality, for evidence of inclusiveness and equity in activities, met the expectations of the Commission on Religion and Race. Efforts to improve in certain areas need the participation of clergy and laity of the South Carolina Annual Conference. Some are concerned about the amount of money we pay to use Project Equality. This is also an investment in leadership development. The inclusive monitoring teams are provided with expertise that will be available for years to come. Project Equality was hired because commission members did not feel competent enough to carry out our Discipline mandate in ¶740.3m.

Our "Sensitivity Building Workshop" is to be scheduled by districts. The purpose is to help participants recognize the effects of classism and racism, to better recognize institutional racism and to develop a plan of action.

Henrietta Jones-Carrigan, Chairperson

THE COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

The Commission on the Status and Role of Women of the South Carolina Conference is pleased that more and more local churches are valuing women's gifts for leadership in all areas of church life: programmatic, administrative and pastoral. Continued periodic monitoring of the make-up of Conference boards and agencies has contributed to the Conference's awareness of the need for the equal participation of women on all of these. And systematic efforts toward equity are in place within the Conference Nominating Committee.

Your commission's advocacy for women's access to the Superintendency has been a factor in the naming of two women to the Superintendency in South Carolina within the past year and a half.

In 1993, the Commission continued to make available to each charge worship resources for observing Women in the Pulpit Sunday the third Sunday of March. We believe there is need for still more openness in our congregations to women speaking from the pulpit. Women in the Pulpit Sunday and offerings taken on this Sunday for the Bessie Parker Memorial Scholarship Fund help foster openness, as well as provide opportunities for more women in South Carolina to prepare for the ordained ministry.

In 1993, a portion of your commission's budget went for mailing the newsletter of the General Commission to local church chairpersons and other interested persons.

Your commission awarded jointly with the Commission of Religion and Race the Barbara Boultinghouse Memorial Bridgebuilder Award, now in its fourth year, to Annette Riley of Bethlehem UMC, St. Matthews, for her efforts to build bridges of understanding in Calhoun County.

Other activities of the commission in 1993 included preparation toward further study of ordained and diaconal clergy and church secretary salaries, and the search for the most effective ways to reach large numbers of laity and clergy in order to educate and sensitize them to the urgent concern for the sin of sexual harassment. We deplore the misuse of power which is at the heart of sexual misconduct and sexual harassment.

Your commission also gave time in 1993 to planning new resources that will help local congregations and the Annual Conference affirm and rejoice over the unique abilities women bring to ministry.

THE COMMITTEE ON CAREER PLANNING AND COUNSELING

The South Carolina Conference Committee on Career Planning and Counseling is pleased to present the following report of its activities during the Conference year 1993-94 and its upcoming plans for 1994-95.

The committee is focused upon the encouragement of persons toward choosing careers in ordained ministry, diaconal ministry and other Christian vocations. One of the most important enlistment means has been the Office of Christian Vocations. This office is composed of part-time

Christian Vocational Counselors assigned within each district in the South Carolina Annual Conference. Previously only four Counselors served the entire Annual Conference. During 1993 a Counselor was designated by each District Superintendent in consultation with Bishop Bethea and the Committee on Career Planning and Counseling. These new Counselors were trained in September 1993 by the Rev. Jack Hamish, new Associate General Secretary, Board of Higher Education and Ministry.

The Vocational Counselors are available to meet with conference and district groups of clergy and laypersons, local churches and individuals who are interested in the encouragement of persons for full-time Christian service. These Counselors are available to meet and advise persons who are contemplating entrance into a field of ordained or diaconal ministry before such persons consult with the District Superintendent. Our committee continues to be very excited and supportive of the special work of the Office of Christian Vocations and its significance for ministry in this Annual Conference.

The Christian Vocational Counselors for the South Carolina Annual Conference are as follows: Mrs. Carleathea Benson, Anderson; the Rev. Jim Williams, Charleston; Mrs. Jacqueline Carter-Harris, Columbia; the Rev. Larry McCutcheon, Florence; the Rev. C.E. "Smoke" Kanipe, Greenville; the Rev. Carol Peppers Wray, Greenwood; the Rev. Roger Dodds, Hartsville; Ms. Armenia Hair, Orangeburg; the Rev. Ben Barnett, Rock Hill; the Rev. Theron Smith, Spartanburg; and the Rev. Elizabeth Burgess Drennen, Walterboro.

The Committee on Career Planning and Counseling continues to be extensively involved in the Bishop's Plan for Persons Exploring Ministry. This is an intensive and long-term program sponsored by Bishop Joseph B. Bethea, Columbia College, Spartanburg Methodist College, Claflin College, Wofford College and our committee. The plan has been supported financially by the Conference Council on Ministries budget and by grants from the National Methodist Foundation and the Youth Service Fund. We appreciate the efforts of both Columbia and Spartanburg Methodist colleges in securing these grants.

The Bishop's Plan consists of three components: Bishop's Retreat for Persons Exploring Ministry (to be held annually and rotated between the various South Carolina United Methodist colleges); Bishop's Convocation on Persons Exploring Ministry (to be held every four years); and District Workshops on Christian Vocations (to be held every four years). The Bishop's Retreat in both 1993 and 1994 is scheduled to be cosponsored by Wofford and Spartanburg Methodist colleges. About 30 persons attended in 1993. It is hoped that in 1994 at least double that number will participate. The Bishop's Conference Convocation is scheduled for November 5, 1994 at Trenholm Road United Methodist Church in Columbia with Bishops Kenneth Carder (Nashville Area) and Joseph Bethea (Columbia Area) as keynote speakers. District Workshops are taking place during the winter and spring months of 1994 coordinated by the District Christian Vocational Counselors and the District Superintendents.

"Exploration '94," a national convocation on ministry for persons ages 16-25 will be held in Richmond, Va., from November 11-13, 1994. Again our committee will provide coordination of registration and travel plans for participants from this Annual Conference. The past two national convocations have been extremely moving and invigorating events for attendees.

The Committee has in the past provided funding for ministers within the Annual Conference who are evaluating their careers with possibilities toward emphasis in new areas of ministry or exiting from full-time Christian service. At present new personnel are being engaged to provide such counseling. This counseling must be coordinated through the offices of the District Superintendents.

"Discovering Careers" is a general career/life planning experience for persons of all ages. It is adaptable in length and content to suit the needs of intended audiences. The participants also have follow-up career counseling available to them after the workshop, with some of the counseling for ministers being partially funded by this committee. The workshop can be a wonderful program for part or all of a meeting of many groups both in local churches and in Conference organizations and institutions. During February 1993 a workshop was held to train additional persons to lead Discovering Careers workshops as requests are received for these events. Another training event will be held in September 1994 for workshop leaders. The Committee is exploring the possibility of developing a curriculum and certification process for Discovering Careers workshop leaders.

The South Carolina Annual Conference Committee on Career Planning and Counseling is most excited about our efforts in career planning. We are consistently appreciative for the strong support of Bishop Joseph Bethea and his Administrative Assistant, Hazel Colcock; and the Conference Council on Ministries staff especially the Print Media Center, CCOM Director Lem Carter, and Naomi Mart and Jim Arant of the Nurture Section. All United Methodists in this state are invited to become significantly involved in these enlistment and career planning efforts, which are offered for the strengthening of Christ's work and outreach to needy persons.

David C. Surret, Chairperson

We appreciate the ministry of these Pastoral Counseling Center Directors and their staffs in the past year.

The committee is presently dealing with some important issues that will be reflected in future programs: 1) how we can expand the fee supplement program into more isolated areas of the state; and, 2) how we can offer a healing/helpful ministry to churches and pastors in crisis situations.

Pastoral Care and Counseling offers a semi-annual retreat entitled "A Time to Celebrate." The retreat is a time apart for pastors, diaconal ministers and the spouses of those married.

Finally, we have representatives from this committee to Disaster Response and Ethnic Local Church Concerns.

Steve Gillespie, Chairperson

THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The committee has been very active since its restructuring by the 1993 Annual Conference. New forms for submitting project proposals and funding requests have been adopted. The Executive Committee of Congregational Development serves as a project review subcommittee and recommends priorities for projects to the full committee. Funding requests are reviewed by a joint task force of representatives from Congregational Development and the Board of Missions and recommendations for funding are made to the Board of Missions for allocation of Congregational Development line-item funds.

There are two funding cycles each year. District Boards for Congregational Development and District Superintendents are notified of the deadlines for project proposals and for applications for funds.

The Committee has established three task forces: New Church, Re-Formation/Vitalization, and Consultation. Each member of Congregational Development serves on one of the task forces.

An orientation session for District Boards for Congregational Development, District Superintendents, Chairpersons of District Boards for Church Location and Building, and members of the Board of Missions Subcommittee on Congregational Development was held October 23, 1993 at Faith United Methodist Church, Lexington.

A significant step was taken when we entered into a contract with PERCEPT of Costa Mesa, Calif. to do a "Vista" study of South Carolina. The study will result in clear and complete representation of our Annual Conference territory and the dynamics that directly affect our ministry. This information will be used in developing a Congregational Development plan that will take us into the next century. The results will be shared with Research and Planning and other Annual Conference groups.

We are hopeful that the VISION 2000 emphasis will encourage congregations to revision their ministry, leading them to take significant steps toward being more vital churches. Congregational Development stands ready to assist such churches within the bounds of our goals for church growth.

We received the news of Dr. Clarence Pittman's retirement with mixed emotion. We are grateful to Clarence for his good leadership as our first Associate Director assigned the specific task of congregational development and wish him well. We only wish we could have had the benefit of his gifts for ministry for a longer period. He has laid a good foundation for those who come after him.

We appreciate the churches who have met their fair share of the Congregational Development line item and encourage every congregation to give this apportionment their most prayerful consideration. It is an investment in the future of individual lives and the United Methodist Church in South Carolina.

THE ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS COMMITTEE

The Ethic Local Church Concern Committee continues to seek, explore and plot new strategies for the empowerment of the Ethnic Minority Church in South Carolina. This past year ELCC established four subcommittees to assist with programmatic concerns and ministries with Ethnic groups in South Carolina. African-American, Korean-American, Native-American and Hispanic-American committees were approved by the Conference Council on Ministries at its March 1994 meeting.

The Comprehensive Plan was reviewed to ensure compliance relative to inclusiveness in the Annual Conference. ELCC will continue to review and update this plan annually.

THE UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The United Methodist Women in the South Carolina Conference have a Purpose and our purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the Church.

We are an organization that believes in providing all women opportunities to use their God-given gifts, talents and skills and to benefit from such gifts.

We are women who are beginning to understand what this whole world is all about and what the issues are that we must deal with in order to make changes. We are women who make up this vast organization that has helped to improve some of the living conditions for people around the world. Yes, we are women who are advocates for women, children and youth.

In 1993, our leaders were trained in many areas, and our women have grown in many ways. We hope to develop some new skills, new goals and new ways to implement new programs. Our organization has always emphasized reading in order to grow. Some 114 units have participated in the Reading Program with 491 participating in Plan I, 98 in Plan II, 24 in Plan III and 28 in Plan IV.

Today we live in a kind of world where it seems as if we have more challenges and demands than we really can adequately administrate. We are concerned about what is happening in our Conference, nation and other parts of the world. We must support the total church and help that church to have a vision of what mission is all about. Hopefully VISION 2000 will open the door for more young women to see that they are needed in all areas of the church.

There is a deep concern about membership in our Conference. In 1992 it was reported that membership was approximately 31,585 in 874 local units. In 1993 only 808 units out of 875 reported 29,655 members. We will continue to work on a goal of 100 percent reporting.

United Methodist Women celebrated at the 1993 Annual Meeting. We went over our pledge of $314,605. A total of $361,006.94 was remitted to Women's Division of the General Church. More women gave to undesignated giving, and we encourage you to continue. Many thousands of dollars were spent locally and given to our five mission projects.

United Methodist Women are obtaining more knowledge about mission from the Under 40 Events, Legislative Workshops, Spiritual Life Retreats, Mission Trips, Schools of Christian Mission, Annual Meetings, Officers Training Day, Assemblies and special workshops offered by the Conference, District, Regional School and Women's Division.

The Campaign for Children continues with Phase II (1994-1996) titled "Making the World Safe for Children and Youth in the 21st Century." We are calling on all districts to celebrate their accomplishments during their annual meetings in 1994 and 1995, and to expand concepts of mission by making connections between the local and global needs of children through consciousness-raising and action on issues of children around the world.

1993 was a very successful year for the South Carolina Conference United Methodist Women. I ask for your continued support as we work together to do the mission of our organization.

Dolly Fogle, President

THE UNITED METHODIST MEN

The United Methodist Men in South Carolina continue to be very active in the life of the church. A recent survey of 60 units indicates that the men are involved in 271 different projects and have contributed $32,324 to these projects. They have donated 8,892 hours in-kind to projects with an in-kind dollar value of $68,301. The total amount raised in these units is $83,464.

The campaign to charter a unit in every charge throughout the Conference continues.

At our annual United Methodist Men's Congress at Springmaid Beach, October 29-31, 1993, we had the largest attendance of men and their wives that we have ever had. There were excellent workshops and, as always, we had the opportunity to man the prayer-line ministry, receiving calls from people who are in need.

Under the leadership of our Officer's Training Coordinator, William C. Smith, we had an excellent officer training program on January 29, 1994. One hundred and fifteen men from across the Conference attended the event. Diane and Jack Bogart, professional trainers and partners in Dimension Associates Inc. of Greer and members of Covenant United Methodist Church in Greer, led the training session. They led the men through how to organize, lead and maintain a successful organization at the local, district, regional and Conference levels. This dynamic team provided much-needed broad-based practical advice to those in attendance.

The second portion of the program was led by Robert Powell, president, Southeastern Jurisdiction United Methodist Men. Mr. Powell gave an overview of the chartering process and the importance of the EMS program for the individual man in the church. Robert Powell was very effective in his workshop presentations, and the men in attendance certainly appreciated him.

Our scouting continues to grow and be effective across the Conference. The scouting program is under the capable leadership of Paul Wiliford, coordinator, and assisted by the Rev. Eugene Feagin, scouting clergy adviser. Six units received the Bishop's Award at Annual Conference in June 1993. Plans continue for Scouting to participate in a program of Religious Awards and Encampment.

At the business meeting of the Administrative Board of the United Methodist Men on January 29, 1994, we approved the design and concept of the Camps and Retreats program as a United Methodist Men's project for the men of the Conference. We are excited about this program and believe that it affords our men an opportunity to be in mission in South Carolina for the church. Work descriptions for the Conference, region, district and local church unit are in the process of being completed and will be communicated with responsible persons as they are identified across the Conference.

THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRY

Youth Ministry continues to bring excitement to the South Carolina Conference. More than 6,400 youths and adults participated in the events sponsored by the Conference Council on Youth Ministry: six Spiritual Life Retreats, Area and State Basketball Tournaments, Youth Festival, Youth Choir, Mission Possible, Youth Annual Conference, Leadership Week and the Adult Workers with Youth Training.

Elected as officers of the Conference Council on Youth Ministry for 1993-94 were: Chairperson, Pooh Brown; Vice-Chairperson, Chad Alexander; Secretary, Jenarda Robinson; Youth Service Fund Chairperson, Lisa Yebuah; Project Review Chairperson, Lee Lewis; and Communications Chairperson, Laura Gill.

The South Carolina Conference continues to be strong in the connectional system. Lisa Yebuah serves as the Southeastern Jurisdictions representative to the National Youth Ministry Organization. Pooh Brown serves as Secretary of the Jurisdictional's Youth Ministry Organization.

Youth in South Carolina raised $10,367.19 for Youth Service Fund in 1993. Thirty percent of this fund went to National Youth Service Fund for national projects. The remaining 70 percent was sent to in-state and out-of-state projects selected by youth during the Youth Annual Conference session.

Nineteen youths and adults went to Russia for the Mission Possible exchange. We experienced being on holy ground as we lived with our Russian families and they became our brothers and sisters.

Thank you to the South Carolina Conference for the opportunity you give youth and adults to be in leadership positions. The Conference Council on Youth Ministry deeply appreciates your support of youth ministry in South Carolina, across the Jurisdiction and across the nation.

June Willson, CCOM Associate Director

SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE CCOM RESEARCH AND PLANNING COMMITTEE

The Research and Planning Committee has held two very productive meetings, September 17, 1993 and May 6-7, 1994. Since one of the most important steps in research is clarification of the question to be addressed, our initial agenda has been to identify the critical research and planning needs for the Annual Conference and to initiate and support research efforts directed at those areas.

At the September meeting the committee listed a large number of issues facing the church and society, with several significant themes emerging as particularly pressing. To facilitate our work the committee divided into working groups to focus on four general areas:

- (1) Racism, racial diversity, and unity in the church and culture;
- (2) Demographic, geographic, and ethnographic portrait and projections for South Carolina;
- (3) Empowerment of lay ministry; and
- (4) Current and future funding issues.

At the November meeting we heard and discussed a powerful presentation from the working group on racism and racial diversity, and unity in the church and culture. It was clear there is a positive tension among those who may feel the need for African-Americans to be a part in order to "rediscover, reclaim and demonstrate their unique gifts," and those who may believe we must continue the journey to be one in Christ. We were also reminded that the Asian-American, Hispanic-American and Native American communities are growing in South Carolina and must be considered. Our intent is to make use of the working group report and a journal published by the Commission on Religion and Race [The Pros and Cons of Merger (Personal Insights): A History/Listening Project] to foster further examination and dialogue of where we are and where we need to be going. We will be addressing programmatic and structural issues as well as the church's response to racism in the culture, including ethnic and religious strife such as we see in Bosnia and the Middle East.

The Committee in September endorsed a decision by the Board of Missions to fund a study by PERCEPT Inc. for the Conference Committee on Congregational Development and Redevelopment. The study will provide needed background information on where the state's present population and where the United Methodist churches are now, demographically and geographically. The report will serve as a basis for recommendations concerning future development and programming needs.

The working group on funding presented the committee with a series of questions on funding issues which they have been asked to pursue, with special emphasis on stewardship, the need for apportionments to be missional, the financial impact of our structure, and looking to new ways of funding to help ministry happen.

Likewise the working group on lay empowerment is being asked to look at ways to overcome the "pew potato syndrome," reduce hierarchical structures and increase the sense of ownership and involvement of laypeople in programs, process and projects.

At the November meeting we heard reports on recent research in the area of church leadership and organization/management theory. There appears to be a convergence in understanding the need for a new perspective on how the church should organize and operate. There is a new emphasis on vision, understood as that which defines who we are and shapes our values and behavior as well as our view of the future. The new studies also emphasize process and relationships rather than rigid structures and lines of authority, and the power of information broadly disseminated. These concepts are evident in General Conference discussions of restructuring which were reported to us. They will be informing the work of the committee as we look at our needs for more effective structure, recruiting and equipping new leadership (lay and clergy), and overcoming bureaucratic delays in our response to emerging issues.

The Committee on Research and Planning is a diverse and richly talented group of people who care deeply about the church and whose faith finds expression in many ways beyond their words. As we struggle with the issues which face the United Methodist Church in South Carolina, we ask for your prayerful support and your suggestions. Please contact any member of the committee if you have concerns or issues you would like to see us address or if you have ideas about what we should be doing or how we should be going about the church's mission.

On behalf of the Committee on Research and Planning

THE COMMITTEE ON THE EPISCOPACY

The Committee on the Episcopacy has met three times since last Annual Conference.

The Rev. Mike Alexander has been serving as chairperson of the Evaluation Committee for two years. Due to the tragedies in the bishop's life the Committee decided to do an informal evaluation last year. At the bishop's request, a formal evaluation is to be completed by the Evaluation Committee. The Committee plans to give the report at the April meeting.

Bishop Bethea's life has been completely reordered since he was critically wounded last November. Although he has had to alter his schedule somewhat, he has been able to execute the role of bishop. We continue to pray for the bishop and his complete recovery as he leads our Annual Conference.

Clyde Calhoun, Chairperson

THE SOUTH CAROLINA UNITED METHODIST ADVOCATE

The S.C. United Methodist Advocate continues its efforts to be effective as the principal communication instrument of the S.C. Annual Conference. These efforts have included an intensive Conferencewide circulation campaign during March, April and May of 1993. While some increase was realized, the net result was inadequate to provide a circulation base strong enough to support the weekly publication of the Advocate.

This apathy toward the Advocate is revealed in the fact that more than 70 percent of our churches have no churchwide program to encourage subscriptions. This may mirror the change in reading habits that most newspapers and other periodicals in our country are facing today.

The trustees are also concerned that little change in the circulation base over a period of more than a decade reflects the Advocate's inability to meet the communication needs of the Annual Conference to an adequate extent.

In addition to the effort to increase subscriptions, other cost-cutting adjustments have been made in the past year. An employee who moved to another office within the Conference was not replaced. Expenditures have also been closely monitored. These efforts have created a combined reduction in expenditures of $34,000.

At the same time, however, new expenses of $12,000 and a loss of revenue of $35,000 occurred in the 1993 budget. This resulted primarily from declining earnings from the Advocate's reserve fund, the loss of revenue following the payoff by the Annual Conference of a loan made in 1982 for construction of the United Methodist Center, and the new cost of renting office space at the center. The end result was a deficit of $106,000 for 1993, which is a $2,800 increase over the 1992 deficit of $103,200.

In the trustees' ongoing effort to address the critical needs of the Advocate, the following decisions have been made:

1. Beginning in January 1995, the Advocate will become a 24-page, monthly periodical. This periodical will continue to report United Methodist news at the local church, district, Annual Conference and General Church levels. The new Advocate also will more closely focus on issues of interest to lay and clergy leadership. One such issue will be addressed each month.
2. Because of this change in format, the local church editions will be discontinued, resulting in the reduction of staff by one full-time employee as of Dec. 31, 1994.
3. Beginning in January 1995, the Advocate will discontinue providing complimentary subscriptions to all persons who are currently receiving a subscription free-of-charge.

The Advocate board believes these changes will help end deficit-spending and will make the Advocate more effective as the principle communication instrument of the Annual Conference.

Trustees also believe approval of a communications partnership plan between the Advocate and the Conference Council on Ministries also will help strengthen the Advocate, financially and editorially. The plan was developed by a joint subcommittee of the Council on Ministries and the Advocate Board of Trustees. The Council on Ministries is expected to receive and act on the proposed partnership at its December 1994 meeting. Any partnership will guarantee the continuing editorial independence of the Advocate.

It is also important to note that at its April 23, 1994 meeting, the Advocate board passed a resolution voicing its enthusiastic support of the Advocate staff in its continued work and especially for its ongoing efforts to address the financial concerns of the paper.

The Advocate Board of Trustees respectfully requests that:

1. The S.C. Annual Conference continue to endorse the Advocate as its official Conference periodical.
2. The S.C. Annual Conference restore its level of financial support for 1995 to the same level it received in 1994.
3. The S.C. Annual Conference encourage churches currently supporting the Advocate through circulation campaigns to continue to do so at least at the present level; and that those not currently supporting the Advocate begin doing so with at least 10 subscriptions per church in 1995.

Scripture: Isaiah 6:1-8 (NIV)

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a throne, high and exalted, and the train of his robe filled the temple. Above him were seraphs, each with six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they were flying. And they were calling to one another: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory." At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook and the temple was filled with smoke. "Woe to me!" I cried. "I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King, the Lord Almighty." Then one of the seraphs flew to me with a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar.

Forever in my mind and in my heart is the last time I saw Papa, my grandfather Hiram. He was sick and in the hospital and my parents had taken me and my sister there so we could see each other. My sister and I couldn't go in the hospital because we were children. But we went as close to his room from the outside as we could. I'll forever remember seeing Papa turn around on his bed to the window and wave to us. I would have given anything to be close to Papa again. How I longed to be close to him. How I hated the distance created by walls and rules. In the year my grandfather Hiram died, I remember little else other than my loss and the knowledge, even though I was a child, that my life would be changed forever.

Forever in my memory is the last time I saw my grandfather Matthew. He was at home, sick and in his bed. The adults in my life were in and out of the bedroom he shared with my grandmother. Whenever the door was opened, I quickly moved to the opening just for a glimpse of him. And when I saw him, he was lying so still, and to my knowledge unaware of what was going on around him. All I wanted to do was to go in and be close to him, but instead there was just the constant opening and closing of a door. In the year my grandfather Matthew died, I remember my loss and my life changed forever.

These are by no means the only losses of my life, but some of the earliest ones that I can remember. And with each experience of loss in my life, I have grieved and been changed, sometimes I am not sure how but I know that I have been. Sometimes when I think of it I am reminded that so many losses fill a lifetime. Each of those experiences like all the others are woven into the fabric of my life forever.

As the years have passed, experiences of loss have shaped me along with the haunting questions they bring. I don't remember the questions I had as a child, even though I am sure that there were some, only the ache of loss. With the passing of time and the budding of faith, the ache is still there. Only now it is the questions that surface are clearer and more persistent. "What am I for? What am I doing with my life?" The questions are always deep and always searching.

It is interesting to me that Isaiah, at least in his writing, equates an experience of loss with his experience of God. For it was an experience of discovery or perhaps more precisely it was an experience of disclosure, his most vivid experience of God. At a time of remembrance, he looked back to a time and a place that had become a source of joy and purpose and strength. It is like the song writer who wrote, "Take me back. Take me back, dear Lord, to the place where I first received you. Take me back. Take me back, dear Lord, where I first believed." When we move away from what we know to be our center, that which we are all about, it seems that there are times when we need to be reminded of our purpose and our motives for ministry and being reminded of them can revitalize us and help us get our footing again.

The prophet writes: "In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord." In the year that King Uzziah died, in a time of despair, we are told that Isaiah came to the temple. In the agony of his loss, "there burst before his eyes, the vision bright." In those moments when he sought healing for his grieving heart, he found healing for his soul. On one occasion in my life, I remember that I was hurting and I said to a friend, "I'm not going to go to church today, I'm hurting too badly about something." And she said to me, "Oh no, don't do that. You must go. You must go to church. You must go to worship." I am so thankful that she encouraged me to go because she said to me, "This is the very time you need to be there. Don't stay away." So I went and as I heard the songs of praise and the words of hope from the scriptures, my burdens didn't feel as heavy anymore. Of the importance of vision, Howard Thuman speaks, "Only he (and I add she) who has come to a point of Holy Focus, may be blessed with the vision of God. And without the vision of God, there can at last be no significance in living."

In the year that King Uzziah died, there arose within Isaiah an experience of love and adoration and penitence and self-offering. In the year that King Uzziah died, to the prophet Isaiah was revealed "the life of consecration for the noble privilege it is."

In these moments as we remember the loss of those who have faithfully served, may we too be open to moments of revelation or at least with some intentionally reclaim a fresh sense of the One who sends us and the beauty of being sent. For some the beauty of being sent has lost its glow, not because being sent is any less beautiful, but only because we who are sent let so much else cloud our vision. Like a silver pitcher covered with tarnish, we sometimes forget the beauty that lies beneath. Sometimes the crud of our lives becomes so thick, we forget the beauty beneath.

Isaiah lived in a time described as a time of flagrant injustice and exploitation. When I reflected on the King's death, I realized that it represented to Isaiah much more than just the death of a person. It was also the loss of a time of promise, the painful loss of community and the loss of holy purpose from which his people suffered. The nation had in fact lost its meaning and its health. Some of us had some similar feelings about the times in which we live. In a special on television dealing with children and violence, one child was asked to draw a picture of her experience as it relates to violence. She drew a picture of herself and then she drew the little diagram that represents words that she would say. In that diagram were three words, "Help! Help! Help!" For many of our children this is indeed a time of loss, especially the loss of innocence.

In times of loss, like Isaiah, we too may be so grounded to our loss that we forget that there is something else there before our eyes, in the background as it were. For Isaiah found that even in the midst of overwhelming circumstances he became aware of the knowledge of the reality of God and the reality of the sovereignty of God. It became a time for Isaiah "to cling to the rock that is higher than I." In times of loss, it became a time for him to hold on to God's unchanging hand. So if you will allow me, for a few moments let us look a little bit further at Isaiah's experience, for within it lies the beauty that God has given our lives and the beauty of being sent.

Above all, the beauty of being sent starts with and is embraced by being in touch with the glory of God. In moments that I do not choose, in times and in places and in circumstances I do not choose, I am filled with a deep sense that "Surely the presence of the Lord is in this place. I can feel his mighty power and his grace. I can hear the brush of angel's wings, I see glory on each face. Surely the presence of the Lord is in this place."

From a place deep within me comes the knowledge "The whole earth is full of thy glory." Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. On the top of the mountains, in the depth of the valleys, where still waters flow and raging rivers run, in the city or in the hamlet and the villages, "The whole earth is full of thy glory."

Life, my friends, is filled with the glory of God. We are bathed with, filled with and sustained by the glory of God. Then the beauty of being sent puts us in touch with ourselves. Perhaps sometimes we wish it weren't that way. But the prophet said, "Woe is me, for my lips are unclean and I dwell among a people of unclean lips." There comes a moment, and alas many moments, for each of us when the inward look reveals habits that eat away at our hearts and that cloud our judgments and attitudes that disclose unloving and unkind and unforgiving spirits.

But how good to remember that God provides a way for us to see ourselves as we are in His presence. Somehow being able to see ourselves in God's presence makes it alright, for I know that when I see myself in the presence of God, I see myself in the presence of One who loves me with an everlasting love. Before the altar we come to be cleansed by the love of God and to be released from the downward pull. Before the altar we come so God can touch us and stir us to life again.

And then cleansed and released and forgiven and set free, we realize that the beauty of being sent is being awakened to the opportunity and the meaning of life. "What am I for?" and "What am I doing with my life?" Surely all of life is to praise God.

The gospel writer John encourages us on an ever deepening search for meaning. Such was the case in his encounter with Nicodemus. For he came to Jesus searching for meaning and purpose in his life. In the whole matter of being lost and lack of fulfillment, the answer is to get closer to God. Jesus' words were, "You must be born again." That is what Nicodemus needed. It is what we all need if we are to satisfy the deepest hungers of our hearts.

We find our meaning in the Lord of life in which everything in heaven and on earth has its meaning. When we get in touch with that meaning everything changes. As we respond to God's love we find ourselves no longer enemies of God, but friends with God and wonder of wonders, friends with each other. As one writer put it, "From that point on, I cannot live any longer just for myself. I have got to somehow live for him who died for me. As though in some sense he lives through me, I must also live through him. If what he would have done with his life is going to be done, then I have got to do it. My debt to him is so great that the only way I can even begin to approach paying it is by living a life as brave and as beautiful as his death."

And then offered the opportunity who will go for us, like Isaiah, some of us will respond, "I'll go." Sometimes without any real consideration, sometimes fearfully. Even now we will have to confess, we want to be sent where we want to go. We become so interested in our own interests, we no longer seek God's direction or God's interest.

The beauty of being sent is found in loving, some of whom have not known what it is to be loved, forgiving, some of whom have not known the joy of being forgiven. The beauty of being sent is in being partners with God in healing those hearts that have been broken in unhealthy relationships, in war and strife, in disease and violence. As we become instruments of healing, in so doing, we find our own hearts healed. The beauty of being sent is being partners with God in setting the prisoner free. Freeing those trapped in prisons of hate and bigotry, and limited vision, and in so doing we find ourselves being freed.

The beauty of being sent is being sent by the Lord of life. We are sent by One whose love is shown to us through pouring out his life for us which makes it possible for us to receive the gift of life eternal. The beauty of being sent is that because we have faith, when this life is over, one day we shall meet our Savior face to face. And so the life of consecration we live to an end which is not our own, remembering the words of him who sent us, "I came to do the will of him who sent me."

Let me end with this. Ten days ago, several of us from this conference were involved in an outreach training event. One day of our training was spent visiting local ministries in the Miami, Florida area. Some of us traveled to north Miami, some mid-Miami, and others of us went south. I was one of those who went south. We traveled to Homestead, Florida, which was devastated by Hurricane Andrew. We visited the warehouse of the United Methodist Church's District Disaster Relief Office, where building materials are stored for use for helping residents of the area to rebuild their homes and ultimately their lives. On our last stop, we visited camps where migrant farm workers and their families lived. I must tell you that seeing the conditions under which the workers lived, physically and psychologically wrenched our hearts.

As we left the area, our host, Santiago Garcia said to us, "Without you to sustain us, to give us faith, we would not have made it. Without you we would have lost our minds. You can be proud as United Methodists of what you helped us to do here." Later one of our companions in sharing her feelings about the day said, "I'm so glad that God sent us so we could see what happened here. I'm so glad God sent us so we could bring help to those who are hurting."

As we come and share in this meal together, we are reminded that we are bound together in the love of God in Christ Jesus. As we remember that Jesus died for us, we know that when we share the bread and the cup, it is a sharing in the life of Christ. My sisters and brothers, it is not enough to remember the words. We must remember and live the meaning. We must be preachers of the Word, teachers of the truth, seekers of peace, and doers of justice.

In this year of our lives, in this very hour, we are again reminded that the beauty of being sent is rooted in the beauty of holiness. "Holy, holy, holy, Lord God almighty. All thy works shall praise thy name." In this year, when we have suffered the loss of those dear to us, may a new vision burst on our sight.

"May tears of mourning turn to tears of rejoicing,
Hours of anguish to hours of soaring,
Darkness exhausting itself in light;
Sorrow emptying itself in joy."

In this year of our lives, may we too see the Lord. Praise be to God. Amen.

GEORGE ALEXANDER BAKER August 11, 1903 – February 19, 1994

Born on August 11, 1903 in Rock Hill, South Carolina, The Reverend George Alexander Baker would go on to develop his gifts of a keen mind, a dry wit, and a passion for the Gospel of Jesus Christ. These gifts would be shared with many persons and impact many people during his ministry.

George Baker was the son of the late William Wiley and Nancy Breazelle Baker. His wife, Mary Griffin Baker (of Greenwood), has been lovingly dubbed "St. Mary" by many of the people in the churches where they have served. They have two daughters, Nancy Dagenhart (of LaGrange, Ga.) and Mary George Smith (of Columbia).

Educated at Spartanburg Junior College, Wofford College, and through the Conference Course of Study, Reverend Baker served with distinction as a Chaplain in the US Army during World War II. He faithfully and diligently served the following churches: Drayton, Bethel (Rock Hill), Cambridge (Ninety Six), Lyman, Brookland (West Columbia), Manning, Main Street (Abbeville), Whitmire, and Salem (Ballentine). He retired from active ministry in 1969. Reverend Baker was later named "Pastor Emeritus" of the Salem Church (Ballentine), an honor of which he was most proud. In his service to the S.C. Annual Conference, Reverend Baker served on the Board of Evangelism and Secretary of the Board of Ministry, just to name two.

Perhaps because of his service on the Board of Ministry, George Baker always took a keen interest in young ministers in the Conference. He was a man who read extensively and could engage one in conversation on almost any topic, but his favorite was The United Methodist Church! Upon his retirement, he kept each Pastor of Salem "on his toes" with his stimulating intellectual discussions, often loaning books to said Pastor and upon returning the book, "quizzing" him on his reading. In that regard, he was both a mentor and teacher.

Reverend Baker loved to preach more than anything else. He worked hard at it, and expected others (to whom he must listen) to do the same. A visionary ahead of his time, Reverend Baker stood at the forefront of school desegregation in the community not because it was easy, but because it was right!

Perhaps the life and mission of Reverend Baker was stated best in an essay written the morning of his death by his fifteen year old grandson, Steven Smith. It was read at George's funeral service and stated, in part:

If everyone could be like my grandfather, George Alexander Baker, there would be no wars, no crime, and no hatred. There would only be good-hearted, loving, Christian people who love to tell a joke. My grandfather had many interests. He kept a garden until he was unable to walk. He loved to read until his hands were too weak to turn the pages. He loved to tell a joke and keep up with sports, until the minute he passed away.

If I could grow into a man like my grandfather, I would have no worries, just happiness. Then, I could live with the reputation of people calling me, "the greatest man they ever met."

Reverend Baker not only used his gifts of intellect, humor, and faith well, but passed them on to succeeding generations.

CHARLES WILBUR BROCKWELL, Sr. July 26, 1910 – April 5, 1994

Wilbur Brockwell lived for God, through his Annual Conference, his churches, his marriage, and his children to the third generation. Connection, congregations, and family were his communities of the apostolic triad of faith, hope, and love.

Wilbur was born in Mobile, Alabama to Joseph Henry and Lillian Pearl Brown Brockwell (d.1976). Joe died in 1914 and Pearl married Madison Andrew Smith in 1923 (d.1963).

Wilbur's vocation to ordained pastoral ministry was certain and central. The young widow and her son Joined our Pacolet church from a sister Christian communion when he was twelve. As they stood before people and pastor he literally heard a voice saying, "I want you to preach." From that morning the Spirit was upon him as one anointed to bring good tidings. He was licensed to preach when he was nineteen, Joined the Upper South Carolina Conference at twenty-three, was admitted to full connection and ordained deacon at twenty-five, and ordained elder when he was twenty-seven. Except for two of the war years, Wilbur attended his Conference every year for the full session, 1933-1993.

Wilbur was academically trained for ministry at Emory University, Wofford College (B.A.'39), and through the Conference Course of Study.

He met and married Amelia Wideman of St. Paul Church on his first circuit. Amelia was a fourth generation Methodist. For almost fifty-two years Wilbur and Amelia were a "clergy couple original style." They received fourteen appointments embracing thirty-two churches in forty-four and a half years of traveling ministry, and supplied three more in retirement.

This is their itinerancy: Plum Branch, 1933 (married November 6, 1934); Phoenix Circuit, 1935 (b. Charles W., Jr.); Newberry Circuit, 1938 (b. Sara Lillian [Mallory]); U. S. Army Air Force, in Madison, Wisconsin and the South Pacific, 1942; Greenwood Circuit, 1945 (b. Nancy Dawsey [Shumaker]); Epting & Lewis, Newberry, 1949; Rehoboth & Edgewood, Columbia, 1951; Bethel, Greenville, 1955; Concord & Zoar, Greer, 1958; St. John, Graniteville, 1960 (b. granddaughter Lynn Brackwell); Pleasant Hill & Philadelphia, Fort Mill, 1964, (b. grandson Stephen Brockwell); Heath Springs & Hanging Rock, 1967; Zion & Zoar, Pageland, 1971; Johnsonville, 1975; Retired, 1978. Amelia died October 21, 1986.

Wilbur and R. Wright Spears baptized their great-granddaughter Michelle Brockwell Carey (b. May 5, 1991). Their great-grandson Daniel Charles Brockwell was born February 18, 1994.

Wilbur's World War II chaplaincy dramatically illustrates the pastoral motivation of all his career decisions. One day he and Charles were standing at a Newberry street corner, holding hands and watching an infantry convoy pass through town. "Some of those boys were hardly old enough to shave. If Charles had been on one of these trucks, I would have wanted the church to be with him." So Wilbur voluntarily left everything he loved to fulfill his ministry to youth in harm's way.

John Wesley said, "I am a man of one book." For Wilbur too, the Bible was the primary volume in the Wesleyan sense. He was into his sixty-fourth reading of the whole book – the whole book.

Our tradition's heroic preacher on horseback, encircled with the legend, "Methodist Circuit Rider 1933-1978" is the inscription he had out into the headstone for his place of burial. His former bishop, Edward L. Tullis, wrote, "Wilbur Brockwell was the kind of man around whom we build the Church."

Wilbur Brockwell lived for God.

EDESTER B. BROUGHTON
May 3, 1904 – February 8, 1994

Born in Colleton County, Edester B. Broughton, son of the late Oliver Broughton and Annie Risher Broughton, served as a lay pastor for 37 years prior to his retirement in 1979. For 21 years he was employed by the South Carolina Highway Department as a maintenance worker.

At an early age Reverend Broughton joined the Sykes Savannah United Methodist Church, where he served faithfully. While serving as a minister, he had the opportunity to pastor several churches over the years, the last being Brunson Chapel United Methodist Church.

United in holy matrimony on October 29, 1925 to Ruth Lee Broughton, they had two children, Virginia (deceased), and James, (17) grandchildren, (36) great-grandchildren, and (23) great-great-grandchildren.

His Homecoming Service was held on Saturday, February 12, 1994, at the Wesley United Methodist Church with the District Superintendent, the Reverend Milton L. McGuirt, leading it, assisted by the Reverend N. A. McClennon and the Reverend Clarence Brown. Special remarks were made also by Brother McKinley Williams, Brother Willie Green with a solo by Brother Jervey Fields.

Faithful to the end he entered the Master's joy, having run the race the victors crown is his.

Milton L. McGuirt

FLOYD VERNON CHANDLER, Jr.
May 29, 1924 – November 8, 1993

"For I am already being poured out like a libation, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have competed well, I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance." 2 Timothy 4:6-8 New American Bible

Racing was but one component to Floyd Chandler's life. Many times, he would share how he tried to run away from the call to the ordained ministry. During January, 1963, Floyd stopped running from the call and was licensed to preach.

Born on May 29, 1924 Floyd was the son of Floyd Vernon Sr. and Mary Emma Harter Chandler. Reared in Greenwood, South Carolina, he would learn Christian values that he sought to live by and would impart to so many others.

Having stopped running away from the call to ministry, his appointments would include: Waterloo Charge, Galloway Memorial, Bath-Clearwater, Monaghan-Poe Charge. He retired and would serve an appointment during a part of his retired years. Many memories of all appointments served, led him to write his memories to be published. He wanted to impart wisdom to those of us who have followed in the ministry.

In the later part of ministry, illness would drain his energy, participation in the life of the Church. He wanted to serve, to preach once again at Lupo in Greenwood. Like a libation, his life was drained and the Lord provided the ultimate healing on November 8, 1993.

Indeed, he had ran, was poured out and today wears the crown. This crown is the one thing Floyd would wish for all of us to wear as we accept Christ and seek to serve him in ministry.

Floyd is survived by his wife, Frances M. Chandler, sons, Floyd Vernon III, Thomas Broome, Joseph Albert. Three stepchildren and three step-grandchildren.

The Service of Death and Resurrection was conducted on November 11, 1993.

WILLIAM WALLACE CULP, JR.
January 16, 1935 – May 5, 1994

Some verses in the Gospel of John (15:14-15) and in the letter of I John (4:10-21) speak of love and friendship, two essentials in the life of a true follower of Jesus Christ. I wish to say a few words about my friendship with Wallace and my love for him, and I hope these words will speak for all of his friends who love him.

I met Wallace in the fall of 1953. It was Freshman Orientation Week at Wofford College. A number of us formed almost instant friendships, and among the most lasting were those formed by the ones among us who were preministerial students.

Wallace and I went through a lot together: Four years of college and three of seminary at Candler, Emory University. We studied Greek together, we ate together, we prayed together, we worked on projects together, we worshipped together, we preached and listened to each other, we discussed theology, and we discussed life. We shared a lot in common. Our theologies were very similar, and our views of what it meant to be a preacher-minister were much alike.

Since seminary we have shared together on many occasions our common faith and love for Jesus Christ. I think that, because of his love for Jesus, Wallace loved people, and many of us were fortunate enough to be listed among his friends. His wife Millie, said just after his death that "...his little heart just stopped," but it was his big heart which stopped, because Wallace had a big heart of love for his Lord, for his family, and for his friends, indeed, for the whole world. Wallace would resonate with the words of Charles Wesley:

O that the world might taste and see the riches of His grace!
The arms of love that compass me would all the world embrace.

I spent the last Friday night of Wallace's life with him so Millie could get a little sleep. Wallace and I walked and talked all night. In the wee hours of the morning, he said, "Thank you for loving me." Wallace, we want to thank you for loving us.

Some years ago I was asked to visit a patient in the hospital. He was a member of a Church which Wallace had served several years earlier. The patient asked me about several of his pastors, and then he asked, "Do you know Preacher Culp?" When I said that he was a good friend of mine, the patient said, "Oh, that man's got a deliverance." This statement reminds me of some of Wallace's Malapropisms – he was an expert at that – but it occurred to me that indeed Wallace had a powerful delivery (he did not know how to whisper), but that he has also been blessed now by a deliverance by the power of God. He has been delivered from the temptation of sin, from the weakness of human flesh, from the ravages of cancer, and he has been delivered to the eternal presence of his Savior.

Many of us are old enough to remember the television series, THE BRADY BUNCH. Ann Davis, who played Alice on that show said that one summer when she went to camp, her Mother wrote her a letter in which she said, "There's an Ann-shaped space around the house." I submit to you that there is a Wallace-shaped space around here, and nothing but a Wallace can fill it, but God has put a God-shaped space in each of us, and that space can only be filled by God. When we allow Him to fill that space in us, He gives us the assurance that life in Christ is eternal, and that we shall again enjoy life with our friend Wallace.

Let me quote some more words from Charles Wesley's hymn on the ministry because I believe they summarize Wallace's testimony, and the testimony of all who preach the unsearchable riches of the gospel of Jesus Christ:

Happy, if with my latest breath,
I may but gasp His name,
preach Him to all and cry in death,
"Behold, behold, the Lamb!"
AMEN!

ELLIOTT WANNAMAKER HARDIN
July 21, 1916 – April 11, 1994

I am pleased to write a word of witness to the life and ministry of Elliott Wannamaker Hardin. Three brief thoughts might well characterize his life. First and foremost, Wannie Hardin was a warm, attractive Christian gentleman with the grace of the Old South combined with the riches of grace he had come to know in Christ Jesus. His solid integrity permeated all he did. It made his pastoral ministry constructive and helpful.

Wannie and Margaret, as a team in ministry, were beloved across the South Carolina Conference where they served several strong churches. Among them, St. Johns, Graniteville; Clemson; Trinity, Spartanburg; Buford Street, Gaffney, Bethel Charleston; St. John's, Rock Hill; Washington Street, Columbia; and District Superintendent of the Orangeburg District. In retirement he served an interim pastorate at Biltmore Church Asheville, N.C. Their example charmed and enriched those to whom they ministered, and left genuine gratitude across the Carolinas as devoted servants of Jesus Christ.

My second word is about Wannie as a friend. He was never aggressive about his friendship, but was always open and available to so many of us.

My mentor, Bishop Roy Short, told me once that every bishop ought to put some of his friends in the cabinet. "You will need them," he said. I think I asked Wannie to join the South Carolina Cabinet because he was a good friend, but I found much more than that. He was a man of good judgment, one who possessed fairness along with compassion. His commitment to Christ and the church was unquestioned. His leadership in a strong bi-racial District strengthened ties in South Carolina's early merger experience.

Finally, I want to say how much I admired Wannie as a full person. He knew what abundant living was all about. Some of us get so caught up in our own careers that we have no time for anything else, much to our detriment.

Wannie was a beloved companion to Margaret, an understanding and loving father and grandfather. He found time for friends, for recreation for fun, for fellowship, and for enjoyable competitiveness in golf. Wannie was a full man – full of faith in God, full of devotion to ministry, full of love for family, and full of the joy of living.

Wannamaker Hardin born July 21, 1916, was a native of Chester, S.C., the son of the late Paul and Harriett Wannamaker Hardin. He was educated at Wofford College and Duke Divinity School. Wofford awarded him the honorary D.D. in 1970. He served in the South Carolina Conference for 42 years, retiring in 1982. Surviving are his wife, Margaret Ormond Hardin of Lake Junaluska, N.C.; two sons, Ormond Hardin of Halifax, Nova Scotia and E.W. Hardin Jr. of Charlotte, N.C.; two daughters, Margaret Flagler of Bel Air, Maryland, and Harriett Peterson of Clinton, S.C.; one brother, Bishop Paul Hardin of Asheville, N.C., one sister, Isabel Hemphill of Chester, S.C., and seven grandchildren.

Wannamaker died at his home in Lake Junaluska, N.C. on Monday, April 11. His funeral service was conducted at First United Methodist Church in Waynesville, N.C. by his pastor, The Rev. Robert Blackburn and Bishop Edward L. Tullis. Entombment was in Garrett-Hillcrest Mausoleum.

Thanks be to God that so many of us found guidance, encouragement and love in the life and ministry of Wannie Hardin.

Bishop Edward L. Tullis

NATHAN WILSON JONES
October 26, 1912 – May 20, 1994

Born in Smoaks, South Carolina, son of the late Reverend Benjamin J. Jones and Hattie Black Jones, Nathan W. Jones was an educator, a pastor and a church builder. He received an A.B. degree from Claflin College in 1938 and a M.Ed. from South Carolina State College in 1956. He did further studies at Clemson, Pepperdine, Savannah State and completed the South Carolina Conference Course of Study at Claflin and Gammon Colleges.

On November 1, 1937, he married Francis Marian Harrison and they had a daughter, Faye Andrea Jones Bennett. He joined the South Carolina Methodist Conference in 1941 and served 42 years, retiring in 1983. He served pastorates in the Georgetown, Ridgeville, Walterboro, Ruffin, Springtown and Jericho Parishes. He served on District and Conference Boards, as District Secretary, Conference Statistician, Commission on Finance, Ecumenical Affairs, and on the Nominations Committee.

He believed in 100 per cent of everything and nothing less than the best. His motto was "It can be done." His name is engraved in four different church cornerstones where four beautiful churches stand as a monument to him.

He served as elementary school principal many years in Colleton County. At an early age he accepted Christ as his personal Savior and joined the Hickory Hill United Methodist Church and was faithful to his departing moment.

The Homecoming service on May 26, 1994 was led by his District Superintendent, Reverend Milton L. McGuirt with Reverend Wendell Sumter, Reverend Nathan McClennon, and Reverend Warren Jenkins also participating.

So long as his health allowed, he pastored churches even after retirement. He would always say "God called me to preach. That's what I do."

"For all the saints, who from their labors rest,
Who thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy name, O Jesus, be forever blessed.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

"O blessed communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in thee, for all are thine.
Alleluia! Alleluia!"

CHARLES KIRKLEY
November 14, 1923 – November 17, 1993

Charles Kirkley served with distinction and dedication in the Pee Dee he loved and to which he retired. Each charge he served received his energetic commitment and concentrated interest. A successful businessman before entering the ministry, he discovered very early the sacrifices he would have to make as a Methodist minister. His call to ministry was clear, and his perseverance became one of his most effective characteristics in a strong pastoral ministry.

Wherever Charles served, people loved him and his wife Sue whose special gifts she gave generously to those congregations they served. They were a strong team.

Charles was a man of honor and integrity. You always knew what he believed. His theology on social issues was clear, and he was specific about what he understood to be the church's involvement in the world.

He was a mentor for many young ministers, and his attitude toward each was positive, supportive and encouraging.

His generosity was expressed in a variety of ways in local churches and with friends.

In retirement he returned to the church from which he came, Twitty UMC, Hartsville. There he and Sue expressed their love and good will for pastors and people. Their strong Christian faith provided inspiration and example for this congregation.

Many persons from churches Charles had served journeyed to Hartsville to visit and to express their strong bonds of Christian friendship. They remembered his faithful ministry.

Charles' funeral service was conducted by Bishop Joseph Bethea, Rev. Needham Williamson, Ralph Bowling, III, and Rev. James O. Gilliam, Jr. at Wesley UMC, Hartsville. The celebration of his life and of the Christian hope of eternal life sent those present forth with the assurance "Because I live, you shall live also."

Thanks be to God for his grace at work in the life of his servant, Charles Kirkley.

HARVEY McCONNELL MONTGOMERY
July 27, 1913 – October 25, 1993

Harvey McConnell Montgomery, son of James Hugh and Annie Mae Hood Montgomery, was born in Chester, South Carolina on July 27, 1913. On June 3, 1944 he married Ruth Altman. They adopted two children, Carolyn Jane and James Harvey Montgomery.

Harvey graduated from Columbia High School in 1931. He won a four-year state scholarship to the Citadel and graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1935. He taught school one year at Bishopville and one year at Carlisle Military Academy. He entered Candler School of Theology in 1937 and graduated. He joined the South Carolina Conference in 1937 and was ordained an elder in 1942. His appointments were Immo, 1941; Summerfield Circuit, 1942; Mullins Ct., 1943-44; Pageland 1945-1948; Prosperity 1949; Hickory Grove, 1950-1951; Gordon Memorial, Winnsboro, 1952-1955; and Bethune, 1956-57.

When his wife Ruth died in Winnsboro with polio, he found it difficult to care for the children and continue in the ministry. He was granted a leave of absence and, using his major in chemistry, he received employment in environmental protection agencies. He retired from the Environment Agency in Chicago and moved to Greenville, S.C.

His daughter, Jane Montgomery Carlin, arranged for him to move to Chapel Hill where she took care of his business and arranged for him to enter a retirement home. He died suddenly on October 28, 1993.

Reverend Bundy Bynum arranged for him to be buried next to his wife in the First Methodist Cemetery. Rev. Bynum and Rev. Robert Hopper, pastor of Gordon Memorial Church, conducted graveside services. He was survived by his brother, Dan Hugh Montgomery, and two children, Jane Montgomery Carlin of Chapel Hill and James Harvey Montgomery of Joliet, Illinois. Mrs. Paul Brown of Garden Memorial Church helped with the arrangements for the funeral and the ladies of the church provided a meal for the family.

Harvey faced many challenges and suffered many difficulties and disappointments. He was very courageous and found peace in his family and friends.

JOHN RUBBEN NORWOOD
November 19 1898 – October 3, 1993

John Rubben Norwood, the son of Derry James and Lydia Norwood; joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at an early age. Following graduation from High School he began the Course of Study. On October 17, 1918, he married Benzene McCurry of Darlington, S.C. Twelve children were born to this union: Juanita, Geneva, Gertrude, John, Charles, Lonzena, James Douglas, Mildred, Nathaniel, Brenda, Carol and Kevin.

Rev. Norwood was licensed to preach by the Hartsville District. He was admitted on trial in 1924 and ordained a Deacon by Bishop Ernest Richardson on December 12, 1926. He was ordained an Elder and admitted into full connection by Bishop F.F. King on December 1, 1935.

While Rev. Norwood was in studies, he served as a pastor at the Hartsville Mission. Following admission, he was pastor at Hemingway, St. John, St. Luke, Longtown, Pacolet, Pageland, St. James, Pickens, Camden Circuit, Ruffin, Walterboro, Pineville-Bowman, Orangeburg Circuit, and North Sumter. In June 1973, John Rubben Norwood officially retired. However, in retirement in Camden, he continued to supply when needed and substitute for active pastors.

It is amazing how well John and Benzene Norwood could care for a large family, serve several churches and continue in studies while itinerating. The possibilities for those who love the Lord are endless, and they loved the Lord.

The Rev. Needham Williamson and Rufus Snowden officiated at the service of Death and Resurrection held for John Rubben Norwood on Saturday, October 9, 1993 at Trinity United Methodist Church in Camden, S.C. Interment was in the Emmanuel United Methodist Church Cemetery near Camden.

ROY LEONARD OWENS

Five days before Christmas 1993, we gathered at Grace United Methodist, Union, S.C. to witness together to the solemn message of the birth, life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, in whom we live and die and are born again into eternal life. The service was conducted by the Rev. Manley Campbell and The Rev. Carl D. Clary. We celebrated the life of Roy Leonard Owens, who died on December 17, 1993. Roy was a faithful servant of our blessed Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. He proclaimed unashamedly during the long years of his ministry that nothing in life or in death would be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Therefore, in the truest sense of the word Roy was home for Christmas. We celebrated, even in that hour his greatest victory – victory over death. For Roy knew every day is Christmas; everyday is Easter! All of this is possible for Roy because of his personal faith in our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, whose birth is our new beginning, whose cross is our emancipation and forgiveness, whose death is our eternal life, and whose resurrection is our eternal hope.

Roy Owens was a faithful husband to dear Rachel, a loving father to Roy, Jr., Philip, and Grace, a caring brother to Jack and to Grace Kincidis, a loyal friend to many (as indicated by the attendance at the service) and a faithful minister of Word and Sacrament to those who were richly blessed by his prophetic and pastoral ministry. Among these were a host of young people throughout South Carolina whose lives were positively and permanently changed through Roy's ministry in Christian camping and youth convocations. The South Carolina United Methodist Conference – and especially churches in Union, Columbia, Greenville, Woodruff, Holly Hill, Fort Mill, Beaufort, Charleston, Latta and Fort Mill – were enriched by his personal touch. In our Conference he served as Chairperson of the Town and Country Commission, the Vice-Chairperson of the Conference Board of Missions, and the Chairperson of the Board of Church Extension. For 43 years Roy served with integrity and honor. Because of his faithfulness I am confident that Roy has heard the commendation of our Lord: "Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few things; I will make you to become faithful over many things. Enter in the joy of the Lord."

Roy Owens was a dear friend of mine whom I came to know as a fellow student at Wofford College. In fact we worked together in the dining hall as we were both making our way through school. He worked hard to fulfill his call to become a well trained minister – going to seminary at Emory University. Our friendship has been long standing and continually strengthened over the years as we shared together as fellow pilgrims in mission and ministry. I saw Roy's life epitomized in the words:

"To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfill;
And may it all my powers engage
To do my Master's will."

When I learned of Roy's death, I felt the pain of losing a brother – a true brother in the faith. but in my despair, I recalled the words of Commendation in the Service of Death and Resurrection and I prayed them like this:

"O God, all that you have given us is yours.
As first you gave Roy to us, so now we give Roy back to you.
As you did not lose him in giving him to us, we do not lose him in returning him to you.
Receive Roy into the arms of your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints of light."

In the truest sense of this commendation of Roy Leonard Owens – an especially now in the light of his "ultimate healing," we not only can pray but we can join in chorus with the angelic host in singing our own distinctively Methodist carol of Charles Wesley:

"Hail the heaven born Prince of Peace!
Hail the Sun of Righteousness
Light and life to all He brings,
Ris'n with healing in His wings."

Interment in Grace United Methodist Church Cemetery followed the service.

March 14, 1920 – January 16, 1994

The Reverend Robert Clifton Page was born in Horry County, South Carolina, on March 14, 1920. He was the son of the late Eddie Walker and Lillie Sarvis Page. He grew up in Aynor and attended Aynor Elementary School and Aynor High School, where he graduated in 1937. After graduation, he attended Brevard College and the University of South Carolina, and then in 1941, he joined the United States Army. Mr. Page served his country during World War II, was wounded and captured in Africa, and was a prisoner of war for two-and-a-half years. On April 13, 1945, he was released from a German prison camp and returned to the states. Mr. Page received the Purple Heart for the valor he displayed in battle.

Following his Army tour of duty, Mr. Page was elected mayor of the Town of Aynor. Then he was elected to the South Carolina House of Representatives and served as a legislator for several years. On June 8, 1947, he married Margie Elizabeth Jones, and over the next several years, Mr. Page and his wife became the parents of two children, John Robert and Sylvia.

In the early 1950's, Mr. Page began working for the United States Postal Service. He was a mail carrier until his retirement in 1980. Around 1956, Mr. Page answered God's call into the ministry, and for more than thirty years, he served as a Methodist minister. His appointments included the following churches: Belin, Murrells Inlet; Socastee; Centenary, Conway; Salem; Tranquil and Center, Marion County; Central, Brittons Neck; Centenary, Marion County; Poplar, Conway; and Pisgah, Aynor. Mr. Page retired from the United Methodist ministry in 1990.

In I Thessalonians 1:3, Paul said to the Christians in Thessalonica: "We continually remember before our God and Father your work produced by faith, your labor prompted by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ." The Thessalonian believers' lives were characterized by faith, love, and hope—and so was the life of The Reverend Robert Page. Mr. Page's faith inspired him to serve the Lord faithfully! He preached the Word with conviction, and he always gave a word of encouragement to those in need. During his ministry, he seldom ever missed the opportunity to preach the Gospel. He was certainly a man of faith!

Mr. Page was motivated by the love of Christ, a love he demonstrated to his family, friends, Church, local churches, and country. Christ's love compelled Mr. Page to give of himself in so many ways. He was a great family man; he loved to be with his friends; he was loyal to The United Methodist Church and to the members of the churches he served; and he was very devoted to his country—to the point of almost dying for her! Yes, Mr. Page was a man whose "labor" was indeed "prompted by love."

Mr. Page also lived his life to the fullest and was able to do so because of the special "hope" he had, a hope that there would be something better – much, much better – for him in eternity. He lived with the hope of spending eternity with Jesus! On Sunday morning, January 16, 1994, shortly before eleven o'clock, Mr. Page said with Paul in II Timothy 4:6b-8, "...the time has come for my departure. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day – and not only to me, but to all who have longed for His appearing." At almost the same time when, for so many years, he had stepped into the pulpit to preach the Word, The Reverend Robert Page stepped into eternity to be with Jesus forever!

JOHN MONROE SHINGLER
October 7, 1901- December 5, 1993

John Monroe Shingler was born October 7, 1901, in Holly Hill, S.C. He received his B.A. from Emory University in 1922 and his B.D. from the Candler School of Theology in 1926.

He was licensed to preach when he was 18, and was admitted on trial into the Conference in 1924. He was retired at the Annual Conference in 1967, with 42 years of service.

He was first married to Lucille Woodley Phippen (deceased 1944) of Grover. They had four children: Mary Claudia (Mrs. S. Darby Pendergrass), John Monroe, V, Lucille Woodley (Mrs. T.B. McEachern, and Lowndes Phippen (deceased). In 1947 he married Julia Elizabeth Withinton, and they had one son (deceased).

Prior to the merger of the Upper and Lower South Carolina Conferences, he was appointed pastor of the Main Street Church in Greenwood (then a part of the Upper S.C. Conference). He then served as Superintendent of the Greenwood District.

His next appointment was Trinity Church, Sumter. During this pastorate, there was a disastrous fire, and he led the congregation in a rebuilding program that resulted in the present beautiful sanctuary. Following two more appointments, he retired, and they chose to live in Greenwood.

He served on many conference boards and agencies, such as Temperance, Evangelism, Ministerial Training, Education, Missions (Vice-chair), Belin Fund (Chair), Epworth Children's Home (Chair), and Pensions.

He loved to hunt and fish, and saw in nature the evidence of God's goodness in creation, feeling with the Psalmist: "The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament shows forth his handiwork." He enjoyed travel, and recorded much of the beauty he saw on slides which he would share with others.

In retirement he often filled preaching engagements, served as an interim pastor, and served part-time on the staff at Main Street United Methodist Church for several years. He was a faithful supporter of the local church and of his pastor.

From each of the 10 congregations which he served while in the itinerant ministry, there are persons who remember him and his ministry with appreciation, and who kept in touch with him through the years.

At his death, it was suggested that memorials be made to Epworth Children's Home or the Greenwood Methodist Home, serving institutions which he greatly appreciated and supported through the years.

In addition to his widow and three children, he is survived by 12 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. There are now three living persons who bear the name John Monroe Shingler.

Funeral services were held in Main Street United Methodist Church in Greenwood on December 7, conducted by Carlos O. Gardner (his pastor), C.J. Lupo, Jr. (former pastor and long-time friend), and Herbert L. Spell (colleague in ministry through the years).

Appropriately, John Shingler was dressed in his pulpit robe which was given him by Trinity Church, Sumter, after his old robe was burned in the fire which destroyed the sanctuary and his office. He had on a white stole, symbol of his belief in the Easter faith with its promise of resurrection and life that outlives death.

The interment service was held at Holly Hill, the place of his birth.

C.J. Lupo, Jr.

CLAUDE MARTIN SHULER
September 20, 1926 – September 30, 1993

I first knew Dr. Claude Martin Shuler when he was minister of Midland Park UMC in the Charleston District. I last knew him as his pastor at Platt Springs UMC where he placed his charge Conference membership while on disability leave. I remember Claude as one who had great gifts as a teacher. He taught Bible at Columbia College and was Professor of religion at Coker College. He was in demand as a Bible teacher at churches and Christian Worker's Schools over the Southeast. While on disability leave he continued to teach classes at Platt Springs.

Claude Shuler was born in Holly Hill, S.C. on September 30, 1926 to John E and Katherine E. Shuler. He was ordained and elder in 1956 and received into full connection in 1956. Horeb, Carteret Street, Wesley in Hartsville, St. Paul in Spartanburg, Wesley Memorial in Columbia, Pacolet-White Stone, and Victor in Greer before taking a disability leave in 1982. During his career he served as President of a number of ministerial associations and served on the conference Commission on Worship, Commission on Missions and the Committee on Nominations.

Dr. Shuler was honored at Saint Paul's by having the Family Center named for him. One of the panels of the Chancel window at Platt Springs was given in his honor.

WILLIAM HAROLD SMITH
March 4, 1918 – May 22, 1994

The Reverend William Harold Smith was a person of unique grace, poise, love, and commitment. A native of Alabama, he came to Spartanburg Junior College to study for the ministry, met Mary Gault, fell in love with both South Carolina and Mary and stayed to be a faithful husband and an outstanding minister. God blessed this marriage with three wonderful children. William Herbert (Bill), James Eugene (Gene), and Carole Smith Downey.

Harold was accepted into the South Carolina Conference (OT) in 1943 and was received into full connection in 1945. He served eleven appointments with great distinction spanning some forty years: El Bethel in Spartanburg – 1941-1942; Abbeville Circuit 1942-1943; Calhoun Falls – 1944-1948; Marshall Memorial – 1948-1953; Edgefield-Trenton – 1953-1956; Bethel, Rock Hill – 1956-1959; Ware Shoals-Hodges – 1959-1963; Trinity Charleston – 1963-1967; St. George – 1967-1973; Francis Asbury (Greenville) – 1973-1977; Grace Pickens – 1977-1981. Entering the retired relationship in 1981, Harold and Mary moved to their home at Lake Junaluska.

Harold's trustworthiness is reflected in his appointment by Bishop Tullis to two terms on the Conference Committee on Investigation. He also served on the Board of Trustees of Spartanburg Methodist College 1966-1978, the Board of Missions and Church Extension 1963-1967 as well as many District Boards. This service denotes his leadership ability.

It is no exaggeration to say that Harold made close and lasting friendships everywhere he lived and served. We are proud to be counted among them because he was, indeed, both unique and special. He was blessed with a genuine, godly piety; he took his faith and his work as a pastor very seriously and won many to the kingdom. He was also possessed of a marvelous sense of humor and knew how to relax and enjoy himself. Harold and Mary Smith, Tom and Inez Evatt, and Iris and Ed Ellis shared many wonderful times together. We shared the faith, supported and loved each other, and laughed until we cried. Harold was the glue that brought us together, kept us honest, and taught us how to relax and have fun.

Charles Wesley's words sum it up well:

"Servant of God well done!
Thy glorious warfare's just;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

We were privileged to know many of his parishioners and on the day of his funeral someone was present from almost every charge that he had served. That says something about the kind of pastor he was. But it says more about the kind of man of God he was! He gave of himself so freely never asking for anything in return. He loved and raised an exemplary family being an ideal husband and father. But more than all of this he had the respect of his parishioners and his peer. What a blessing to have known this loyal Methodist, faithful minister, and priceless friend! What a fine legacy he left us. Love Christ! Be yourself. Do your job! Be faithful! Enjoy life!

HENRY ALVIN SPRADLEY
July 21, 1918 – November 22, 1993

Henry Alvin Spradley, the son of Arthur Francis and Onita Pamell Spradley, was born in Bishopville, S.C. on July 21, 1918. He married Ruth Hilton on April 15, 1944 and to their union two children were born: Henry Alvin Spradley, Jr., and Phyllis S. Pruet. Instead of settling down in his insurance work after discharge from the United States Army, Al Spradley settled in at North Charleston United Methodist Church serving as a Sunday School teacher, Scout leader and anything else a faithful servant could do with organization, good effort, good will and good sense. Al Spradley epitomized stewardship in every sense of the word.

Preaching the Word was something Al Spradley prepared to do over a long period of time. He was licensed to preach in August 5, 1955 and served as a lay associate at St. Mark, North

Charleston and St. Paul (Yonges Island) churches. He was ordained a Deacon in 1960 and an Elder in 1962. Al Spradley moved his family to Cross Anchor in 1962 order to complete his Bachelor of Arts degree at Presbyterian College. He went on to serve St. Mark (Spartanburg), Unity – Sardis (Union), St. Luke (Spartanburg), Elloree, and Williston – Blackville. Alvin and Ruth Spradley settled in Lexington, S.C. following his retirement in 1985. However, Al supplied Shiloh Church and then served on the staff of Mt. Hebron Church in West Columbia until the time of his death. The funeral service for Henry Alvin Spradley was conducted by The Rev. E. Herbert Franklin and The Rev. George M. Riser at Mt. Hebron United Methodist Church, West Columbia, S.C. on Wednesday, November 24, 1993. Interment was in Elmwood Cemetery, Columbia, S.C.

Al Spradley's quite integrity and willingness to serve were expressed in the community activities in which he immersed himself wherever he lived. Ruth was at his side in itinerate ministry. His children were with him while he was a college student. He made time for his family, cared for his flock as a pastor and was a good witness in local community activities. Al Spradley had the faith and the temperament and the will to be the complete pastor. He was a mentor to many, a friend to all and good to the core. I believe the poem, "In The Hollow of His Hand" expresses the faith and life of Al Spradley.

"He led me through the lifetime of my days.
He taught me in countless little ways.
He guided me on so many paths unknown.
He guarded me as a shepherd keeps his own.
He shielded me, though I may not always see,
The many ways my Lord delivered me.
He lifted me when I fell and helped me stand.
He held me in the hollow of his hand."

JOSEPH BUCK STRETCH

September 11, 1991 – September 8, 1993

Joseph Buck Stretch, the son of Louis William and Sarah Rogers Stretch, was born in Bonneau, S.C. September 2, 1911. On October 14, 1940, he married Etta Mae Bacon of Hinesville, GA. The service of Death and Resurrection for Mr. Stretch was conducted five days after his death by The Rev. Samuel Johnson and The Rev. Angelin J. Simmons at noon, Monday, September 13, 1993, at Mt. Carmel United Methodist Church in Charleston, S.C. Interment was in the Bethel United Methodist Church Cemetery, Bonneau, S.C. Mr. Stretch is survived by his spouse, Etta Mae and his children: Louis, Sarah and Joseph Stretch and Pauline, Bettis and Timothy Murray.

Joseph Buck Stretch was licensed to preach by the Charleston District on October 28, 1965 at age 54. For the next nineteen years he served as a supply pastor at St. James Wesley, Greeleyville Parish, Enoch Chapel, St. Paul and Grove Hall churches. He was happy to join the throng of supply pastors who, over the years, cared for the churches that otherwise would have been without pastoral care and leadership. He served where he could and did what he could to make the ministry of Jesus Christ a reality. We can all be thankful for Joseph B. Stretch's willingness to act on behalf of others.

Following his formal retirement in 1984, Mr. Stretch became an active member of Mt. Carmel Church in Charleston.

HENRY SHEDRON SUGGS

August 11, 1930 – April 15, 1994

Henry Shedron Suggs, son of Guthry Hampton and Maggie Elliott Suggs, was a native of Loris, S.C. where he attended the public schools. He continued his education at Asbury College in Wilmore, Kentucky and through the Conference Course of Study at Duke and Emory Universities.

He married Ernestine Allen of Aynor, S.C. on June 19, 1955. A daughter, Phyllis Van, and a son, Henry Alan, were born of this marriage.

During his thirty-nine years as a pastor in the South Carolina Conference, Shedron served churches in South Aynor, Hartsville, Pageland, Cameron, Greenwood, Hampton, Chesterfield, and Aynor.

It was my privilege to know Shedron before I answered God's call to enter full-time ministry. He was serving a charge near my home and was most helpful in counseling and advising me as I decided to enter the ordained ministry. We were good friends from the day we met until God called him from this life. He loved the outdoors and was an avid hunter and fisherman.

Shedron was faithful to his calling. The people of his former parishes praise him and recount incidents of his loving pastoral care. I believe the greatest challenge of his ministry occurred when the church building in Aynor was destroyed by fire and he, as pastor at that time, was called upon to lead that congregation in the planning and building of a new sanctuary. The present church building there is a tribute to his effort.

This conference, the people he served, and all his colleagues in ministry have lost a good and true friend. We are glad we have known and shared life with this faithful servant.

The memorial service was held at 3 p.m. on Sunday, April 17, 1994 at Aynor UMC with entombment in Hillcrest Mausoleum in Conway, S.C. The service was conducted by Rev. Robert J. Howell, Sr. and Rev. Dewey L. Dean.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth; Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

BILLY AMON WELLS

May 10, 1929 – April 16, 1994

May 10, 1929, was an important day in the home of Philip Y. and Delta H. Wells of Durant, Oklahoma. That was the day that their son, Billy Amon, was born. He was one of seven children; six boys and one girl. Their home must have been ecumenical – two of their boys became clergymen; one, a Presbyterian Minister, and Billy, a United Methodist Minister.

Billy spent 21 years in the United States Air Force. This took him to many parts of the world, including Canada, Mexico, Newfoundland and Japan. His work as an Air Force Recruiter gave him excellent experience and training that would be a wonderful asset as a United Methodist Minister.

He cherished education and sought it across the years. He attended school at Mississippi State University, University of Alaska, Colorado State University, University of Mississippi, and Wofford College, from which he received his B.S. degree in 1971. His theological training was done at Lutheran Seminary in Columbia and Emory, where he received his Masters degree and Dr. of Divinity. He later returned to Emory for further study in Counseling.

On August 8, 1953, he was married to Harriet Pridmore of Gaffney, S.C. Harriet was his lifelong companion and friend. Into their home four children were born, all of which survive him. Pamela W. Smith and Vicki W. Ols of Piedmont, S.C., Philip S. Wells of Seneca, S.C. and Christopher A. Wells of Newberry, S.C.

The Ordained Ministry was a second career for Billy. After receiving a call to Ministry, he was licensed to preach in March, 1963, in the N. Mississippi Conference. He transferred to the South Carolina Conference in 1969 where he was ordained a deacon in 1971 and an elder in 1977. The last 25 years of his life were spent as a United Methodist Minister.

One of his "trademarks" in ministry was his love for and his relationship with people. In addition to his work in the church, he was deeply involved in community activities and social agencies. He helped organize the Zoar Ruritan Club at Greer. He was active in the Kiwanis Club, and he was a life member of the Gamecock Club. He received awards from the South Carolina House of Representatives and the Boy Scouts of America in recognition of his extensive labors and involvement in the community where he lived and served.

Although his life was filled with interest in many things, the Ordained Ministry was his first love. He served appointments at Zoar, Greer; Laurens Road – St. Johns, Greenville; St. Andrews, Easley; Grace-Patterson Chapel, Woodruff; St. Paul, Ridgeland; and Grace-Apalache in Greer, where he was serving at the time of his death.

Interment was at Woodlawn Memorial Park in Greenville. The Memorial service was held for Billy on Monday afternoon, April 19, 1994, at Memorial United Methodist Church in Greer, South Carolina. This service was one of joyful praise for and celebration of a life that had been touched and changed by the Living Lord – a life that had also touched and influenced many others for the Resurrected Lord and His Glorious Church.

"And I heard a voice from heaving, saying, '...Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord henceforth, Blessed indeed,' says the spirit, 'that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them!' " (Revelation 14:13)

BEATRICE COWARD BOBO
March 25, 1911 – April 30, 1994

"Bea" Bobo, wife of the Reverend Preston Bolt Bobo and daughter of the late David Will and Viola Coward, joined the church triumphant April 30, 1994. Her earthly body was given to the Medical University of South Carolina. A memorial service celebrating her life was held at Mt. Hebron United Methodist Church, West Columbia, on Sunday, May 1, 1994.

On February 17, 1934, Bea and Bolt were united in marriage. Together they faithfully served Christ and his church for nearly forty-six years across South Carolina in itinerant ministry. From 1978 until her death she was a faithful member of Mt. Hebron United Methodist Church.

Left to cherish the memories of this good Christian woman are her husband, two daughters, Sylvia B. Jenkins of Roebuck, and Christine B. Vassy of Concord, Alabama, two sons, the Reverend Kenneth G. Bobo of Spartanburg, and Preston B. Bobo, Jr. of Columbia. A sister, Louise Tate of Washington State, six grandchildren and one great-granddaughter.

"She always leaned to watch for us,
Anxious if we were late,
In winter by the window,
In summer by the gate;

And though we mocked her tenderly,
Who had such foolish care,
The long way home would seem more safe
Because she waited there.

Her thoughts were all so full of us -
She never could forget!
And so I think that where she is

She must be watching yet, waiting till we come home to her,
Anxious if we are late -
Watching from heaven's window,
Leaning from heaven's gate."

ANNIE HASTIE BOWEN
October 30, 1911 – April 20, 1994

Durante Vita

"God saw the road was getting rough, the hills were hard to climb:
He gently closed her loving eyes, an whispered 'Peace be Thine'
The weary hours, the days of pain, the sleepless sights are past;
The ever patient worn out frame, has found sweet rest at last."

On October 30, 1991, Annie Hastie Bowen began her sojourn in Sumter County, South Carolina as the eldest child of the late James and Lula Wright Hastie. In her earliest childhood, she joined the New Bethel Baptist Church. When she married the late Rev. John B. From the work she has done here on earth, we, her family, feel that it is now well with her soul. We will miss her, but realize to live in hearts we leave behind is to never die. God saw the need to give His servant rest when He called Mrs. Annie Hastie Bowen from labor to reward on Sunday, April 24, 1994 at Toumey Regional Medical Center.

She was predeceased by two brothers, Tutus Hastie, Sr., and David Hastie; and one sister, Mrs. Mary Hastie Gillard.

"Our hearts are filled with sorrow, Our tears flow in streams.

But we still our grief long enough, To think what Homegoing means – God has recalled the life He gave

FRANCES ELOREE PARRISH CHANDLER

April 16, 1912 – March 19, 1994

Frances Eloree Parrish Chandler, known to her many friends as "Ree", was born April 16, 1912, in Woodruff, South Carolina, the oldest child of the late Joseph Milton and Bessie Gowan Parrish. At an early age she moved with her family to Tucapau, now known as Startex, South Carolina, where her father was a supervisor in a textile mill.

Following her graduation from high school, Ree longed to continue her education; but as the Great Depression deepened, this seemed impossible. Ree went to work saving her money and in time was able to enroll in classes at the Textile Industrial Institute, later known as Spartanburg Junior College, commuting by train. With scholarship assistance added to her own savings and help from family, she entered Converse College in Spartanburg from which she graduated. Education which she struggled as a young person to acquire remained important throughout her life.

On July 8, 1941, she was married to the Reverend William Harry Chandler the pastor of the Kelton Circuit. Their life together carried them across forty-three years of outstanding ministerial service including six years on the Greenwood District and pastorates in Spartanburg, Providence, Greenville, Winnsboro, Columbia, and Rock Hill. During their service at Saxon, 1945-48, Harry was Chaplain and taught Bible at Spartanburg Junior College while Ree taught Sociology at the college. Harry Chandler was serving as Executive Director of The South Carolina United Methodist Foundation at the time of his death in 1984.

Ree was a faithful follower of the devotional life immersing herself in the reading of devotional materials and all forms of Christian literature. You could always find her in the middle of a good book eager to share some spiritual insight which she had just discovered in its pages. She personified the traditional Methodist pursuit of Christian Perfection seeking always to grow in the love of God and the love of neighbor. These were so beautifully and so patiently combined into the controlling motive of her life.

She was devoted to the missionary enterprise of her Church, and her heart was always in the mission work. She was a leader in the work of the United Methodist Women and was well-known as a teacher in Schools of Mission at the district, conference, and jurisdictional levels of the United Methodist Church. Ree also taught in the public schools in Columbia, Greenwood, and Rock Hill.

To the public school classroom she brought a "missionary spirit" for the needs, both spiritual and physical, she saw in young children especially those who had come from disadvantaged homes. Ree loved those children; she loved most the ones who had received so little love in their young lives. She ministered to them and worked to improve the quality of their lives. Following her retirement from active teaching, she continued to offer her skills and experience as a volunteer especially in teaching reading on a one-on-one basis to adults as well as children.

Ree was deeply sensitive to the needs of people and deeply concerned over the wrongs she saw in society. She had a broad social conscience, and she identified with hurting people. She embodied the traditional Wesleyan teaching that the "experience of the faith" and the "expression of the faith" go hand in hand – that to experience the grace and love of God in Christ in one's own life is to immediately reach out to others in the selfless extension of that love and grace. Ree helped us to remember the world for which Christ died. To know her was to see in human form the embodiment of a Christ-like love and compassion for all people but especially for "the least of these."

Ree died on Saturday, March 19, 1994, at Self Memorial Hospital in Greenwood, South Carolina, following a brief illness. She had been a resident at the Greenwood Methodist Home for the last several years of the life.

Mrs. Chandler is survived by four children: Luther Calvin Chandler of Columbia, Harriet Parrish Chandler Sample of Rock Hill, Catherine Frances Chandler Jacobs of Clinton, and Elizabeth Jean Chandler McDaniel of Columbia, two sisters, two brothers, and six grandchildren.

A graveside funeral service was held for Frances Eloree Parrish Chandler on Sunday, March 20, 1994, at the Wellford Cemetery in Wellford, South Carolina with the Reverends Carlos O. Gardner and Roger M. Gramling officiating.

HELEN WILSON GABLE

May 9, 1920 – December 5, 1993

Born in Lexington County, a daughter of Oscar and Mattie Lou Wilson, Helen was married to the Reverend Thermond Gable. They were blessed with two children, Elaine and Rhett.

Always involved in the life of the church where her husband was appointed, Helen served as organist or pianist, teacher or wherever her talents could be offered for God as the spouse of a minister.

After a stroke several years ago, sickness was a part of Helen's life. With grace and dignity she accepted those limitations, yet it could not conquer her spirit. She lived in service to others as a volunteer one day each week for seven years in the Intensive Care Unit at Lexington Medical Center, helped with the food basket program for the needy, attended meetings including church and Sunday School every week as well as many other projects of service.

When I first met Helen I sensed this special quality of generosity in her life. She was a wonderful human being, unselfish, likeable, a generous giver with a strong faith, and untiring in her efforts to serve God.

A Service of Death and Resurrection was held for her at Lexington United Methodist Church on December 7, 1993. We are grateful for her life and influence among us, and pledge to try to continue that loving and caring example, remembering that she has gone to that home in the heaven, the prize we all seek.

ETTA SPROUSE McCRAW

November 24, 1908 – January 19, 1994

At this very moment . . .

At this very moment, what do you say? At this very moment. We all come with our own feelings and our own thoughts about Miss Etta and about death. The important thing for us to remember is: that God is with us. And that to God there is nothing more important than this very moment. God looks upon time differently than we do – from human time. God lives in another sphere, another dimension entirely. To God there is no past or future. There is only present. To God everything is now. "For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, or as a watch in the night." (Psalm 90:4)

God sees all time, the whole of it and every moment of it, and God sees it all right now. Nothing is lost to God. I find that very comforting and also frightening, for God cannot forget anything that happened since it is happening before Him all the time. Nor can we sneak something past God in the future since it is already happening before God. In God's time everything is now – forever now!

That makes Jesus even more important for us. For at this very moment, Jesus is with us in our pain and our rejoicing. For Jesus is both God and human. This means, then, that Jesus has one foot in God's time and one foot in human time. He stands with us in the face of death. As a human being, he lives life along with us, minute by minute. Thus he could grow in age and wisdom and stature.

When I first learned about Jesus when I was very young, I was overwhelmed by the account of his passion and death. I can remember thinking – and I still have the same thoughts today – what a terrible thing it was for him to be betrayed by one of his close friends. I could not understand how Peter could deny him and the Apostles run off and abandon him. If I had been there, I would have fought off the soldiers. I would have done anything I could to prevent his tragic suffering and death. If only I had been there.

But I am there. At this very moment. Every suffering takes place with Jesus. Every pain is joined with his pain. When we say yes to the death of Jesus, we accept our own death. Those who believe in Jesus, die with Jesus. There is no other way. This is our salvation.

You can depend on this:
If we have died with Him
We shall also live with Him;
If we hold out to the end
We shall also reign with Him.

(2 Timothy 2:11)

So it is at this very moment, we celebrate the life of one who lived with Jesus and who died with Jesus. We celebrate the life of Miss Etta, as a person of faith, who set an example, not only for her family, but for others as well. Who, as a person, at this very moment, we don't have to say anything about, for her life spoke for itself. It spoke of her faith to her Lord, her love to her family and to her husband Preacher Rob. Miss Etta understood what the real meaning of ministry was all about, for she went about doing good. At this very moment what can we say? Thanks be to God for her life and our time spent with her. At this very moment, what can we say? There is not darkness, there is light. And the light shines before all of us to make the same commitment to Jesus Christ as Miss Etta. At this very moment what can we say? There is peace for her now. There is joy in heaven. And we who are left without her have this comforting fact: Death is not the end. In Christ it will never be the end.

In this very moment, what can we say? Thanks be to God who has exalted Jesus and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God our creator and our parent. Amen.

She went with her beloved Herbert to eleven appointments where she presided with her gentle charm and gracious manner in all the varied circumstances which Methodists provide their preachers and spouses. She lived her life believing in the goodness of God. Even in the latter months when she knew she was dying she was grateful for having such a full life, surrounded by the beauty of creation, the love of family and friends, and the support of the Methodist Church.

Sarah was a teacher who was at home with beauty and ideas that expanded the human spirit. She shared her love of literature, language, and life with high school students as a teacher in the public schools of South Carolina for 18 years. ERIC LeSHAUN EVANS
August 7, 1987 – June 27, 1993

"I just got to heaven and I can't sit down" sung by his children's choir friends expresses the joyful abundance of life felt by Eric LeShaun Evans in his all too short sojourn on earth. He loved physical games and sports. He was strong, persistent and lovable.

He will be missed by his parents, the Reverend John Wesley and Claudia Evans and brothers John Wesley, III, Charles Sterling, Emory Eugene, and Joseph Bethea as well as sister, Zebra Tamika.

Having been active in his master's church since his earliest days, Eric exemplified the children of whom Mark wrote:

"And they were bringing children to him that he might touch them; and the disciples rebuked them. But when Jesus saw it he was indignant, and said to them, 'let the children come to me, do not hinder them; for to such belong the kingdom of God.'" Mark 10:13-14

HOPE LITTS
October 13, 1993

Almighty God, loving Parent of all your children, we come in sorrow that Hope Litts has been taken from us so soon.
Sometimes the burdens of life almost overwhelm us.
Yet we put our full trust in you, knowing that through your Son Jesus Christ
you are with us always.
We take comfort that your loving arms surround us in our time of grief.
Be with Hope's mother, Martha, who carried her with love for so long.
We know you feel her disappointment and pain.
May her faith be renewed in the days ahead
as she regains her strength.
Be with Hope's father, Ray, and her relatives.
You know the heaviness of their hearts.
Pour upon them your gracious healing, in the Name of Jesus Christ, the great Physician, we pray.

Amen.

I. ANNUAL CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER AND PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

1. The procedure of the Annual Conference shall be governed by the following in the order listed: The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, The Standing Rules of the Annual Conference, The Rules of Order of the preceding General Conference and the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised. For the purpose of transacting business, the quorum shall be those present and eligible to vote. (90)
2. The official roll call of the Annual Conference shall be the roll cards signed by the clerical and lay members present. The record of attendance shall be made from these cards. (94)
3. Lay members of Boards, Councils, Commissions and Committees; lay members of the Conference Staff; and lay persons who are heads of Conference institutions supported by the Conference, who are not members of the Annual Conference, shall have the privilege of the floor without vote. (97)
4. In order to secure the floor a member desiring to speak to the Conference shall stand at his or her seat, if able, with one arm raised, but shall not move to a microphone until recognized by the chair. At the microphone the member shall first state his or her name and the charge or appointment represented.
5. No member who has the floor may be interrupted except for a point of order, a misrepresentation, a parliamentary inquiry, a point of information, or to call attention that the time has arrived for a special order.
6. A member of the Conference may not speak more than once on a question before the Conference until every member who wishes to speak has spoken, subject to rules limiting debate. A member shall not speak for more than three (3) minutes at any time, except by permission of the Conference. (98)
7. When the report of a board, council, commission, or committee is under consideration, the chair shall ascertain, when recognizing a member of the Conference, to which side the member desires to speak: the chair shall not give the floor to any member to speak on the same side of the pending question as the speaker immediately preceding if any member desires to speak to the other side. Except for undebatable motions, no report shall be acted upon or question relating to the same decided without opportunity having been given for at least two speeches for and two speeches against the said proposal. After three speeches for and three against, the question shall be put automatically. However, the chairperson or designated member presenting the report shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken. This right shall prevail in like manner to a limit of three minutes when a vote is about to be taken on a motion to amend, to substitute, to postpone, to refer, to lay on the table, or any other motion whose adoption is pertinent to the report under consideration.

8. A copy of any motion made on the Conference floor shall be sent to the secretary's desk as soon as the person making the motion returns to his/her seat. (99)
9. The report of a board, council, commission or committee duly presented to the Conference for its action shall be deemed properly before the Conference without the necessity of a motion to adopt and a second thereto.
10. A member rising to a point of order shall state the point as briefly and concisely as possible citing the rule or disciplinary provision invoked in the point of order. A point of order shall be decided by the chair without debate unless the chair submits the question to the body for advice or decision. When the chair rules on a point, debate is closed; but the decision may be appealed to a vote of the body.
11. When a motion is made and seconded and stated by the chair, or a resolution is introduced and seconded, or an agency report is made or is published in the Pre-Conference report(s), it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference and may not be altered except by action of the Conference.
12. The main question may be opened to debate under the following motions: to adopt, to commit, to substitute, to postpone, and to reconsider.
13. If any one or more of the following motions shall be made when one or more other motions are pending, the order of their precedence in relation to one another shall be the same as the order of their listing below:
  1. To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn. (This motion is subject to amendment, or it may be laid on the table.)
  2. To adjourn.
  3. To take a recess.
  4. To raise a question of privilege.
  5. To call for the orders of the day.
  6. To lay on the table.
  7. To order the previous question.
  8. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
  9. To postpone to a given time.
  10. To refer.
  11. To amend or substitute (one amendment being allowed to an amendment).
14. Motions that are to be acted upon without debate:
  1. To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn the Conference finally.
  2. To suspend a rule or rules or any provision of the Standing Rules.
  3. To lay on the table.
  4. To take from the table.
  5. To call for the previous question.
  6. To reconsider a non-debatable motion.

7. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
  8. To call for the orders of the day.
15. When a member moves the previous question, it shall be regarded as applying only to the immediate pending question. This motion shall be taken without debate, and a two-thirds vote of those present and voting shall be required for its adoption. If adopted, the vote shall be taken on the motion to which it applies without further debate.
  16. After discussing a pending question and before relinquishing the floor, a member may make a motion, but not one whose adoption would limit or stop debate.
  17. A motion to reconsider an action of the Conference shall be in order at any time if offered by a member who voted with the prevailing side. If the motion proposed for reconsideration is non-debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.
  18. The report of the Committee on Standing Rules shall be made as a part of the organization of the Conference and as often during the session as necessary.
    - a. All proposed changes in the Standing Rules shall be submitted in writing for referral to the Committee on Standing Rules and then reported out with recommendations after twelve (12) hours.
    - b. It shall require a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote to suspend the rules.
    - c. When the rules are to be suspended, only that specific portion of the rules under consideration shall be suspended.
    - d. The Annual Conference by a majority vote can amend or alter the Standing Rules with or without the concurrence of the Committee on Standing Rules, provided that any change or alteration not originating in the Committee on Standing Rules may be voted on after the lapse of twelve (12) hours from the time of its submission to the Conference. (100)
  19. It shall be an Order of the Day at the morning session of the first full day of Annual Conference that the floor shall be opened for additional nominations to all boards, councils, commissions, and committees to which the Committee on Nominations and parent boards are prepared to make nominations. (101)
  20. It shall be an Order of the Day on the third full day of Annual Conference to have the election of boards, councils, commissions, and committees. If additional nominations have been made per rule 19, and if requested by the Annual Conference, ballots shall be prepared by the Conference Secretary for use in the election. (102)
  21. The report of the Council on Finance and Administration shall be placed on the Conference Program for information on the first full day of the Conference and for action on the last day of the Conference. When a motion for an increase in World Service and Conference Benevolences arises from anyone other than the Council on Finance and Administration and is approved by the Annual Conference, that motion shall be held a minimum of twelve (12) hours and shall require an affirmative vote at a second reading for final approval. If such a motion arises from the Conference floor on the last day of Annual Conference, a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote shall be required for approval. (103)

HISTORICAL RECORD OF SESSIONS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

A detailed history of the South Carolina Conference has been published in The History of South Carolina Methodism by Albert D. Betts (Columbia: The Advocate Press, 1982), and the following chronology is based on the information contained in Dr. Betts' history. When John Wesley called his lay preachers together in London on June 25, 1744, to "confer" on the work of the growing Methodist Societies, the die for the annual Conference was cast. The practice was brought to the American shore as the Methodist Societies grew in the Colonies.

In colonial times Conferences were not neatly divided by the geographic divisions we find today, and, correspondingly, it is difficult to trace precisely a lineage that would make it possible to identify "the first Conference." Dr. Betts refers to the "first American 'Annual Conference'" (p. 34) as the one held in George's Church, Philadelphia, July 14, 1773, on the call of John Rankin who had been sent to America by John Wesley. The South Carolina Conference was organized in 1785, when a "section" of the Annual Conference was called at Louisburg, North Carolina, on April 20, 1785, the first Annual Conference at which Francis Asbury presided. About two years later, on March 22, 1787, the first session of the South Carolina Conference was held in Charleston, with both Bishops Francis Asbury and Thomas Coke sharing responsibilities as presiding officers. Sessions of the 1785 Conference are delineated as shown in the tables below.

The 1866 South Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was organized on April 2, 1866, in Charleston, South Carolina, following disagreement between blacks and whites about simultaneous but segregated worship of the two races.* (Detailed history of the 1866 Conference may be found in Passionate Journey, by John W. Curry, St. Matthews: Bill Wise Printers, 1980.) Pursuant to the 1964 General Conference action which dissolved the Central Jurisdiction to achieve "racial inclusiveness at all levels of the church," the 181st Session of the South Carolina Conference (1785) passed a resolution requesting bishops of the two South Carolina conferences to appoint a committee to work out a plan of merger.** The two conferences became one again in 1972. Sessions of the 1866 Conference are shown in tables below.

In 1914, General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, voted to divide the South Carolina Annual Conference (1785) and instructed the conference to fix a line of division. At its 129th Session the South Carolina Conference (1785) created the Upper South Carolina Conference.*** The two were combined again in 1948. Sessions of the Upper South Carolina Conference are shown in tables below.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 1993 AND 1992

1. Nature of Activities and Significant Accounting Policies:

Nature of Activities:

- 1.1 The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church governs the various boards, commissions, committees and agencies whose purpose is to carry out the programs of the United Methodist Church. The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church is a nonprofit religious organization and is exempt from paying income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. These financial statements report only those transactions maintained by the Treasurer of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Significant Accounting Policies:

1.2 Fund Accounting:

In order to ensure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the Conference, its accounts are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. Resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature and purposes. Separate accounts are maintained for each fund. Although transactions and balances of each board, commission, committee and agency are maintained separately, accounts which have similar characteristics are combined in the accompanying financial statements.

1.3 Cash and Cash Equivalents:

For purposes of reporting the statement of cash flows, the Conference considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

1.4 Investments:

Investments are recorded at cost which approximates market value. Earned income received on investments by the Conference Treasurer is allocated on the last business day of the year to the Conference Boards and Agencies and to certain district funds on the basis of month-end average balances held by the Treasurer.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

2. Fidelity Bond:

The General Council on Finance and Administration provides $ 1,000,000 fidelity bond protection for all Annual Conference Treasurers at no charge. Fidelity bonding for trustees and related staff is provided by the Annual Conference.

3. Ministerial Pension Plan and Comprehensive Protection Plan (MPP/CPP) and Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund (CPBF):

3.1 The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church participates in a defined benefit multi-employer pension plan administered by the General Board of Pensions of the United Methodist Church. The plan provides pension benefits to retiring members in addition to providing disability income benefits and guaranteed minimum benefits for widows and dependent children of deceased members.

3.2 The Conference contributes to the fund an amount equivalent to twelve percent (12%) of each minister's annual plan compensation (cash salary, tax-deferred contributions made, and housing allowance). For lay employees, the Conference contributes nine percent (9%) and the lay employee contributes three percent (3%). CPP contributions for eligible full-time ministers are the equivalent of 4.4% of the minister's plan compensation. MPP and CPP contributions are limited by the current denominational average compensation. Past service defined benefit funding is an annual actuarially determined amount approved by the Annual Conference. Each participant's contributions are fully vested. The Conference Treasurer remitted $ 3,099,487 in 1993 and $ 3,275,000 in 1992 to the General Board of Pensions. The Conference is not liable for any unfunded liabilities.

Past service expenses charged to the Annual Conference are $ 887,633 and $ 1,159,794 in 1993 and 1992, respectively. The Individual Annuity Mortality Table adjusted with a six percent (6%) interest assumption was used in the determination of these amounts.

3.3 Ministers' pension payments received by the Conference Treasurer are remitted to the General Board of Pensions of the United Methodist Church.

YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 1993 AND 1992

4. Accounting for Post-Retirement Benefits Other Than Pensions:

The Annual Conference requires no payment from retirees for retiree or dependents and does not plan to change this policy.

The Annual Conference sponsors a defined benefit post-retirement medical plan that covers substantially all of its statutory and common-law employees. The Plan is non-contributory and no change is anticipated in the future. The Plan is unfunded.

The Annual Conference also sponsors a defined benefit post-retirement death benefit plan that covers substantially all of its retired clergy members. This plan is non-contributory, is fully funded, and no change from this policy is anticipated in the future.

Other than the plans identified above, the Annual Conference sponsors no other post-retirement benefit plans.

As of January 1, 1993, the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standard (SFAS) No. 106, "Employer's Accounting for Post-Retirement Benefits Other Than Pensions", were adopted. Legal opinion has been obtained that the plans described above are multi-employer plans as that term is defined in Paragraph 79 of SFAS No. 106. Accordingly, the post-retirement benefit costs are recognized on a current period basis and were as follows for the period January 1, 1993 to December 31, 1993:

Post-Retirement Medical Benefit	$ 453,108.17
Post-Retirement Death Benefit	$ 11,496.00
